The two presidential candidates have issued the following basic platforms:

Cast Announced For "Antigone"

The Stage and Script held tryouts for "Antigone" on Feb. 12 and 13. The cast selected includes Tom Albert, chorus; Sandra Edwards, Antigone; Vickie Newsome, nurse; Linda Spatig, Ismene; Jim Abbott, Haemon; Bob Noble, Creon; Steve Dollar, Wilbert Hardy; Robert Thompson, guards; Robby Koelling, messenger; Marvin Cox, page; and Jackie B. Keen, Eurydice.

Originally a Greek Tragedy, "Antigone" has been adapted for modern use. The adaptation to be presented by the Stage and Script was cleverly devised during WWII to appeal to the Nazi Germans and pass censorship. Yet it retained meaning for Germany's victim, France, and presented a universal appeal remaining today.

Al Cooke Is Named As Clerk

By JIM ABBOTT

RALEIGH — Two ACC delegates to the State Student Legislature held here last week were named to top student legislative posts. Kay Watson, sophomore class senator, was elected SSL secretary and Al Cooke, SGA vice-president, was named reading clerk in the Senate.

Over 35 North Carolina colleges and universities were represented at the 32nd session of the legislature. The oldest legislative body of its type in the United States, the body is a nationally recognized organization. A number of today's state legislators and past governors have served as delegates. It is significant that 46 per cent of the bills passed by SSL during its history have been enacted into law by the N. C. Legislature.

Atlantic Christian's delegates this year were: Byron Wyndham, Al Cooke, Paul Land, Paul Latta, Sarah Mewborn, Kay Antone, Kay Watson, David Finch and Jim Abbott.

Arriving here at noon Wednesday, the delegates registered at SSL. State and city officials welcomed the delegates during a plenary session that afternoon.

Wednesday night was reserved to allow the participating delegates to revise bills and to lay strategy for Thursday's session.

The ACC bill, entitled "An Act To Provide Measures For The Purposes of Purchasing Voting Machines," was passed almost unanimously in both houses. Only four votes were cast against the bill in the Senate and one in the House.

The ACC bill read as follows: "Section 1. The Legislature of the State of North Carolina, upon

Executive Board Creates Brilliant Math Discovery

By JOYCE COPELAND

The laws of mathematics include a statement on the diety of significant figures. According to William Perkinson comparing 2.47 to 2.5 is comparable to comparing apples to oranges. This enlightening discussion of the science of mathematics occurred during the special called meeting of the executive Board Monday night. The discussion dealt with the proposed candidacy of Joe Harwood for the office of vice-president of the SGA. Byron Wyndham had declared Harwood ineligible because the 2.5 average required of the office. Kay Watson, sophomore senator, moved to appeal the presidents decision. Perkinson then presented his thesis on the rounding off of Harwood's 2.47 average to 2.5 instead of making the 2.5 read 2.50. The board approved Miss Watson's motion.

In order to remain consistent, the board also approved the candidacy of Miss Lee Martin as editor of the Pine Knot. Miss Martin had a 2.18 average falling short of .02 of a point of the SGA approved 2.2 requirement.

A petition from Bill Galagher was presented to the board concerning his desire to be a write-in candidate for vice-president of the rising junior class. The board pointed out that this was not necessary and illegal. The class constitution provided for petitions for candidacy within one week of nominations.

Men's Dorm Is Named Waters Hall By Board

Atlantic Christian College's Board of Trustees, at its annual mid-winter meeting held Feb. 26, took action to award an honorary doctoral degree, name a major building and gave approval to a proposed operating budget which approaches the $2.5 million mark for the 1969-70 academic year.

The board named Miss Sarah Bain Ward, dean of women and counselor, to be awarded the honorary Doctor of Laws (LL.D.) degree at the college's May 30, 1969 commencement. Miss Ward is completing her twenty-fifth year of service to the college. A 1938 honor graduate of Atlantic Christian, she holds the M.A. degree from Columbia University.

Atlantic Christian College's most recently completed structure, a six-story dormitory for men, was named "Waters Hall" in honor of the late Dr. John Mayo Waters of Wilson, who died on Feb. 5, 1969. Until his retirement from college activities on May 31, 1968, Dr. Waters taught and served in many capacities at the college for 57 years.

The board approved a proposed operating expense budget of $2,487,000 for the 1969-70 academic year. The new budget provides for substantial increases in faculty and staff salaries. Additional income to fund the larger budget comes in part from increases in student fees. In addition to a previously announced increase of $100 in tuition for the 1969-70 academic year, the trustees approved increases in board and activities fees as well.
