Leadership Topic of Dinner

The Atlantic Christian Council of Presidents met last Monday night and heard an enthusiastic presentation on "Goal Setting and Leadership Motivation." The Council, made up of the president of each committee and campus organization, meets every month to discuss the goings-on of each group. The Council provides an opportunity for the leaders to discuss whatever problems their organization may have and, with the help of other leaders, work through those problems. The Council also provides an opportunity for each group to know what the others are doing.

After an excellent buffet dinner prepared by ARA, the college food service, the Council heard introductory remarks made by President Doster. One new group on campus, the Track Club, represented by Debbie Doster, was welcomed and new members of the Council were introduced. After the introductions, Doster presented Ben Pomeroy to the Council.

Pomeroy, who was the coach of the A.C. men's basketball team up until the 1976-77 season, spoke on the subject of "Goal Setting and Leadership Motivation." Pomeroy has recently been working with Success Motivation Institute, and feels that goal-setting and careful planning can help one to achieve success in whatever he seeks to do. Pomeroy stressed the importance for campus leaders to recognize what they feel the goals of their organizations should be. He explained that if each group would take the time to decide what their goals are and plan to achieve those goals, the organization can be successful. Pomeroy concluded the presentation by adding that all campus organizations, and each student as well, should be optimistic about what they can achieve. He stressed confidence and mental attitude as playing important roles in any attempt at success.

The Council reacted very favorably to Pomeroy's message and asked him to return next year at the beginning of the Fall semester to speak to that year's campus leaders concerning the same subject.

Bridal Fair Successful

by M. Karen Page

Last Saturday, about thirty A.C. students braved their way through the ice to help Women's Interdorm Association put on a Bridal Fashion Show.

W.I.A. was working with the Wilson County Extension Service on this show and it gave the students a good opportunity to work with the community on a worthwhile and fun project. Persons attending the Bridal Fair were able to get some useful information on how to plan every aspect of the wedding. Exhibits on flowers, photography, caterers, and bridal fashions were just a few of the interesting sights at the fair.

We would like to extend a special "thank-you" to Lynette Bingham, Debbie Cook and Ginny Reboli for all their help behind the scenes.

News Briefs

Here and There

Everyday, there are new developments in Iran to make the outside world question the country's future. This week, the army closed the airport to prevent the return of the exiled religious leader Khomeini. It was reported he planned to return to Iran on Friday after a year in exile in France. Multitudes of Iranians are demonstrating in the streets in favor of this return, but still the Shah's appointed replacement, Bakhtiar, backed by the military, is ruling Iran.

It was reported Monday at the Council of Presidents' meeting that 1977-78 yearbooks are scheduled to arrive the middle of February. In the past years, the books usually arrived at the start of the fall term.

George Murphy was installed as SGA President on Tuesday. He was given the oath of office by President Doster. Murphy replaces Don Berry, who disappeared from school in November and is now reported to be in New York.

President Carter's State of the Union message delivered last Tuesday dealt mainly with lowering inflation and the strategic Arms Limitation Treaty with the Soviet Union, which the Senate will be voting on after final negotiations are completed.

Willie Mays was inducted into the Baseball's Hall of Fame on Monday. The "Say Hey Kid," the third leading homerun hitter, was almost unanimously chosen, receiving 409 votes of a possible 432.

"Bus Stop" Coming

Stage and Script is now moving into their second semester of play productions with the airing of the William Inge rendition of Bus Stop. The cast has been selected and under the direction of Mr. Paul Crouch, is now in the process of rehearsals and every night line learning.

Set design crews are at work preparing props and scenery for the scheduled February 18th tech rehearsal deadline. February 22nd marks opening night and there is no charge for admission to Atlantic Christian students.

If anyone would like to be of service they may volunteer their time at Howard Chapel from 2:00 to 4:30 p.m., on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays and from 3:00 to 4:30 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Any help would be greatly appreciated.

Remember to make a note, Bus Stop is on the way. PATRONIZE THE ARTS!

New York or Bust

Atlantic Christian College has been recognized in the past for participating in the United Nations Student Delegate Program. Groups of Social Science students have, except for last year, regularly attended and had the opportunity to work with colleges around the world.

This year, the Social Science Club has a slight problem financing the trip. We cannot be recognized at the U.N. until we pay our enrollment fees. The S.G.A. was asked to help sponsor the group, yet we were turned down... we imagine it is so they can bail out the Entertainment Committee again this year. Every year, eighty dollars is deducted from each student's tuition and this money is set aside for funding certain campus group projects; yet none of us really know how well the money is spent. It must be spent very well if they cannot send a group of student delegates to the U.N. to represent the school on an internationally competitive program such as this one.

President Doster has helpfully suggested that the club show up in full force Tuesday, January 30, to ask for the funds once again and find out how the S.G.A. money is spent.

If we are turned down again, the trip will obviously be in jeopardy, since our menial car washes and book sales alone could not cover the entire trip. After all, for 12 students in New York, a week is all but inexpensive.
