

DOGS DUMPED BY FSU

by Jay Mumford

WILSON -- It was the Steve Mims night at the Wilson Gym Monday night. Mims came alive in the second half, and along with the timely play of Bonny McNeil and Charles Peoples led the Broncos of Fayetteville State University to a 79-71 victory over the Bulldogs, gaining revenge for a 77-73 AC victory earlier this season.

Mims ignited a 8-2 spurt at the start of the second half, scoring three baskets himself to send the Broncos into a 47-36 lead that the 'Dogs were never able to overcome. The Broncos increased their lead to 13 points on two separate occasions, at 58-45 and 71-58. The Bulldogs were able to cut both leads down to six points, but were never any closer.

The 'Dogs cut the lead to 62-56 with eight and a half minutes to play in the game, but a turnover underneath the basket kept AC from cutting the gap to four. Fayetteville St. then inserted McNeil into the line-up, and steadily increased their advance in the final minutes.

Peoples, along with McNeil, the two five footers on the Bronco's squad ran down the Bulldogs with the FSU version of the four corners in the final six minutes, drawing numerous one-and one foul opportunities to preserve the victory.

The teams exchanged leads only twice during the game, in the early part of the first half, but the Broncos began to establish themselves underneath the basket, and at times were scoring at will. AC stayed within two points for most of the first half, but Richard Robinson and Willian Person ignited an 8-3 spurt to put FSU up by seven at the half, 39-32.

The loss dropped AC to 4-4 overall and 2-2 in District 26 play, while Fayetteville State upped their record to 2-2 overall and also in the District.

LADIES WHIP FALCONS

by Jay Mumford

Tyra Boyd exploded for 24 points and Becky Pace added 14 to lead the Atlantic Christian's women's basketball team to its second consecutive win, a 77-52 victory over St. Augustine's Monday Night at Wilson Gym.

The win boosted AC to 2-1 overall, while St. Aug's fell to 2-5. Both teams placed two players in double figures, with the Lady Falcons getting the scoring help from Tanya Gibbon who bucketed 10, and Jackie Cumbo, who netted 11.

Boyd asserted herself by scoring six unanswered points from the field, boosting the AC lead from 19-18 to 25-18 midway the first half. After St. Aug's trimmed the margin to 27-24 on a Jackie Conyers free throw, Boyd and Pace combined for the next nine AC points to boost the margin up to 36-28 just before the half.

The second half belonged exclusively to Boyd and the Bulldogs, who blasted out to a 57-41 advantage with just over nine minutes remaining in the contest. During that spree, Boyd accounted for ten of the tallies for AC, including the last six of the drive. St. Aug's never untracked in the second half, falling behind by as many as twenty-three before one final AC spurt that produced the final margin.

AC experienced difficulty at the foul line, hitting 13 of 24 attempts, way off the sizzling 31 for 42 showing of Saturday night against Wingate. The Lady Bulldogs hit just 6 of 13 in the first half, which partially kept the Falcons in the contest until the second half barrage.
