One Act Plays Open

By MARY DENNIS

Three one-act plays will be presented by the members of Stage and Script on November 14-16. "Each play offers the viewer humor and pathos in a variety of experimental stage techniques", according to Paul Crouch, Atlantic Christian Director of drama.

All plays are student directed and are recent productions, offering something different from the traditional play.

The first play is "Ludlow Fair", written by Lanford Wilson, and starring Leigh McClelland and Debbie Hester. Directed by Leslie Johnstone, it is a modern play depicting two roommates with their boyfriend problems.

Ivan Price, Jr. and Elaine Lee star and self-direct the second play, "The Hunter and The Bird". Written by Jean Claude Van Itallie, it is a strange portrayal of a hunter faced with an unusual quarry on his hunting trip.

Steve Hunt will perform a dialogue, "Krapp's Last Tape", written by Samuel Beckett. It is a portrayal of an elderly man who reviews his life by listening to tapes, made at earlier times of his life. Hal Hummel directs this production.

Curtain time is 8:00 p.m. in Howard Chapel. Admission is free to students and the public. page

In Memoriam

Our Friend Bill

We take for granted what we have Until its there no more
We live our lives in happy
silence,
Until death comes to our door.

There never was a guy so sweet,
Happ, king, or thoughtful
A void will lie within our hearts
To last a whole life full.

To Bill, we say you're not forgotten
You're still within our hearts
To have had a friend like you is rare
A memory that will never depart.

Linda A. Rowe

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down,
and a time to build up;

A time to cast away stones,
and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence,
and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Bill Timberlake

1955-1973

We begin and end many things —
Sometimes happy, other times tragic —
We all must begin and end everything we do —
The beginnings are new worlds
— vast

Widespread and full of new and exciting things to do —

Then all too soon —
When we least expect it there's the end —

the emptiness no one expected.

A great loss to us all.
