

1971-72

The Collegiate

"No government ought to be without censors and where the press is free, no one ever will." Thomas Jefferson

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

ATLANTIC CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, SEPTEMBER 16, 1971

NUMBER ONE

New Profs

A number of new faculty and staff appointments were announced prior to the beginning of the fall semester which began on Sept. 6, by Dr. Arthur D. Wenger, president of the college.

Dr. Walter R. Parker Jr.
Dr. Walter R. Parker Jr., was named professor and chairman of the Department of Psychology. A native of Woodland, N. C., he received the B. S. degree from Wake Forest University, the M. Ed. degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and was awarded the Ph. D. degree by the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

He is a member of the North Carolina Personnel and Guidance Association, National Education Association, Phi Delta Kappas American Personnel and Guidance Association, and the Civitan Club. He is a member of the Baptist Church.

Mrs. Olivia P. Tyndall
Mrs. Olivia P. Tyndall was named assistant professor of education. A native of Trenton, N.C., she received the A.B. degree from Atlantic Christian College and the M.A. degree in education from East Carolina University. She has done further study at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and holds a graduate certificate in elementary education, a principal's certificate and a supervisor's certificate.

She is vice president of the local unit of the N. C. Association of Educators, a member of the National Education Association for Childhood Education International, a past member of Classroom Teacher's Association, and is currently vice president of the Wilson Unit of the Association for Childhood Education.

She is married to Dr. J. P. Tyndall who serves as chairman of the ACC Department of Science. She has a daughter, Patricia Barnes. They are members of Westview Christian Church.

Dr. Anand P. Jaggi
Dr. Anand Prakash Jaggi was named associate professor of economics. A native of India, he received the B. Comm. degree from G. S. College of Commerce; the Masters of Commerce from Jabalpur University, India; and was awarded the MBA degree in marketing and Ph. D. degree in applied economics by Michigan State University.

A teacher for seven years, his wife, Savita, is a native of Batvida (Punjab), India. He is a member of the American Association of University Professors, American Marketing Association and the American Economics Association.

Miss Eliza Jane Ray
Miss Eliza Jane Ray was named assistant professor of special education (speech and hearing). She will serve as teacher coordinator for deaf education. Born in Crossnore, N. C., she received the B. S. degree from Appalachian State University and was awarded the M. A. degree by Appalachian State in conjunction with the N. C. School for the Deaf.

Terrence L. Grimes
Terrence L. Grimes was named assistant professor of See PROFESSORS Page 4

SGA Holds First Meeting of the Year

THE BIGGEST AND BEST BURGERS in town were served by President and Mrs. Arthur D. Wenger at an outdoor dinner held at their home Wednesday night for students who assisted with orientation. Dennis Adams and Sandy Huggins are shown with the chief chef prior to sampling the evening's fare. (Photo by Milton Rogerson)

By JERRY BROYAL

The Executive Board of the Student Government Association held its first meeting this year Monday night in Hines Hall. President Bobby Baucom presided over the meeting.

In the area of New Business President Baucom presented to the Board the proposed Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities. Baucom pointed out that at this time there are no written documents stating what rights students have. Ed Harris moved that the Board accept the Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities as is. The Board passed the motion. It now goes before the faculty and then to the Board of Trustees.

Jim Sturdevant, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee, suggested we send two students and the Dean of Students to the SUSGA Entertainment Conference in Atlanta, Georgia. Robbie Steen estimated the cost for all three delegates to be around $350.00. It was placed on the floor as a motion and passed.

Baucom raised for discussion the probability of sending President Wenger and the President of our SGA to the President to Presidents Conference. It would meet in Washington, D.C. on October 1-3. The cost to be around $200.00. Debate followed. Marks moved that we not send delegates this year to the conference. His motion was passed.

Directly following that action the Board passed a motion to send the President of the SGA and the Dean of Students to a Leadership Conference. The conference is sponsored and paid for by the Humble Oil Company. The SGA would supply the funds for the plane tickets.

Mike Wenger, President of the Campus Christian Association, placed before the Board the proposal of giving the CCA representation on the SGA Board. Robert Cayton recommended that the issue be sent to the Constitution Committee. His recommendation was followed.

Freshmen elections were set for October 6-7.

The meeting went into a heated outcry when action taken by the Board of Trustees last May was announced by Baucom. The Trustees decided to discontinue open visitation in the male dorms on Sunday afternoons. The "reason" given for this action was lack of participation. In debate, talk of requesting the Trustees to reverse its stand was the main topic of discussion. Baucom entered at this point to caution that it is the Board of Trustees tradition to only approve one student petition or motion each year, and that we should wait and try to change the Freshman's girl's rules. Steen then expressed the views and deep feelings of the Board with the statement, "Heck with those old dudes, we should not stop sending the petitions and motions." Harris moved that the SGA strongly express its views by requesting the Trustees to reverse their decision regarding this institution. The motion passed. The meeting adjourned.

New Draft May Get Freshmen

The Selective Service System recently clarified expected policy changes on undergraduate student deferments.

College students who were enrolled full-time in the 1970-71 academic year will be eligible for student deferments in the 1971-72 school year if they continue to make satisfactory progress in their programs of study. Selective Service officials said. However, young men who entered school for the first time this summer and those who enroll as freshmen this fall will not qualify for student deferments if the pending changes to the Selective Service Act are passed by Congress. The House has completed action on the bill and final Senate action is expected in September.

Dr. Curtis W. Tarr, Selective Service Director, said: "Few incoming freshmen students are likely to be inducted in the near future because of the student deferment phaseout. Of the 1,034,000 incoming freshmen males estimated by the Office of Education, approximately 80 per cent are 18 years old and only 20 per cent are 19 years of age or older. The 18-year-olds will receive their lottery numbers in 1972, and they will not be subject to induction until 1973, when draft calls should be low. The 19-year-old freshmen received their lottery numbers August 5 of this year and will be subject to induction next year; at least one-half should have high enough lottery numbers to preclude their induction. Of those remaining, approximately 50 per cent will be disqualified on mental, moral or physical grounds.

Dr. Tarr said that college students will not be drafted in the middle of a semester or term. "If called while enrolled, they will be allowed to postpone their induction until the end of the semester, or term. If in their last academic year, they will be able to postpone their induction until after graduation."

"If the pending Selective Service legislation does not pass," Tarr said, "it would not be in a registrant's best interest to obtain a student deferment which would extend his liability until age 35. Should Congress change the legislation to provide for deferments for new incoming freshmen, which is most unlikely, applications for deferments will not be jeopardized by delaying their submission until after passage of the new law."

FRESHMEN TALENT SHOW — Francisco Matamorras of Costa Rica was among 12 freshmen displaying their talent in the Freshmen Talent Show held on campus at the beginning of school. The colorful performer did a dance and song of his native land. The freshmen performed to a full house — standing room only. If the talent show is any indication of the quality of the freshman class it should be one of the greatest in the history of the college. (Photo by Jim Lowery)