

Hypnotist to Perform in January

Gil Eagles
THE ENTERTAINING PSYCHIC

From a Gil Eagles Release

The S. G. A. Entertainment Committee of Atlantic Christian College will present The Gil Eagles Show - demonstrations of E.S.P. and Hypnosis Friday on Jan. 18, 1980 at Hardy Hall at 7:30 p. m. The performance will last approximately two to two and one half hours. Admission by I.D. Gil Eagles is known as the entertaining psychic and the world's fastest hypnotist. This dynamic showman will have an exhibition by demonstrating his incredible abilities of E.S.P. and Hypnosis.

Gil Eagles has already appeared on more than 500 college and university campuses throughout the United States and Canada. He has also baffled countless thousands on four other continents. Now through recent T.V. and concert - platform appearances, he has established himself as America's foremost entertainer and lecturer in the field of E.S.P. and Hypnosis.

Gil Eagles' thrilling "One Man Show" uses total audience participation without confusion or collusion. This compelling and dynamic showman will skillfully and tastefully guide his audience through the amazing and fascinating possibilities of the mind. Names ... Numbers ... Innermost thoughts ... and Personal questions will be revealed and answered, are those actually held in the minds of the audience - all strangers to him. With miraculous speed and unsurpassed timing, Gil Eagles will unleash his hypnotized subjects' inhibitions, resulting in a laugh provoking, side-splitting, hilarious event. Good taste and respect of the privacy and dignity of his audience always prevails.

Gil Eagles was born and raised in Tanganyika, East Africa ... educated in London and moved to the U.S.A. in 1960. It was while still in Africa at the early age of thirteen that Gil Eagles first realized his sensitivity with clairvoyance and there he practiced with the local natives. (He speaks Swahili fluently.) For over twelve years, Mr. Eagles has been a serious and avid exponent of hypnotherapy as it applies to the medical and psychiatric professions. Mr. Eagles' Self-Hypnosis and Mind Control seminar - workshops are now receiving national acclaim. He has received outstanding reviews from hundreds of sources: "Incredibly staggering", says the London Times. "Puzzling in nature, memorable in entertainment. A masterful presentation ..." according to the late Ed Sullivan in the New York Daily News. "Eagles is unquestionably entertaining", says Barriety. "He works in a low key, relaxed, humorous style". Christmas program tonight

The Music Department will present the ACC Vocal Ensemble, conducted by Robert Daniel, in a program of Christmas music Monday, December 10th at 8:00 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church of Wilson. Charles Rakow will accompany the program.

The Ensemble will open with a group of Renaissance pieces by Michael Praetorius. Sung in German and Latin, this group will include the very popular "Lo, how a Rose e'er Blooming." The performance will continue with the final chorus from J. S. Bach's Motet I and Benjamin Britten's Jubilate Deo. The Britten, written in 1961, is to be sung in English with organ accompaniment. The following group, a set of Christmas carols by Alfred Burt, was originally conceived by the composer merely as Christmas presents to close friends. Later, however, these pieces were published due to their popularity. The final group will include very familiar seasonal carols, several of which represent different nationalities. Included are "He is Born" of French origin, "Fum, fum, fum," a Spanish carol, as well as "O Come, Emmanuel" and "Angels We Have Heard On High."

The 28-voice Ensemble consists mainly of voice majors within the Music Department at ACC. They make many concert appearances held on campus and in the community. They also appear as representatives of the college on the annual "Christmas Carousel" broadcasts over WITN-TV. This year the Ensemble will also accompany the ACC Choir on its January 1980 tour of South Carolina, Georgia, and Florida.

The program is open to the public with no admission charge.

Party!

by Rueggy Copen

What are you doing at 5:30, Dec. 12? Well, if you fall under the category of Student, faculty, staff and/or families get up and brush yourself off and come on over to the AC Cafeteria for super ultra fantastic Christmas Banquet. The Banquet will begin right after the Candle Lighting Ceremony by the fountain. So, right after that last candle is lit, mosey on up to the cafeteria and take part in the biggest spread in history of spreads. The only thing we ask, since we are expecting an over-capacity crowd of 800 and we only have sitting for 300, we ask that you sign up for the hour you want to eat on Wed. Then Reservation sheets will be posted underneath the clock in the cafeteria on Mon., Dec. 10, and Tues., Dec. 11.

Other features of the evening will be Christmas Dinner Music provided by the AC Music Dept. Feel free to dress semi-formal

Campus lights up

from Staff Reports

On Wednesday night, the walks of the A.C. campus will be lit up in a celebration of Christmas.

The Student Government Association, through the combined efforts of the Entertainment and Elections Committees, is sponsoring a decorating ceremony which will involve the lighting of several of the campus walkways with candles, neatly placed in sand-filled paper bags.

The decorating, which will prove to make the campus a beautiful sight during the evening hours, will last approximately 2½ to 3 hours, depending on how long the candles burn. There will be approximately 600 candles used for the event, which George T. Murphy, President of the SGA, hopes will become a tradition at Atlantic Christian.

Murphy credits Phil Lassiter

for organizing the event, which will be coordinated with the Christmas Banquet, being held from 5:30 to 7:30 the same evening.

Through the two coordinating committees, ten campus organizations will be participating in the event. These clubs were represented at an organizational meeting held last Thursday. All campus organizations were invited to participate; however, only ten will be involved in the event. Those organizations are:

- Sigma Sigma Sigma
- Phi Mu
- Women's Interdorm
- Men's Interdorm
- Young Democrats
- Pine Knot
- SNEA
- Student Nurses Organization
- Alpha Omega
- Class of 1981.
