The Collegiate

A free press can of course be good or bad, but most certainly without freedom it will never be anything but bad. Albert Camus

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

ATLANTIC CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, SEPTEMBER 20, 1973

NUMBER TWO

SGA Holds First Meeting

Barnhill Presents Recital

Miss Carol Barnhill of Winston-Salem, flautists, will be presented in a senior recital by the Atlantic Christian College Department of Music, Thursday, Sept. 20, in Howard Chapel, at 8

A music education major, she was this year named recipient of Cobb Moss Memorial Scholarship which is awarded annually to a music major. She is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Barnhill, 3021 Magazine Dr., Winston-Salem.

CAROL BARNHILL

Miss Barnhill's program will include "VIII. Fantasia in E. Minor," by Telemann; "Suite for Flute Alone," by Bach; "Syrinx," by Debussy; "Improvision Del Quiche," by Collins, "Sonata for Flute and Piano," by Poulanc; and "Echo," by Hindmith.

She will be assisted by Glenn Edwards, percussion; Connie Duke, piano; and Barbara Albert, flute.

The recital is given in partial fulfillment for the degree of bachelor of science in music education. The public is invited. There is no admission charge.

Circle "K" In Action

By BOB PRIDGEN

This year's Circle K Club has really been busy in the few weeks that we have been in school. With a much larger group than last year's, the club has undertaken the project of visiting the deaf school on Sunday afternoons to play with the children who are all in desperate need of extra attention. Plans are being made to take these kids to the Wilson County Fair and to form a type of scout troop for the multihandicapped.

This past Saturday the Circle K cleaned the fountain in front of the Hamlin Student Center in an obviously useless effort.

Next Saturday, September 22 the Circle K will sponsor a car wash at the Blvd. Plaza Shopping Center Sunoco Station for $1.50. Doughnuts will also be on sale in front of Kings.

Sometimes this fall the Circle K will host the 2nd Annual Walkathon.

Robert Manning of Wilson, left, has been awarded the Wilson Woman's Club Nursing Scholarship at Atlantic Christian College. Valued at $300, the scholarship is awarded to a nursing student based on academic potential and financial need. The scholarship is available only to juniors and seniors enrolled in the professional nursing courses. Present during the presentation was Mrs. Albert Wylie, center, president of the Wilson Woman's Club, and Dr. Ruby Barnes, chairman of the ACC Depart-

New Resident Counselor Hilley Hall

Hilley Hall has had an exchange of resident counselors since the Fall semester began. First, Ms. Jones left for medical reasons. Then, for a short period of time, a lady filled in until the present resident advisor arrived. Her name is Mrs. Melba Williams and she plans to stay here for a while.

Mrs. Jones is a native of Roanoke, Alabama, presently living in Sims, N.C. She is the youngest of six daughters in her family. She has two married daughters, both graduates of Merrideth College

She attended the University of Her Alabama.

Play Cast

Slated

season the ACC audience will again view the dramatic talent of many of its fellow students.

The first production will be a hilarious comedy, "The Importance of Being Ernest"

written by Oscar Wilde. Wilde's aristocracy in the late 1800s. The cast and crew have already started rehearsals. They are preparing for their opening on the weekend of October 11, 12 and 13. Members of the cast are:

Hal Hummel as John Worthing;

Steve Hunt, Algernon Moncrieff;

Ivan Price, Jr., Lane, Algy's

man servant; Leigh McClelland,

Lady Bracknell; Debbie Hester,

Gwendoline Fairfax, her

dughter; Elaine Lee, Cecily

Cardew, John's ward; Leslie Jonstone, Miss Prism, Cecily's teacher; Jim McCullen, Rev. Canon Chasuble, DD; and Randy Morris, Merrimen, John's butler. Under the direction of Paul Crouch, Stage and Script promises an evening

which will fill Howard Chapel with laughter. Performances begin at 8 p.m. and admission will be free to those with student or faculty IDs.

portrays

England's

satrically

members of play

In Stage and Script's opening graduated from Christian. Mr. and Mrs. William met while he was visiting some school friends in Roanoke, Alabama

Her hobbies include sewing, cooking, knitting, and refinishing furniture. She attends the Baptist Church in Bailey.

Ms. Williams worked a number of years with the Wilson County A.S.C.S. as a marketing recorder for the tobacco market. She has also worked for Bailey

Food Mills, Inc. as a bookkeeper.

When asked how she feels about her new job. Mrs. Williams replied, "Crazy about it! Love the girls, everyone has been so nice." Ms. Williams likes all of A.C.C. she said, but she seems to be having a problem finding everything.

You will surely recognize Melba Williams by her blond hair, tall and slender figure and her kind smile. Welcome Ms. Williams to A.C.C.

By MARY A. DENNIS

The Student Government Association of Atlantic Christian College held its first meeting Tuesday, September 18th. Fortyone representatives and spectators filled the Trustee Room of Hardy Alumni Hall. President Andy Gay presided over the meeting after which Campus Christian Association Vice-President, Phil Jones opend with prayer. Thomas Hodges, SGA treasurer, presented the 1973-74 budget of $57,000, which included ten budgetary organizations on campus. A glassed in bulletin board will be installed in the student center in the near future for the purpose of relaying information to the student body on SGA action.

Freshman class elections were set for Tuesday, October 2nd. A new CCA president and Sophomore class vice-president will also be elected on that day.

Other business items on organizational requests. New uniforms will be purchased for the majorettes by the SGA. The Afro-American Awareness Society presented its budget for the 1973-74 year, a AC's newest budgetary organization.

A $100 gift was made available for the Student Meditation Center by the SGA executive board. Steve Sprinkle heads the committee coordinating its construction

A queswion was brought up concerning the possibility of an indoor swimming pool. It was referred to the Social Standards Committee in hopes to create interest among the students. It was felt that anything could be obtained if the students are willing to back it.

SGA meetings are held on the first and third Tuesdays of each month at 6:30 p.m

N. C. Music Night Held

The Southern Appalachian Cloggers and the Stoney Creek Boys from Haywood County, and Asheville's ballad singer, Virgil Sturgill, was featured Monday, Sept. 17, North Carolina Music Night in Wilson Gymnasium on the Atlantic Christian College campus. The program, one of a year long series of American arts presentations, began at 8

The Appalachian Cloggers, who won the Clog-Dancing competition at the 46th Mountain Dance and Folk Festival in Ashville in August, are on their way to another competition in Ohio later this month.

This group which keeps alive the traditional mountain clogging while performing the intricate square dance figures, won over the Erwin Cloggers and the Smokey Mountain Cloggers.

The band playing for the dancers, the Stoney Creek Boys, came away from the Asheville honors, including the best string band, best ballad singer and best fiddle player.

Virgil Sturgill, 76-year-old performer from Asheville, was born in a log cabin in Carter County, Ky. Sturgill sings the mountain ballads of his childhood and accompanies himself on the dulcimer. He was also heard Tuesday morning in the ACC Music Building, singing ballads and talking about the mountain folk songs and Festival with many of their own traditions of the Appalachians

Hightailin' it at the Virgil Sturgill Concert. (Photos by Ron Snipes)