

Alpha Omega Extends Welcome

The Alpha Omega Christian Fellowship welcomes all students to A.C. A special welcome is extended to the students here for the first time.

Contrary to popular belief, Alpha Omega is not a social organization but a fellowship of Christians who meet every Thursday night at 7:00 p.m., in the Still Point. The meetings are very informal, consisting of singing, praying and sharing of ourselves and God's Word. Occasionally, we have guest speakers, musicians, tapes or skits as a part of the meetings.

Exciting things are planned for this year and all are welcome to come and share with us.

This year, we are planning to have Bible Study groups on campus in an effort to learn more about God's Word and to reach out to others. We hope for enough people interested in drama to revive the Alpha Omega Players this year. We would like to join the other Christian organizations on campus in sponsoring Christian musical concerts here at A.C. One such concert is being planned for September 16th.

Alpha Omega will also participate in Homecoming and other campus-wide events during the year.

The leaders of Alpha Omega for this year are Randy Barham, Jim Heath, Debby Koesy, and Sabrina Lanier. Our faculty advisor is Dr. Paulsell.

For anyone seeking Christian fellowship come to Alpha Omega. To anyone who is seeking something better for yourself, come to Alpha Omega. You will never know what our meetings are like unless you come out and fellowship with us.

From left to right, Randy Barham, Debby Koesy, Sabrina Lanier and Jim Heath. Photo by Peter Chamness

SGA

At its first meeting of the academic year, the Senate of the Student Government Association was welcomed back by George Murphy, S.G.A. Vice-President. Murphy then introduced the Senate to Gordon Joyner, the new Dean of Students. Upon invitation to make a few remarks, Dean Joyner, a native of Wilson, said that he looks forward to working with the Senate and hopes to continue the good working relationship which the S.G.A. has had with former Dean Whitehurst. He also stated that he had talked with most of the S.G. A. officers and they seemed to be easy people to work with.

After the Senate approved its rules of procedure, Murphy pointed out that, of the new class constitutions which needed to be

See SGA Page 6

Greek Welcome

Ginny McCraw

With the beginning of the fall semester on hand, all students are busy getting into the swing of campus academics and activities. The Greeks here on the AC campus wish to take this busy time to extend a special welcome to all freshmen, transfers and returning students. We are all excited to see both new and old faces. The upcoming year holds new and renewed friendships for all of us. Take time to get to know the Greeks — we are anxious to know all of you. We are always here if you need us. Please let us know if we can help you in any way. Good luck to you all in the coming year.

Last week we neglected to mention a church in listing the churches of the area. Rock Church is located two miles out on Waterworks Rd. The pastor is Rev. William Ezzell. We apologize for the oversight.

Oops!

Last week we ran an article telling about some administrative changes that have taken place. But because of the busy schedule of everyone concerned, we were not able to obtain pictures of Deans Monshower, Davis and Joyner. So we'd like to take time now to present them to you.

Photo by Jane Roebuck

Dean Gordon L. Joyner, new Dean of Students (top), Dean Al Monshower, new Dean of Men (bottom, left) and Dean F. Mark Davis, Academic Dean (bottom, right).

Photo by Jane Roebuck

Photo by Jane Roebuck

UCCF

This year's first meeting of United Campus Christian Fellowship will be Monday, Sept. 4. UCCF is a group of students who enjoy Christian Fellowship, and are interested in working together for the service of the community.

Our first meeting will be of a get-acquainted sort, and if you are interested in having some fun and doing something worthwhile, you are welcome to join. We will meet in the lobby of Hamlin Student Center at 6:30 Monday night, and leave from there. See you then!

EHI

By K. McRae

The President of the Educators of the Hearing Impaired Club, Debby Koesy, would like to welcome all new students to Atlantic Christian College. She would also like to invite all students interested in Deaf Education to join EHI. This active club will expose you to the world of deafness and will inspire you to want to work with deaf people. Activities tentatively planned by the EHI club for this year include a trip to Morganton High School for the Deaf, interviews with parents of deaf children, and various money making projects. If you

See EHI Page 6

Concert Held

Deborah Maloney of Plymouth, will be presented in a senior voice recital by the Atlantic Christian College Department of Music, on Thursday, Aug. 31, at 8 p.m., in Howard Chapel, on the college campus.

Included in her program will be a selection of work by Italian, German, French and English composers including "O mio babbino caro," from the opera "Gianni Schicchi," by Giacomo Puccini; and "Faites-lui mes aveux," from the opera "Faust," by Charles Gounod.

She will also sing a number of pieces by contemporary composers Celius Dougherty, Ned Rorem, and Jean Berger.

Accompanying Miss Maloney at the piano will be Dorothy Jane Bostick of the ACC music faculty.

A music education major, Miss Maloney is a 1972 graduate of Plymouth High School. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew B. Maloney, 211 Hampton Drive, Plymouth.

The recital is open to the public. There is no charge for admission.