

Carter Wins Election!!!

by Ernie Lee

The results are in and the Democratic candidates won close but decisive victories over their Republican challengers in the 1980 A.C.C. mock election. The mock election held in Hamlin Student Center on October 22-23 is considered an unqualified success as a record breaking number of nearly five hundred students and faculty rushed to the polls to cast the "deciding" vote. As the voting booth closed and all the votes were tabulated, it became apparent that the Democratic candidates Jimmy Carter, Jim Hunt, and Robert Morgan won a tight and well contested battle over their Republican counterparts Ronald Reagan, I. Beverly Lake, and John East.

The results were extremely close between the presidential candidates, Jimmy Carter, Ronald Reagan, and John Anderson as four hundred fifty-three students cast their vote for one of these contenders. The Democratic nominee, Jimmy Carter won with two hundred and four votes or forty-five percent of the student vote. In turn, the Republican candidate, Ronald Reagan received one hundred ninety votes or as shown in a percentage, 41.9 percent of all votes cast by students. Thus the race was extremely close in that only a fourteen vote spread separated the two candidates. John Anderson running as an Independent received 56 votes or 12.4 percent of the student vote. Three names were written in, Barry Commoner, Ed Clark, and Gerald Ford who each received one vote.

Among the faculty of which forty members voted, the results were also very close in the highly contested presidential race. Again President Carter won a narrow victory with 16 votes or 40 percent of the faculty who voted. Governor Reagan received 14 votes or 35 percent of the faculty vote and John Anderson won 9 votes or approximately 22.5 percent. Again Barry Commoner received one write in vote.

In the gubernatorial race, 333 students voted and Democratic candidate Governor Jim Hunt won a landslide victory with 269 votes to Republican challenger I. Beverly Lake's 64 votes. In terms of a percentage, Hunt won an overwhelming 80.8 percent of the vote to Lake 19.2 percent thus scoring a decisive victory for the Democratic Party. Among the faculty, Hunt won 28 of 40 votes cast compared to Lake's 12 votes. The Morgan was not quite as great between the candidates in the faculty vote for Hunt achieved 70 percent of the vote to Lake's 30 percent. However, in both votes the Democratic candidate scored an amazing victory.

In the Senatorial race, the 326 voting students gave a victory to Democratic incumbent Robert Morgan over E.C.U.'s John East. Morgan won 188 votes or 57.7 percent compared to East's 42.3 percent. Among the faculty of which 39 voted in the Senatorial race, Morgan won with 26 votes or 66.7 percent defeating East who received 13 votes or 33.3 percent of the vote.

Thus, the students and faculty at A.C.C supported the Democratic candidates in all three races. Although Carter won by a narrow lead over Reagan in both votes, the gubernatorial race proved to be a huge landslide in favor of the incumbent and obviously popular, James B. Hunt, Jr. The senatorial race also proved to be very close, although students were more prone to vote for East than were faculty.

Both the Young Democratic Club and the Republican Club would like to thank all those who undoubtedly made this election a huge success by turning out in record numbers to cast their vote. Indeed, it shows that A.C.C. is active and that many are interested in the election process. Thank you very much for your participation in the 1980 A.C.C. mock election.

The Tachion

by Joe Stallings

The word "Tachion" is probably a very strange word to most of you. In fact, when I first heard it, it was Greek to me indeed. Actually, "Tachion" means "to outrun" in Greek.

So, in case you haven't guessed yet, the Tachion is a race. It is the Campus Life 10,000 meter run held at 9:00 a.m., Saturday, Nov. 8 in Raleigh, N.C. The purpose of the race, to quote the official theme is "For the one following the principles of God's Word for Life's pattern, the challenge set is to outrun, in other words to become the victor over anything that would prevent or hold back one from becoming Christlike and rightly bearing the name of Christian."

This race will pit the track teams that represent various Christian organizations around the nation. We at Atlantic Christian College ought to take pride in knowing that our own Alpha Omega Christian Fellowship has entered a track team. The team consists of Stefan Dentzer, Joe Stallings, Bobby Gardner, Steve Gray, Susan Lamb, Colleen Cucchiara, and Bethanne Ludeman.

This great race will start promptly at 9:00 a.m. at the Capitol Building on Hillsborough Street and end on the Paul Derr Track at North Carolina State University.

This race also features the Reverend Jeff Wells, the second place finisher in the 1978 Boston Marathon. It is sponsored by Triangle Youth for Christ.

Mums!

by Jayne Peacock

Homecoming Mums will be sold by WIA in the lobby of the Student Center on Friday October 31 from 12 to 5. The cost of each corsage will be $3.50. They will be white mums with a royal blue ribbon with ACC on it. Guys, this is a great opportunity for you to buy your girl a corsage for the homecoming dance.

Mums will also be sold Saturday at the carnival. They will be great to wear to the soccer game and show your school spirit. Also it's a great gift for Moms and alumni that come to visit!

WIA appreciates your support and wants to encourage everyone to get involved and get the homecoming spirit!

Franz Liszt

CP&R

Pianist Robert Guralnik, in costume as Franz Liszt with full set and lighting will present his new one-man musical and theatrical evening called "Tonight, Franz Liszt," on Wednesday, Nov. 5, at 8 p.m., in Howard Chapel, on the Atlantic Christian College campus.

A number of years ago the New York director, Harold Guskin, attended the Carnegie Hall recital of Guralnik. The performance ended with Liszt's "Transcendental Etudes." Guskin was so startled by Guralnik's virtuosity that years later, after they had collaborated on a new concept in one-man shows, "Chopin Lives," he felt he had to write a theatrical program based on Liszt for Guralnik.

Happily, audiences were so excited by "Chopin Lives," that they were more than ready to see the new music-drama "Tonight, Franz Liszt."

Guralnik portrays the aging Liszt reliving great moments of his life -- flaunting the Tzar, his many love affairs, his great successes, his failures, his influence on Wagner, and much more.

The performer plays many of Liszt's great piano pieces as part of the drama. The audience will understand why Guskin has to write the program when they hear Guralnik as Liszt play "La Campagnella" early in the first act.

The performance is sponsored by the Concert and Lecture Committee at Atlantic Christian College. The event is open to the public free of charge.

Summer Internships

CP&R

PRINCETON* N.J. (October 1, 1980) -- Fifty-one college students have completed summer internships operated through the Newspaper Fund.

The Editing Internship Program placed 40 selected undergraduates on daily newspapers and wire service copydesks, and awarded each student a 700 scholarship.

The minority Internship Program involved 11 students who are doing graduate work. After working a full summer on daily newspapers, these students received $1,000 scholarships.

The editing interns attended one of four preparatory courses before beginning their internships. These two-week crash courses were taught by Dr. Edward Traves at Temple University (Philadelphia), Dr. William Turpin at Virginia Commonwealth University (Richmond), Prof. Daryl Moen and Prof. Brian Brooks at the University of Missouri, and Dr. John Clarke at Ohio State University.

Prior to their internships, the minority interns attended a three-week crash course taught by Prof. Samuel Adams and Mr. William Hilliard at the University of Kansas.

Grants to support these Newspaper Fund programs came from Dow Jones & Company, Inc., and the sponsoring newspapers and wire services.

Salaries of the editing and minority interns also were paid by the newspapers that hired them for the summer.

These internship programs help students to become proficient in all phases of copyediting and headline writing, and as a result sharpen their skills for professional news work. The goal of the Minority Internship

Carnival

Get out your cowboy hat, boots, jeans, and bandanas-Saturday is "A Country Welcome" homecoming carnival. There will be pie throwing, dart boards, helium balloons, a bake sale, pottery exhibitions, cotton candy, hot dogs, lots of prizes and many other things on hand from 10 am until 2 pm in front of Hines Hall. The Apple Chill Cloggers will be joining us and providing our musical entertainment-there will be square dancing. Grab your partner and swing on over to the Quad. (if it rains we will move everything to the Old Gym) This carnival has been in the working since August and with most of the campus organizations pitching in, it is sure to be a weekend you won't want to miss. A prize will be given to the boy and girl who are the most decked out in cowboy cowgirl garb. See you-all there!
