NEE NINGERS visit AC

The Nee Niny Band!! will perform at A.C. on Nov. 30 at 7:30 p.m., in Hardy Alumni Hall. The band consists of five members: Ted Porter, Chris Turner, Rachel Maloney, Rob Van Veld, and Mance Grady. The first three of these five started the band as street performers at the Mardi Gras in 1978. Rob Van Veld joined the group with his double wash-board bass, "Jim" shortly thereafter. "Jim" became part of the family of other acoustic instruments: harmonica, fiddle, mandolin, flute, jaw harp, medieval cornetto, bagpipes, and shawms. Mance Grady became part of the band last summer, adding an interesting percussion sound to the group's already unique style.

They incorporate in their show folk tunes, using traditional styles of English, Irish, Scottish, Cajun, medieval, country, and blues; added to this musical potpourri is their colorful stage presence, which includes eye-catching costumes, audience participation, and high-energy performance.

Although the Nee Niny Band!! has been performing professionally for only a short time, they come highly recommended as a group that appeals to persons of all ages. They have made three records on their own label. Their energy and showmanship ensure that their performance here at A.C. will be an interesting one. The admission is interesting, too: come with a smile!!

These happy people are among the ones who ventured into the wilderness of the CCA retreat held the weekend of Nov. 2-3. The retreat was held at Camp DonLee, on the Neuse River.

Retreat meets with Success

On Friday, Nov. 2, 68 people from Alpha Omega, Baptist Student Union, Campus Christian Association, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and United Campus Christian Fellowship packed their sleeping bags and bare necessities into four A.C. vans. They headed for the CCA overnight retreat at Camp DonLee. Upon arrival and throughout the retreat, they were served good, homecooked meals.

Friday night was a time of getting to know each other through games, singing and fellowship. The campfire was brought inside by the rain but was not any less effective. After the service and sharing in front of the fire, some roasted marshmallows while others headed towards the waterfront.

Saturday morn began early for most at the sunrise service. The clouds covered the morning sun, but all knew it had risen by the vision of many sleepy,

Internships Sponsored

Anyone who has a responsible, self-directed personality, interested in the political aspects of our society, and who has an interest in obtaining first-hand experience in the American political system, listen up.

As a member of the American Student Association (ASA), students of Atlantic Christian will have first choice in an opportunity to participate in a unique internship experience. The ASA offers full- or part-time volunteer internships in their national headquarters in Washington, D.C., with possible arrangements made for academic credits. The program will consist of an orientation period which includes visits to the Senate, the House of Representatives, Congressional committee meetings, subcommittee hearings and readings related to their specific internships.

Any student interested in obtaining more information on this opportunity should contact any SGA officer during their office hours (posted on the Student Center and SGA Bulletin Boards), or call the SGA office at 237-3161 after 5:30 daily. These internships are available on a first come-first serve basis and as of this printing, there are still openings for fall 1980 internships, so don't wait till it's too late!

Alpha Omega News

The past few weeks have been really exciting ones for Alpha Omega. Not only have our Thursday night meetings been great, but the retreat last week was fantastic.

Last Thursday night was talent night. We realized how much really exceptional talent there is on this campus. Thanks to the following people who participated: Julie Conert, Wanda Greenwood, Dana Daniell, Jim Heath, Cindy Waters, Kitty Strickland, Jeff Batchelor, Sandy Smock, Colleen Cucchiara, Debbie Moore, Sherry Mikesell, David Hines, Micah Christian, Rueggy Copen and Sam Francisco!

Everyone is invited to attend Alpha Omega for a little fun and fellowship on Thursdays at 7:00 in the Still Point. This Thursday there is going to be a special Thanksgiving service. Also, the Barry McGuire concert is this Friday, Nov. 16, in Raleigh. See us for tickets as soon as possible.

We look forward to seeing you on Thursday night!
