Pi Gamma Mu Initates Hamlin

Dr. C. H. Hamlin was formally initiated into Pi Gamma Mu, National Social Honor Society, at the Dec. 18 meeting of the group. Arthur Dunn, president of the group; Michael Roach, vice-president; and George Boswell, torch-bearer, conducted the ceremony. Hugh B. Johnston presented a history of Dr. Hamlin's life, listing many of the contributions Dr. Hamlin has made to his church, the college and society. Dr. Robert Capps, chairman of the Social Science Department introduced Dr. Hamlin.

A birthday and Christmas cake was presented to Dr. and Mrs. Hamlin during the event by Pi Gamma Mu and the Department of Social Science. Following the meeting, a social was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Riddick Lamm.

Long Tenure

Professor Hamlin has been affiliated with Atlantic Christian

College for 45 years. He served as chairman of the Social Science Department for many years until his retirement from active teaching.

Born Nov. 16, 1890, in Burkeville, Va., Dr. Hamlin received his B.A. degree from the College of William and Mary in 1914; his M.A. degree from the University of Virginia in 1917; and his Ph.D. from the George Peabody College for Teachers in 1941.

In 1918 he was married to the former Mary Virginia Griffith. Their only son, Griffith Askew Hamlin was born in 1919 and is presently professor of Religion and Philosophy at William Woods College in Fulton, Mo.

Worthy Causes

In addition to his teaching duties, Dr. Hamlin has found time over the years to support a great number of worthy causes with his time, talents and money. Three memberships in which he takes special pride are the American Historical Association, the North Carolina Literary and Historical Association and the Historical Society of the Disciples of Christ Church. He has also written and published "Lobbyists and Lobbying in the North Legislature," "Ninety Bits of North Carolina Biography," "War Myth in United States History," "A Scrapbook of Reflections" and "Disciples of

Art Gallery To Hold Photographic Display

"Photography as Print-making," a survey of the more than a century-old tradition of the fine unique photographic print, will be on view in the art gallery Jan. 10 to Jan. 31.

Forty-five works by 39 photographers, ranging in date from 1842 to the present, demonstrate the unique characteristics and expressive potentials of various techniques used by the photographer to reduce an image. They reveal the continuing interrelationship of technique and photographic aesthetic, in work ranging from the daguerreotype to contemporary photographs. The exhibition was originally presented at The Museum of Modern Art, New York, and has been adapted for circulation in the United States and Canada.

"Photography as print-making" challenges the traditional separation between "straight photography," which seeks to mirror external reality, and an experimental approach which emphasizes the quality of the print itself, sometimes by dispensing with the camera-made image altogether. "This approach seeks to make the medium visible, whereas the former seeks to make it invisible," states Peter C. Bunnell, director of the exhibition and

Inducted Into Pi Gammu Mu

Dr. C. H. Hamlin, center, is presented a birthday and Christmas cake by Arthur Dunn, president of Pi Gamma Mu, during a Dec. 18 meeting in which he was inducted into the organization. Observing the presentation is Dr. Robert Capps, chairman of the Department of Social Science.

Amendments Approved By SGA Exec Board

By JOYCE COPELAND

The Executive Board's decision concerning the faculty resolution overshadowed the remaining business of the Dec. 11 meeting. The ACC legislature covered several areas including a tentative budget, the election of cheer leaders, and filing for candidacy.

The board approved a tentative budget outline for the discussion of raising student fees. The final plan increased the budget for all committees.

The Entertainment Committee and Pine Knot profited mostly from the action. The Entertainment Committee would get about $12,000 a year and the Pine Knot $15,000. The fee would be $16 per student per semester plus athletic fee.

Dr. Bennett said that since the Stage and Script was primarily a function of the English Department it should be financed through the tuition fees. After due consideration the board accepted this proposal and the budget plan was passed. If the administration approves the action the problem of signing contracts before the budget is set would be eliminated.

Collegiate To Take Publications Break

Due to the final exams scheduled next week and the following semester break, The Collegiate will not be published during the remainder of January. Regular scheduling of publications will begin Feb. 6.

All copy for advertising and all news information, including letters to the editor, must be submitted to the Collegiate offices not later than Monday, Feb. 3.

Bugged By Bug

Sammy Carter obviously finds that even getting out of classes for a while does not make Hong Kong flu worthwhile. The outbreak of flu in the state, now termed as an epidemic, has not spared ACC students of its wrath; though the college has suffered less than some of her sister institutions.
