Parents Council Opposes Visitation

The newly formed Parents Advisory Council met Nov. 19 and discussed among other things, the topic of visitation.

According to David Cleveland, Director of Development for the college and chairman of the Council, the Council was asked to react to the question, "Are you in favor of visitation of women to men's dorm rooms on Sundays from 1-4 p.m.?" Cleveland told a Collegiate reporter that some of the parents felt that visitation was a good opportunity for students to act responsibly, while other parents felt that visitation was an invasion of privacy for those opposed to guests in the dorm rooms. Cleveland went on to say that the Council expressed its opinion of visitation in a straw vote with 7 parents voting for it and 12 against it.

When asked if any plans have been made to inform the trustees of the Advisory Council's opinion of the matter, Cleveland said that no steps are being planned at this time to do that.

In other action, the Council held a lengthy discussion of the purposes of the College, concentrating on the statement of purposes found in the college catalogue.

The Advisory Council plans to meet again in March.

Responding to a drug survey, 77 per cent of the students polled admitted that they have smoked marijuana.

Over 75 Percent Have Used "Pot"

In a recent survey of Atlantic Christian College students conducted by The Collegiate, over 143 students, or 77 per cent of those answering the questionnaire stated that they had tried marijuana. Forty-two students stated they had not tried marijuana.

In other areas covered by the survey, 53 students stated that they first tried marijuana at college while 44 stated they used it first in their later high school years and 14 used it in their early high school years. Seventy-six students claimed they plan to continue using it and 37 said they do not plan to continue its use. One hundred and nineteen students felt that grass should be legalized and 48 felt that it should not be legalized.

In areas of usage 21 students said they used grass at least twice a month, 20 students claimed to use it 5-7 times a month and 33 said they use it 10 or more times per month. Eighty-four students said they have never used hard drugs while 43 claimed they had. Exploration prompted marijuana use for 64 students while 4 students said they were pressured into using it; 24 students used it to find areas of new awareness while 21 students use it for kicks.

This survey was conducted solely by the Collegiate staff.

Faculty Votes To Keep Pink Slips

The faculty and staff of Atlantic Christian College voted recently to continue sending out pink slips to the parents of freshmen and sophomores according to Collegiate sources. The action came at the Faculty-Staff meeting held Nov. 10.

Dean Swindell, representing the Central Committee made the motion to abolish the pink slips and after it was seconded, an amendment was made to abolish them for sophomores and keep them for freshmen, but after lengthy discussion concerning the "value" of pink slips, both the motion and amendment failed.

This was the second attempt made in recent years to do away with pink slips. In 1968 the SGA voted to recommend to the faculty and staff that pink slips should be abolished but it was defeated by the faculty and staff. However, the College has done away with sending pink slips out to the parents of seniors and juniors.

Diary Of Adam And Eve To Be Presented

The Campus Christian Association of Atlantic Christian College presents Mark Twain's wisdom and gentle humor in "The Diary of Adam and Eve," to be performed by the nationally acclaimed Alpha-Omega Players on Dec. 14 at 7:30 p.m.

Music, humor and nostalgia combine to provide a new perspective on the lives of the first man and the first woman. Adapted from a short story by Mark Twain, with music by the composers of "Fiddler on the Roof," this is the story of the beginnings of the age-old struggle between men and women, as relevant today as it was in the Garden of Eden.

America's beloved humorist and storyteller, Mark Twain, writes compassionately and with great understanding of the sensitivity and gentleness of Eve, and the strength and often hidden sensitivity of Adam. Written in memory of his wife, "The Diary of Adam and Eve" is a poignant, humorous, and thoroughly entertaining evening.

Starring in "Adam and Eve" will be the talented young actors Cliff Samuelson, Brenda Stoner, T.C. Stoner of the Alpha-Omega Players of Dallas, Texas. Alpha-Omega Players, Repertory Theatre of America, has travelled over 400,000 miles in the last three years, performing in 45 of the 50 states, making them the most active touring theatre group in the country.

Trustee Day To Be Held...

By IMOGENE THOMAS

Exactly who are the members of the Board of Trustees of Atlantic Christian College? What are their responsibilities as members? How are they chosen and why does so much power lie in the hands of these men?

These are just several of the many questions which Atlantic Christian students can ask during the first Board of Trustee Day to be held on campus, Tuesday, February 22.

The day prior to the next board meeting has been designed by the Convocation Coordinating Council to provide a time for Atlantic Christian students, faculty, and administration to acquaint themselves with these members. In the past, Board of Trustee members have arrived and left campus on the same day, thus limiting the opportunity for students to really get acquainted with them, and most important for them to get to know us.

The Council in cooperation with all students, faculty, and administration hope to show to the board members a typical day of an Atlantic Christian student, in essence, they will be a "student for a day."

As students for a day, the Trustees will be escorted by different ACC students around our college campus and community. They are invited to attend class, eat in the cafeteria, visit dorms, tour the town of Wilson, and participate in various campus activities.

The highlight of the day will be a panel discussion involving a panel of Trustees, students, faculty and administration for open discussion on topics concerning our college.

This is the "big" day all students have asked for. This is a time for students to express their ideas and gripes to the board members. The council believes this day can be a rewarding and enlightening one to all who actively participate. All students interested in participating in the event are asked to sign up at the student center beginning Friday, December 10.

Remember this is your chance to "tell it like it is" on our campus. Get involved!!

Draft Sets Deferments

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Young men who wish to drop draft deferments in favor of 1-A classifications may still do so. Local boards will continue to grant these requests even though the young men continue to meet the conditions for which the deferments were granted. Six categories are included: 1-S, high school students; 2-A, occupational deferments or vocations-technical students; 2-C, agricultural deferments;

ACC presents a first! The Faith Festival celebration on Dec. 2, attracted a wide cross section of our student population. Many students made the trip from table to table investigating the many different beliefs and expressions of these beliefs. An added attraction that brought a smile and questioning look on many a persons faces was ACC's own private monk, Dr. Paulsell. As Chairman of the Religion Department his appearance might suggest a revival within the ranks of our Religion Department, and among all the unusual students (better known as the God Squad) who have dared declare Religion as their major.
