Miss Connie Duke First Runner Up In Miss Wilson Pageant

Saturday night in Ralph L. Fike Senior High School auditorium, a new Miss Wilson was crowned. She is Miss Eleanor Dale Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Adams. Two Atlantic Christian College sophomores also received awards at the festive occasion. They were Miss Vicki Lynn Hawley and Miss Connie Joyce Duke. Vicki, the recipient of the coveted Miss Congeniality trophy, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hawley of 1707 Meadowbrook Lane. Connie was selected First-runner up in the pageant. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Duke of 1303 Colonial Avenue. Connie, a music major, played for her talent presentation Rachmaninoff Prelude in B-flat minor. In swim suit competition, she wore a black swimsuit with a V-shaped neck. Her evening gown, which was designed by Jan Chamblee, (a junior here at A.C.) and sewn by her mother was baby blue bridal satin with an outer layer of baby blue chiffon. The gown had an empire waist, a full skirt and the neckline and back of the bodice were V-shaped. The bodice was accentuated with rhinestone trimmings and iridescent sequins.

"Dark of the Moon" Opens Tonight

The stage production, "Dark of the Moon," will be presented by Stage and Script of Atlantic Christian College, on Feb. 22, 23 and 24, at 8 p.m., in Howard Chapel on the college campus.

The play is a romantic drama written by Howard Richardson and William Berney. It is set in the Smokey Mountains and deals with witchcraft and superstition. Important conflicts are caused by the townspeople's fear of the witches. Music, square dancing and touches of comedy are added to the serious drama of the townspeople.

The production is directed by Paul Crouch. Hal Hummel of Wilson, will play the part of John the witch-boy who wants to become a human. Debbie Hester of Wilson, will play the part of Barbara Allen, a mountain girl who falls in love with John. Preacher Haggler, who takes an active interest in the townspeople, will be portrayed by Mike Raper of Wendell.

Other characters include: Dark Witch, played by Fran Mercer of Wilson, and the Fair Witch, played by Jackie Parker of Charlotte. Marvin Winstead of Nashville, N.C., and Heather Jordan of Bridgeport, Conn., will play the parts of Conjur Man and Conjur Woman.

The production is open to the public. Tickets will be available at the door. ACC students will be admitted by ID cards.

$50 ADVANCED PAYMENT ON TUITION FOR FALL 1973

Calogue quote: "Students returning for the fall semester shall notify the college of their intentions by paying a $50 advanced tuition payment on or before March 15. Part-time and evening school students who intend to enroll full time shall also notify the college by March 15 by making an advanced tuition payment in the amount of $50. Part-time and evening school students who register for less than twelve semester hours do not have to pay the advanced tuition payment. The advanced payment will be credited to the student's fall semester account and is non-refundable. Failure to comply with this regulation will result in canceling of the student's privilege of attending the college."

Payment would be made at the Business Office in the Administration Building.

PARENTS WILL NOT BE NOTIFIED. This is the responsibility of the student.

Coffeehouse Schedules Discussion

Time — this is a change from 7:30 to 9:30.

Coffeehouse — Discussion of Dark of The Moon — Entertainment

Friday night (Feb. 23) the coffeehouse will feature entertainment throughout the evening beginning at 9:30 p.m. Following the play the cast and director will come to the coffeehouse for a discussion of the play, witchcraft, religion, and superstition. The Convocation Co-ordinating Council and Campus Christian Association invite you to see the play either Thursday or Friday night — then come to the discussion after the Friday night performance. Also, the discussion with the cast would be a good preview to seeing the play Saturday night.
