First SGA Meeting Held

FREDERICK HAND Classical Guitar Concert Schedule

Frederick Hand, classical guitarist, will appear on the campus of Atlantic Christian College, Tuesday, Sept. 12. An informal concert and master class is scheduled for 3 p.m., while a formal concert will be held at 7:30 p.m. Both events will be in Hardy Alumni Hall.

A resident of New York City, Hand began his musical career as a child. He began his formal studies at the Greenwich School of Music in New York, attended the High School of Music and Art, a school in the New York school system designed for talented adolescent musicians and artists.

Eventually having decided to concentrate his musical study in classical guitar, Hand studied under Manuel Gayol and Alberto Valdes-Blain. In the summer of 1967, he was one of 10 guitarists chosen from over the world to participate as a performer in the

Sigmas Hold Dance

Julian Bream Master Classes at Stratford, Canada. He studied at the Mannes College of Music in New York, receiving the B. S. degree under direction of Leonide Bolotine, and later taught as a faculty member of the University of Connecticut.

Although his interest lies primarily in classical music, Hand has worked in the more popular musical idions. He has studied jazz guitar with Jim Hall. He has instruction in rock and blues guitar and has provided back-up guitar work for numerous rock groups and pop and folk singers both in nightclubs and recordings.

He has performed as soloist on New York radio stations and NBC network television. He has toured the United States and Canada three times under the auspices of leading colleges, universities and organizedconcert organizations throughout North America.

Hand is frequently called upon to join the orchestras of major theatrical companies. He has appeared asguest artist with Robert Joffrey Ballet Company, the New York City Center Ballet, and the New York City opera Company in productions Handel's "Julius Caesar" and Monteverdi's "L'Incoronzaione

The Student Government Association of Atlantic Christian College met September 5, 1972 at 6:30 p.m. in Room 112, Hines Hall. President Robert Cayton presided as the SGA meeting was off to a rather auspicious start with the roll book being forgotten. But the meeting was off at a run with the minutes being read and approved.

Even before the meeting began, President Robert Cayton made a rather unusual, but welcomed move, by setting a time to adjourn. Cindy Griffin moved that a letter be sent to the Board of Trustees and President Wenger urging that the New Women's Dorm be given a proper name. The motion was carried

Barry Morgan moved that the entertainment committee be enlarged to include twice the number of students now on the committee. It was also moved that the committee meeting be put in the Green Slate so that all interested persons could attend. This committee enlargement will have to be voted on by the student body

It was decided that the Freshman Class would meet at 11:00 o'clock in the Chapel on September 14. The election date for freshmen will be September 27-28. There will also be voting for CCA secretary, Sophomore Class secretary, treasurer, and a constitutional amendment.

Tom Kawana moved that trash bins be put around the fountain area to cut down on the litter. Barry Morgan then jumped on the bandwagon to have trash bins all around campus and asking that a study be made on the trash bin subject. Luckily, the original motion for trash bins around the fountain area was carried.

Marvin Winstead motioned to have the trustee room used for the SGA meeting. The motion was also passed to start each SGA meeting with a prayer.

Mr. Gene Barnes, Homecoming Alumni Chairman, then asked the SGA to help him change homecoming in the following areas:

1. No parades through
