"Gianni Schicchi"

The Atlantic Christian College Opera Theatre will present a full production of Puccini's "Gianni Schicchi," on Friday, Feb. 3, and Saturday, Feb. 4 at 8 p.m., in Howard Chapel, on the college campus.

Sponsored by the ACC Department of Music, the production is under the musical direction of Robert Daniel with stage direction by Paul Crouch.

"Gianni Schicchi" is the only opera by Puccini devoted entirely to a comic subject. Its story revolves around the relatives of an extremely wealthy Florentine citizen, Buoso Donati, and their attempts at gaining his estate after his death.

Gianni Schicchi, a fellow Florentine noted for his craft and trickery, is called in to hopefully save the relatives from their loss. Schicchi assumes a disguise as Buoso and rewrites Buoso's will before a lawyer and witnesses. Although he does improve the holdings of each relative, in the end the crafty Schicchi profits the most.

The leading role of Gianni Schicchi will be sung by Ross Albert, baritone, chairman of the college's music department. Other principle singers include Jan Pittman, soprano, of Stantonsburg, as Lauretta; Ronald Morton, tenor, of Morehead City, as Rinuccio; and Nan Deans, mezzo-soprano, of Wilson, as Zita.

The role of the doctor is sung by Ron Mattraw of Suffolk, Va., while the lawyer is played by Russell Herndon of Elizabeth City, and Mark Rice of Virginia Beach, Va. Other principle relatives are played by Davida Barwick of Kenly, Cliff Harris of Elizabeth City, Chuck Henry of Williamsburg, Va., Linwood Little of Rocky Mount, Phyllis Roberts of LaGrange, Bob Schoonover of Goldsboro, and Karen Thornton of Mt. Olive.

Dorothy Jane Bostic of the music faculty will provide piano accompaniment. Set design will be by Blane Smith of Wilson.

Both performances are open to the public free of charge.

"Hound"

Rehearsals

Rehearsals have begun for STAGE & SCRIPT's next production, THE REAL INSPECTOR HOUND, a Tom Stoppard spoof of an old-fashioned English murder mystery. Stoppard, better known for his play Rosencranz and Gilderstern Are Dead, uses a riotous format to get in a few licks at theatre critics whom he accuses of lust, lechery, and finally murder.

Appearing in this wild fantasy will be Jo Fields, Jo Anne Cavenaugh, Andrea Rene Smith, Thomas Barnes, Kenny Smith, Reugg Copen, Gregory Dozier, and Jimmy Ward.

Performances will be held in Howard Chapel at 8 p.m. February 22 through the 25th. Opening night will be Wednesday for this production since there will be limited seating.

Although the presence of the security guard is reassuring, the primary responsibility of protection does not lie with this man. See Editorial, page 2.

Sex and Perversion

It's a cheap headline to get you to read our announcement but you never can tell what you might find at the game on SCHOOL SPIRIT NIGHT. There will definitely be wildness, women, and rah-rah's. But it won't be any fun without you. The ACC Jaycees invites everybody (even your mothers) to come out to the basketball game Monday, January 30 at 7:30 P.M. for the win over Campbell College. The only requirement for entering the contest of enthusiasm is uninhibited, soul-searing passion. A plaque will be awarded to the organization that exemplifies the most school spirit. But don't let that stop you.

SGA Discusses Constitution

The Student Government Association met last Tuesday night and, in addition to three major issues, handled the minor problems which must be confronted with every meeting.

The most important issue brought up was that the Special Constitution Committee, chaired by Carl Frazier, has finished writing the proposed new Constitution. Having been in working stages for almost a year now, it will now be reviewed by the SGA in a specially called meeting this coming Tuesday at 5:30. If passed, it will then go to the students in an election probably before Feb. 22, and from there, to the Board of Trustees.

The document is an impressive pile of papers, covering thoroughly the new plan for Student government, with an extra special attempt at closing any loopholes which exist in the present Constitution.

The SGA also complained some as two issues were brought before the board. One was Parents' Weekend, which has been cancelled, or actually not ever planned, by the administration. The Board decided to begin a campaign, with all students' aid, to generate enough interest in order to sponsor a Parents' Weekend. Also, the Board has decided that they feel that New Dorm should be permanently named Wenger Dorm, in honor of Dr. Arthur Wenger, late President of the College. Members expressed a desire to begin another campaign to achieve this end.

Other items of business brought before the Board were minor. Some members expressed a desire to emphasize Campus Beautification and suggested that interested students should attend the upcoming meeting of the Campus Beautification Committee on Feb. 2. The Entertainment Committee is working toward a possible concert on Feb. 22, and will be meeting again shortly. Interested persons should check the Green Slate for meeting times.
