Ensembles Give Concert

The Atlantic Christian College Percussion Ensemble will present a special program at the North Carolina Music Educator's Conference to be held in Winston-Salem, Monday, Nov. 7.

The group will perform for a luncheon meeting of the higher education section of the state music organization.

The program will include the "Sabre Dance" and "Lullaby", by Khachaturian; "Overture for Percussion Ensemble," by Beck; and Paul Desmond's

"Take Five" made popular by the Dave Brubeck Quartet.

The Atlantic Christian College Vocal Ensemble will be presented in concert by the ACC Department of Music, Thursday, Nov. 3, at 8 p.m., in Howard Chapel, on the college campus. Directing the ensemble will be Robert M. Daniel.

Featured work for the concert will be Schubert's "Mass in G Major." The ensemble will be joined by a string orchestra and organ for its performance. Students Davida Barwick, soprano; Doug Lane, tenor; and Linwood Little, baritone; will be featured soloists. The second portion of the program will include selected songs of Stephen Foster. The Foster melodies will be accompanied by piano and guitar.

The "Mass in G Major" is a series of six complete settings of the "Mass Ordinary," by Schubert and was written in 1815 when the composer was only 18 years of age.

ARA Workers Honored

Seven employees of ARA Services were honored on Tuesday for more than a hundred years of combined service given Atlantic Christian College. It is ARA Services' policy to give each of their employees a gold timepiece after ten year's continuous service. Honored were: Dock Ham, W. M. Franklin, Irene T. Gray, Peter J. Taylor, Dixie D. Gill, Bertha M. Parker, and Agnes E. Langston. Also in attendance were Ralph Crumpler, host of the event; Milton Adams, president of Atlantic Christian College; Hoyt Taylor, district manager of ARA Services; Ken Dale, regional vice president of ARA Services; Jones Fuquay, president of SGA; Jane Roebuck, photographer; and Keith Bracknell, co-editor of The Collegiate.

Honored employees were given a steak dinner and afterward were lauded for their excellence by speakers Adams, Dale, and Crumpler who presented the awards.

Adams praised the workers for their dedication. "In the summer of '67, while changing from the old cafeteria to the new student center cafeteria, we decided to go with a professional food service. We considered many companies and decided on ARA Services. Now, 10 years later, we are well satisfied with the excellence they have maintained. Of the original 18 members employed by ARA, seven have remained." Adams emphasized, "Nothing is talked about more than food." With all the complications arising from food preparation said Adams, "Our problems have been minimal."

Ken Dale, invited the honored workers to take pride in playing a part in the success of ARA Services. "I extend heartfelt thanks for the excellence displayed by these workers."

Crumpler pointed out that all but W. M. Franklin were working before ARA Services came to Atlantic Christian College and also that one other worker had put in all but a few months of the ten years' service but was unable to continue because of sickness.

Crumpler expressed hope that "you all will be able to be here for future awards. Thank you for your dedication."
