

Plans For Homecoming Complete

Schwab Lost To Bulldogs New Lineup

Junior Larry Schwab has been lost to the Bulldogs with a broken leg for a minimum of six to eight weeks, Head Basketball Coach Ira Norfolk reported. Schwab, a 6-foot-3 frontcourt performer was one of AC's top reserves a year ago and was fighting to fill the all important sixth man slot on the Bulldogs pack.

His accident occurred Friday night during a pre-season scrimmage with Campbell College.

"This is a big blow to the team," said Norfolk. "Larry was doing very well in pre-season practice."

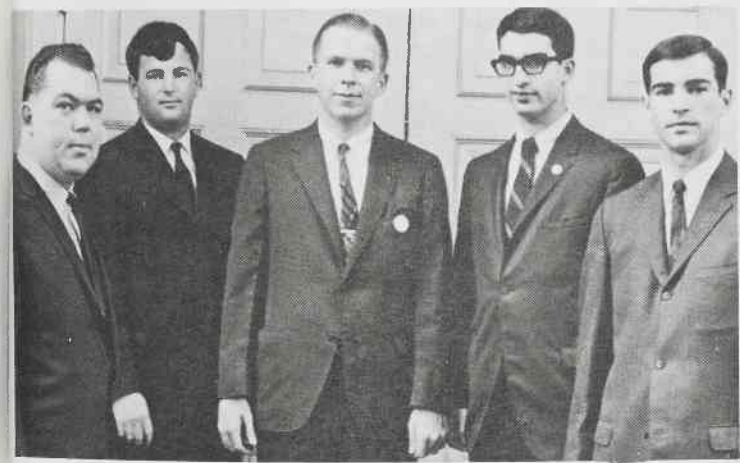

During Schwab's absence from the team, the sixth-man vacancy will put the pressure on several sophomores.

The Bulldogs, who play Elizabeth City State Teachers College in the annual homecoming game Saturday night at 7:30, open their regular season at Wilmington Nov. 29.

To Meet In Chapel Hill

Weekend Convention

YRC Delegation Plans To Attend Assemblage

The fall convention of the North Carolina College Council of Young Republicans will be held at the Holiday Inn in Chapel Hill, N. C., Friday and Saturday. The featured speaker will be Congressman Donald E. "Buz" Lukens, R-Ohio.

Congressman Lukens, a past chairman of the National Federation of Young Republicans, will address the convention at a banquet Friday night. On Saturday the convention will consider resolutions and conduct business.

Members of the Atlantic Christian Young Republican Club planning to attend the convention are Claiborne Perkins of Petersburg, Va.; Harold Herring of La Grange; Paul Latta of Oxford; and Herman Slate and Kenneth O'Connell both of Wilson.

Alumni College Panel

One of the main highlights of Atlantic Christian College's Homecoming slated to be held here Saturday will be the Alumni College which will feature a panel discussion on "The Vietnam Question." Seated on the panel will be, from left to right, Hugh B. Johnston Jr., assistant professor of modern languages; Dale Sessions, associate minister of the First Baptist Church of Wilson; Dr. Robert G. Capps, professor of sociology and chairman of the ACC Department of Social Studies; and Dr. Robert W. Delp, professor of history. The discussion will be held in the choral room of the Music Building at 3 p.m.

For Queen's Title

Winner Not Announced; To Be Crowned Friday

As Saturday draws nearer, expectations are high as to who is to be ACC's homecoming queen for 1967. Elections were held on Tuesday, following the presentation of candidates in the New Wilson Gymnasium. Voting continued through 4 p. m. Wednesday.

The following girls compose this year's homecoming court: Clara Grantham, sponsored by the Men's Dormitory Association; Priscilla Jinnette, SNEA; Dianne Massengill, Junior Class; Drenda Skinner, Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Also Carolyn Darden, Phi Mu; Toni Rothrock, PE Club; Kay Oglesby, Sigma Pi; Olivia Smith, Freshman Class; Nancy Swanson, Sophomore Class; Cynthia Bottoms, Phi Beta Lambda.

Also Connie Willis, Delta Sigma Phi; DeAnna Harmon, Delta Zeta; Linda Leigh Whitt, Senior Class; Alice Browder, Women's Dormitory Association; Mary Sue Kennedy, Sigma Sigma Sigma;

Soccer Club Plans Clinic With Match

There has been another event added to Homecoming this year, and it could prove to be an outstanding addition if AC students will only give it a chance. We're referring to a soccer clinic and soccer game to be put on by the Chapel Hill soccer club, a member of the 10-team North Carolina Soccer League.

The clinic will be held Saturday at 11 a.m. with instruction in various phases of the game being given by the players of the Chapel Hill club. A short game will be played by these same men against a group of AC students following the clinic. However, the highlight attraction of the day will come at 2:30 p.m. when Chapel Hill will take Greensboro, another member of the NCSL, at Toisnot Park, in what should prove to be an interesting match.

and Jill Matthews, Alpha Sigma Phi.

The Queen will be crowned Friday night during the Little Anthony and the Imperials concert in New Wilson Gymnasium. The 1967 Homecoming Queen will be crowned during intermission by the Alumni Queen.

IFC Reception Held In Roebuck's Honor

Russell Roebuck, recently elected National President of Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity, has been honored by a reception held in the parlor of Harper Hall.

Approximately 250 fraternity and sorority members, local and out-of-town friends of Roebuck were greeted by members of the Interfraternity Council composed of John Hyson, President of the Interfraternity Council; Jimmy Yates, President of Delta Sigma Phi; Tom Aycock, President of Alpha Sigma Phi; Gary McMahon, President of Sigma Phi Epsilon; Jim Adams, President

Preparations Are Turning To Products

By JOAN SABIA

Students are turning plans into products for the Atlantic Christian College Homecoming parade.

Several organized groups are making final preparations on floats which are to be presented to the public at 11 a.m. Saturday in downtown Wilson. Each of the 11 floats will be preceded by this year's rendition of last year's commercials. These will be centered around a song which is characterized by the month used for the float.

Although the parade is the official opening of AC's Homecoming, Friday night at the "Little Anthony and the Imperials" concert the Homecoming Queen will be crowned. The concert will begin at 8:15 p.m. in the New Wilson Gymnasium.

Homecoming events do not merely include currently enrolled students. The campus will be honored by alumni from classes of 1903-20, 1933, 1938, 1934 (Silver Anniversary), 1948, 1953, 1958 and 1963.

Pitted

The Bulldogs will be pitted against Elizabeth City State Teachers College at 7:30 p.m. Saturday. During half-time the 1943 Alumni Queen and 1967 Homecoming Queen will be presented with music to be provided by the ACC Vocal Ensemble under the direction of Dr. James V. Cobb.

Following the game, the annual Homecoming Dance will be held in the lobby of Hines Hall. The "Inmates" of Raleigh will play from 9 p.m. until 12 p.m.

250 Attend Reception
