

The Collegiate

OCT 8 1976

ALLAN

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

ATLANTIC CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, OCTOBER 7, 1976

NUMBER FIVE

National Teacher Exam

The National Teacher Examination (NTE) will be given at Atlantic Christian College on Nov. 13, 1976.

Scores from the examinations are used by many states for certification of teachers, by many school systems for selection and identification of leadership qualities, and by many colleges as part of their graduation requirements.

Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the tests, says they are designed to measure knowledge gained from professional and general education and in 27 subject-matter fields.

Bulletins of Information describing registration procedures and containing registration forms may be obtained from Zeb M. Whitehurst III, Dean of students, or directly from the National Teacher Examinations, Educational Testing Service, Box 911, Princeton, N.J. 08540.

Good Evening

ATTENTION: Any North Carolina resident who is a full-time student qualifying for the North Carolina Legislative Tuition Grant must complete an application for same. If you have not done so, please contact the Financial Aid Office for an application form immediately. This form must be completed and in the Financial Aid Office by Oct. 11, 1976.

The College Republican Club will meet tonight, Oct. 7th, at 6 p.m. in Hines Hall, room 211. All members are urged to attend.

The Freshman Class will hold a very important meeting tonight, Oct. 7th, at 6 p.m. in Hardy Alumni Hall. The main order of business will be class participation in Homecoming. All freshmen are urged to attend.

Pictures for the yearbook will be taken this week in Harper Hall lobby between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Friday will be a make-up day. Juniors, seniors and faculty who have not had their picture made may have them taken any day this week. There will be no class pictures taken after this week.

Advanced Life Saving will be offered at the NCSA beginning Oct. 12th at 7 p.m. The class will meet ten times. There can be no absences. Call the Red Cross office at 237-2171 to get your name on the roll. Classes will meet Oct. 12, 14, 19, 21, 26, 28, and Nov. 2, 4, 9, and 11.

As a follow-up activity of Reading Week, there will be a discussion of reading on Thursday, Oct. 14th, at 11 a.m. in Hines Hall, room 212. All students and faculty are invited.

A limited number of free tickets are available to ACC students for the North Carolina Folk Festival on either Oct. 8th or 9th at 8 p.m. in Reynolds Coliseum in Raleigh. Tickets may be picked up on a first come, first served basis with a limit of two tickets per person, from Dr. Schneider in Hines Hall, room 216 during the following times: MWF 11-11:30 or 3-3:30; T-Th 3-4.

Students who have not previously applied for student teaching during the spring semester may pick up application forms in the Education Dept. office. The last date to be considered for the spring semester is Oct. 15th.

MAJORS: Please note that Ms. Peggy Wills, Director of the Boman Gray School of Medical Technology in Winston-Salem will be on campus Thursday, Oct. 21st, from 1-3 p.m. in room 208 of the Science Building. The purpose of her visit is to provide information and advice concerning the Med-Tech program. All majors and others interested in the program are invited to meet with her. For further information, contact Robert Hollar, Medical Technology advisor, in room 208, Science Building.

COOKING IN ROOMS: We have been notified by the Wilson County Health Dept. that cooking should take place only in the two designated kitchen areas (Harper Hall and Hackney Hall). The Wilson Fire Dept. has notified us also that their department cannot tolerate cooking in unauthorized areas as the risk is too great. If you wish to use one of the two designated areas, please contact the resident counselor in charge.

There will be a very important Junior Class meeting tonight, Oct. 7th at 6 p.m. in Hines Hall. All Juniors are urged to attend.

Gamma Delta Iota will meet tonight at 6:30 in Hines 208. Old and new members are encouraged to attend in order to discuss upcoming activities.

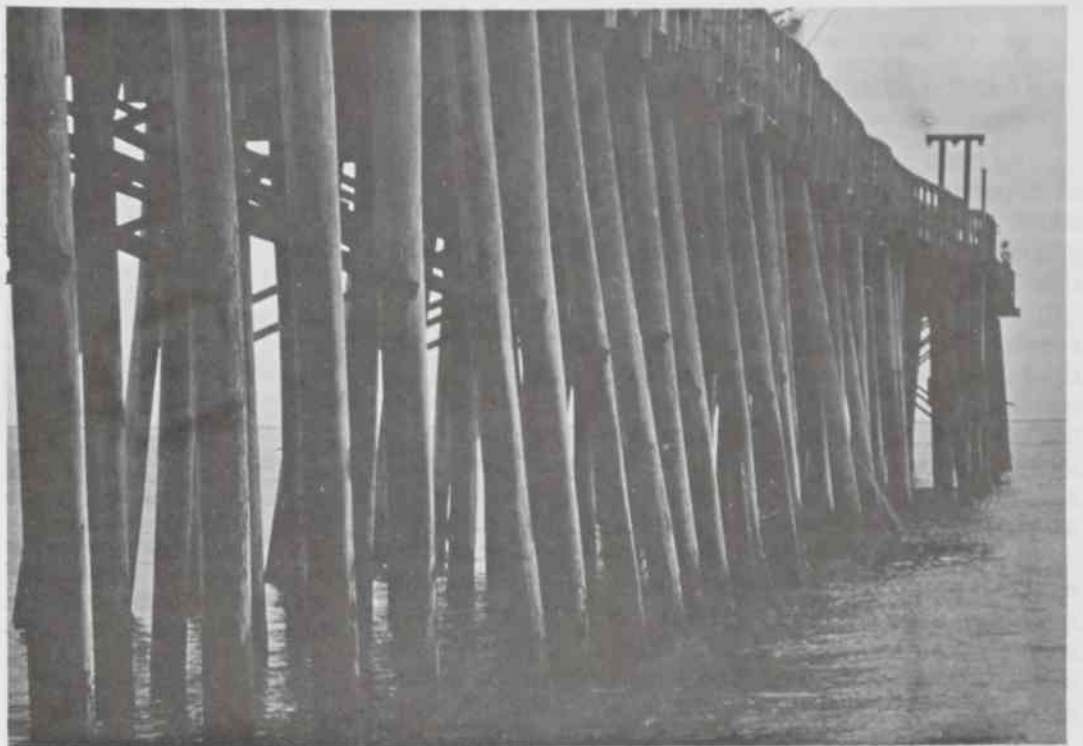

Do you enjoy singing and lifting Jesus higher? If so, come to the Alpha Omega Christian fellowship hour at 7 p.m., tonight, Oct. 7th, in the Old Gym.

The SNEA, Student National Education Association, will be holding its membership drive for the next two weeks only. Anyone wishing to join please do so now.

Cluster No. 1 of SNCAE will hold its annual fall meeting Friday, Oct. 8th, at 9 a.m. in Harper Hall. All education majors are urged to attend.

Parking tickets are to be paid in the Business Office within five days of issuance. All appeals must be in writing on a form supplied by the Student Personnel Office also within five days. The ticket must accompany this form.

If you are planning to graduate in December or May, stop by the Placement Office and pick up a registration packet. Mid-winter graduates should mail the resumes now! If you need any assistance on your resume, see the Placement Office.

Staff photographer Pete Chamness was at Wrightsville Beach in Wilmington this past Sunday morning and captured this early morning scene. The calmness of the water seems more appropriate of a lake, but it doesn't seem to bother these fishermen.

AC To Lose 2 Dept. Heads

DR. WINSTEAD

Dr. E. D. Winstead, professor and chairman of the Atlantic Christian College Department of Mathematics, has tendered his resignation from the college effective at the close of the current academic year.

A native of Wilson, Dr. Winstead is serving in his 15th year as a member of the college faculty. He assumed chairmanship of the mathematics department when it became a separate department in 1966.

Commenting on the action, President Wenger said, "Dr. Winstead, during his tenure at Atlantic Christian College, has served as a member of our faculty with singular effectiveness. This has been true not only in his role as a teacher and chairman of the mathematics department but in numerous other areas of campus leadership. We genuinely regret losing him but wish him well in any future endeavor."

Dr. Winstead is a former U.S. Army officer who retired after 24 years of service with the rank of lieutenant colonel. He received the B.S. degree from Atlantic Christian College, and the M.Ed. and Ed.D. degrees from Duke University.

He is married to the former Miss Josephine W. Minshew of Black Creek, a graduate of the Woodard-Herring School of Nursing.

DR. ST. JOHN

Dr. Kenneth D. St. John, professor and chairman of the Atlantic Christian College Department of Education, will end a 50-year teaching career upon retirement from his position with the college at the conclusion of the current academic year.

"Dr. St. John's term as chairman of the ACC Department of Education spans a period in which teacher education has undergone substantial changes," said Dr. Wenger. "Under his leadership solid advances have been made as our teacher education program has responded to those changes. The effectiveness of our graduates serving in public schools of North Carolina and elsewhere has been greatly enhanced through our insights and leadership. We wish him the very best as he enters retirement."

Dr. St. John joined the ACC faculty in 1962 and became chairman of the ACC Department of Education in 1963. He has served on ACC Faculty Evaluating Committees for N. C. State Approved Teacher Education Programs.

A native of Ohio, he earned the B. S. degree from Wittenberg College, the M. A. Degree from Kent State University, and the Ed.D. degree from the University of Pittsburgh.

He served as board chairman and elder of the Central Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Hubbard, where he taught the Men's Bible Class for 20 years.

Born on Sept. 28, 1907, he is the son of the late Lewis and Edna St. John of Waynesville, Ohio. He is married to the former Miss Cora Martin, a graduate of Ohio University. They have one daughter, Jacqueline Setny of Parma, Ohio, who is a graduate of Baldwin-Wallace College.

Dr. and Mrs. St. John became members of the First Christian Church of Wilson in 1962

Joy Butler Recital

Miss Joy Lee Butler, soprano of Clearwater, Fla., will be presented in a senior voice recital by the Atlantic Christian College Department of Music, on Thursday, Oct. 14, at 8 p.m., in Howard Chapel, on the college campus.

Included in Miss Butler's program will be selections by Mozart, Schubert, Brahms, Menotti, Foley, Debussy, Duke and Quilter. She will be accompanied on the piano by Miss Dorothy Jane Bostick of the college music faculty. The recital is presented in partial fulfillment of the B. S. degree in music education at Atlantic Christian Stage and Script will open tonight with "The Lion In Winter." Curtain is at 8:00. The show will continue through Saturday, October 9th.