NUMBER THREE

Draft Extended

WASHINGTON (WCNS) — With the passage by the Senate last week of the draft extension bill, the Selective Service System is once again authorized to induct men into the armed forces — but with a few strings.

First, the draft will last only until July 1, 1973. President Nixon hopes to have replaced draft calls with sufficient numbers of volunteers by then, and the induction machinery will be put on ice in case of national emergency. After that date, therefore, 18-year-olds will still have to register with the Selective Service.

Second, male college students no longer receive automatic deferments while in school. Congress, bowing to pressure from college students and others for a more equitable draft, agreed to authorize the President to end the undergraduate deferments, a step he has already promised to take.

Starting this past summer new students (not enrolled in the 1970-71 academic year) will not be deferred, although if they have started classes they may postpone induction until the present term ends. All other students are eligible for induction after four years in college or when they reach 24 years of age, whichever comes first.

Third, lottery numbers will apply to all men with the same birthdate, regardless of the location of their draft boards. Requested by the President, this new rule will end charges that certain draft boards were "safer" than others. Thus all men with the same lottery number will be inductable at the same time.

Another provision provides incentives for more men to volunteer. Originally requested by the President last year, the $2.4 billion pay hike ($1.8 billion for first term enlisted men and junior officers) will go into effect October 1, unless the Cost of Living Council, which oversees the current wage-price freeze, rules otherwise.

Conscientious objectors will be given two-year assignments to civilian service. The Senate-House Conference Committee emphasized that this work will "parallel in his experiences, to a reasonable extent, the experiences of young man who is inducted in his stead."

Delta Zeta Holds Initiation

Delta Zeta had initiation for four pledges this past week-end. The new sisters are Nanci Douglas, Donna Turner, Mary Sue Richardson, and Debbie Matthews. On Friday night, the Delta Zeta's had formal lamplighting service. Saturday morning the pledges were initiated. Saturday night all the sisters attended a formal banquet at the First Christian Church where the new sisters were given roses. Individuals receiving awards at the banquet were Donna Turner for outstanding pledge at renewal night, Mary Sue Richardson for best pledge and best decorated paddle, Debbie Matthews for scholarship, and Debbie Matthews and Denise Keeter for big sister-little sister scholarship award. Concluding the week-end, all sisters attended church together on Sunday.

Barefootin . . .

Phi Mu Sorority will hold a get together for all potential rushees. It will be held Thursday, October 30 at 5:30 p.m. in Hardy Alumni Hall. Phi Mu will present "Barefootin," an annual event of songs, jokes, food, and fun. For an hour of entertainment, potential rushers are invited.

Frosh Campaigns Culminate

I feel that I am qualified for the office of President of the Freshman Class with past experiences such as being the President of the Student Government of my high school.

I am deeply concerned with several issues that have raised questions especially among the freshman women such as why were the freshman boys allowed to go home the first weekend and the freshman girls not, why can freshman men have cars and freshman women not, why is there no specific time guidelines for the freshman men to follow but the freshman girls have a set time, why are men allowed fraternity houses and the women not sorority houses, why are men R.A.'s paid and women R.A.'s not, what main purpose does the S.G.A. hold at Atlantic Christian, do the students really care and take interest in what's happening or do they merely complain with no real interest getting involved?

These are just a few of the questions that not only I but several other students would like answers to! I'm not saying that if I am elected I can achieve all the answers but I can and am saying that I will try my utmost hardest to find the answers and valid answers. I am not saying that the freshman men's rules should be changed—I'm just asking WHY are the freshman women's rules as they are.

Another main concern of mine is respect—respect for the school of Atlantic Christian as students portraying such a definite role. I hold it a great honor just to be a part of A.C. I like to think of us at A.C. as one big family. For we are all as one family—God's beautiful children. A little saying that I would like each of us to think about is what would it be like if each of us at A.C. looked at ourselves through a mirror—what would we really see—would we want to really be as we saw ourselves.

So I close saying when you vote—vote for the candidate who you honestly feel will be the best qualified for the job. I sincerely hope you will mark your ballot Teresa Morris.

Veterans

All veterans receiving the G. I. Bill are asked to meet on Tuesday, Oct. 5 at 11 a.m. in Hardy Alumni Hall. Mr. Martin of the North Carolina Veterans Affairs department will be here then to answer any questions veterans may have regarding veterans benefits. Coffee and doughnuts will be served.

As a candidate for president of the freshman class, I find it unnecessary to state my views on certain issues for the simple reason that my job is to represent the majority of the freshman class. I do feel however that there are areas concerning girls' regulations which need looking into. The purpose of taking a test which includes the memorizing of the Alma Mater is not clear to me. Also it seems to me that if a freshman girl can only talk to a boy "personally" on her night out then an additional 198 phone lines should be put in. If it is a girls "week night out," chances are she won't be at the dormitory to speak to anyone. Of course you can arrange to meet the person at the library but you must arrange the meeting before eight o'clock. It seems to me that from a conservative point of view a ten minute time period could be placed on students who wanted to talk in the lobby. This would allow the study time to be preserved, the chance to exchange information or notes concerning school work and a short study break.

My main interest is people and that is exactly what keeps Atlantic Christian College alive. I would like to see the Freshman class of 1971-1972 be the most active, most regarding and best all around class that Atlantic Christian College has ever had.

Dropped

This fall, for the first time in more than twenty years, there will be no Woodrow Wilson Fellowship competition. Among college professors, and those college seniors who are thinking of becoming professors, this annual competition has become as much apart of the fall term as football.

There are a lot of things about A.C. that I like. There are also a lot of things that I don't like. I don't like the Code of Living for Resident Women. It would be more appropriate for a convent or a Girl Scout camp for fifteen-year-olds.

I believe there are a lot of present policies and rules which the majority of the student body would like changed. I can't say that I can change things, but I can express what I feel to be the feelings of the student body.

The way things are going, maybe your grandchildren will be able to stay out until nine o'clock every night if they attend A.C.

Collegiate Needs Help

Due to the fact that The Collegiate is operating with a rather small staff this year, it is next to impossible to have reporters cover every newsworthy activity on campus. Our only remaining option is to request that heads of the various campus organizations appoint a publicity chairman to furnish us with pertinent information concerning events as much in advance as possible.

Those who furnish us with information do not have to be writers, just tell us who, what, when, where, why and how, plus any other information you feel is important. It may be delivered in person to The Collegiate office or mailed to Box 5308. Remember—our deadline is 7 p.m. on Tuesday's prior to date of publication. Information coming in after that time will be subject to delay until the next week's paper.

It is our desire to be fair in our news coverage but we do need all the help we can get. If every group cooperates I can foresee a good year.

Smiling Faces. This year's Faculty Reception "lineup" was held outside in front of our C. H. Hamlin Student Center. It gave the freshmen an opportunity to meet faculty members they may not have otherwise been introduced to outside of class.

Around a thousand students blanketed the Wilson Gym floor Thursday night to listen to the first concert of the year held at ACC. Bill Deal and the Rondells and the Black and Blue performed before many relaxed ACC students. The concert kicked off the entertainment season at ACC and now we are all looking forward to our next concert.
