

The Collegiate

LIBRARY

APR 07

ATLANTIC

CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

NUMBER TWENTY

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

ATLANTIC CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, APRIL 6, 1978

Commencement Speech

Dr. William E. Tucker, president of Bethany College, Bethany, W. Va., will be guest speaker for Atlantic Christian College's 76th Annual Commencement, to be held Friday, May 12.

A native of Charlotte, he attended East Carolina University and Atlantic Christian College where he received the A.B. degree in 1953. He received the B.D. degree from Texas Christian University in 1956, and the M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Yale University in 1960.

Tucker assumed the presidency of Bethany College in 1976. Earlier he served as dean of Brite Divinity School, Texas Christian University. He joined the faculty of TCU in 1966 as assistant dean before becoming associate dean in 1969, dean-elect in 1970, and dean in 1971.

He served as a member of the Atlantic Christian College faculty for six years where he was chairman and professor of the ACC Department of Religion and Philosophy.

An ordained minister of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), he is Chairman of the Board of Higher Education of the Christian Church, a member of the General Board and Administrative Committee of the Christian Church, a member of the board of trustees of the Disciples of Christ Historical Society, Nashville, Tenn., past president of the Council of Southwestern Theological Schools, and a member of the American Society of Church History, American Academy of Religion, and the American Historical Society.

Two books have been written by Tucker, "A Journey in Faith: A History of the Christian Church," co-authored with Lester G. McAllister, and "J.H. Garrison and Disciples of Christ." He has been a contributor to, "The Word We Preach," "Dictionary of American Biography," and "The Westminster Dictionary of Church History."

Elected to honorary membership in Phi Beta Kappa in 1976, he is listed in "Who's Who in America," "Contemporary Authors," and "Who's Who in Religion."

He and his wife, Jean, a graduate of Texas Christian University, have two sons, Vance and Will, and a daughter, Jan.

Meet your new SGA Executive Officers. Pictured from left to right are: Don Berry, President Elect; George Murphy, Vice President Elect; Sandi White, Secretary Elect; Chuck Wheeler, Treasurer Elect is not pictured.

Photo by Suzanne Cruthfield

New Officers Elected

SGA Cabinet Officers:

Don Berry, President
George Murphy, Vice-President
Sandi White, Secretary
Chuck Wheeler, Treasurer

Senior Class:

Miles Stanley, President
Channey White, Secretary-Treasurer
Phyllis Parrish, Senator

Junior Class:

Donnie Jarman, President
Theresa McIntyre, Secretary-Treasurer
Catherine Edwards, Senator
Nancy Bridges, Senator

Sophomore Class:

Cindy McNeil, President
Kathy Marcom, Vice-President
Pam Johnson, Secretary-Treasurer

Day Students Association:

Sue Pierce, Secretary
Harold Rackley, Treasurer

Campus Christian Association:

Butch Ligon, President
Clif Harris, Vice-President
Josefann Smith, Secretary
Ruth Heineman, Treasurer

Collegiate:

Rueggy Copen, Editor

Runoff elections will be held for the following offices:

Day Student President
Day Student Vice-President
Senior Class Vice-President
Senior Class Senators
Junior Class Vice-President
Junior Class Senator
Sophomore Class Senators

Runoff elections for SGA will be held Wednesday, April 12 in Hamlin Student Center and Thursday, April 13 in Hines Hall. The polls will be open from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m.

Bulletin Board

—Chesapeake VA Schools will interview Thursday, April 13th, from 1-8 p.m. for positions in Education, all fields and grades.

—Rose's Stores, Inc., Henderson, will interview Wednesday, April 26th, from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. for positions in Business Administration and Accounting.

SNACK SHOP WEEKEND HOURS: Friday the Snack Shop will close at 5 p.m.; Saturday it will open at 10 a.m. and close at 4 p.m.; Sunday it will open at 3 p.m. and close at 10 p.m. This schedule will be this weekend only since this is a trial period.

Phi Mu Sorority is sponsoring a speaker on gynecological problems on Thursday, April 6th, at 7 p.m. in the Nursing Building. A question-answer period will follow. The public is invited.

Ensemble Program

The ACC Music Department will present the Vocal Ensemble assisted by the Brass Ensemble and organist Charles Rakow in a program of sacred music for voices, brass and organ on Sunday, April 9th, at 6 p.m. in the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church of Wilson. The program will be conducted by Robert Daniel of the music faculty. Allen Molineux directs the Brass Ensemble. The concert program is open to the public with no admission charge.

Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority is sponsoring a car wash at Flower's Gulf Station beside Convenient, on Deans Street, Saturday, April 8, 1978, from 9:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. The cost is $2.00 per car, and the support will be greatly appreciated! Tickets for the car wash may be purchased from any Sigma or you may pay Saturday.

Lynam In Concert

Charles Lynam, baritone, will be presented in concert on the Atlantic Christian College campus, Monday, April 10, at 8 p.m., in Howard Chapel. His appearance is sponsored by the ACC Concert and Lecture Committee.

His program will include recitative pieces, "Air" by Haydn, and "Si, tra i ceppi," by Handel. Also included will be "Widmung," "Die Lotosblume," "Wanderlied," and "Zwei Venetianische Lieder," all by Schumann. There will be two arias from "Rigoletto" by Verdi. Following an intermission he will perform "Chanson triste," and "Phidyle," by Duparc, and "Don quichotte a Dulcinee," by Ravel. Also included will be "Go, lovely rose," and "Love's philosophy," by Quilter; and "In the silent night," and "Spring waters," by Rachmaninov.

Lynam is associate professor of music at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. He has been presented in numerous recital and oratorio performances, and soloist on several occasions with the Greensboro, Charlotte, and N.C. Symphony Orchestras, and also a performance with the Eastern Philharmonic Orchestra.

The concert is open to the public free of charge.

Lecture Slide Presentation

Dr. William Still, Professor of History at East Carolina University will give a lecture-slide presentation on the Monitor and Civil War Naval History, Wednesday, April 12, 8:00 p.m. in the Choral Room of the Music Building, Atlantic Christian College Campus. Dr. Still's appearance is under the auspices of the History Department, Pi Gamma Mu Social Science Honorary Society, and the Wilson County Historical Association.

Dr. Still is a member of the Board of Directors, Monitor Research and Recovery Foundation and of the National Monitor Advisory Committee.

The speaker is a holder of M.A. and Ph.D. Degrees from the University of Alabama.

All students and members of the community are invited.

Wenger Hall

To Be Dedicated

The Arthur D. Wenger Residence Hall at Atlantic Christian College will be dedicated on May 1, according to an announcement by Harold C. Doster, president of the college.

The event will honor the memory of the eighth president of the college who died Feb. 25, 1977, in his 21st year as chief executive of the institution.

The program, to which the public is invited, will begin at 4:30 p.m., at the residence hall located at Deans and Lee Streets. A reception and tours of the building will be held following the dedication.

In making the announcement, Doster named a program committee for the observance. Named were David L. Cleveland, chairman and director of development; Milton L. Adams, vice president and business manager; Miss Sarah Bain Ward, dean of women; Dan Hensley, chaplain; and William E. Smith, director of alumni affairs.