GO GREEKS!!

OOPS!

In our issue of October 13, we stated in a Sports Information release that Cathy Wall was the first athlete from AC, male or female to sign a professional contract. However, during the past month of July, Tim Bardin signed a professional contract to play with the Rocky Mount Pines of the Carolina League, a Class A minor league. Bardin starred for AC at first base for four years before being signed by the Pines. Bardin will be attempting to sign another contract at spring training starting February 21, where he will be working out with the St. Louis Cardinals in St. Petersburg, Florida. We regret this error, and hope that this time we are correct. However, Wall is the first athlete to sign with a Major League team.

BULLDOGS FALL TO ELON

by Jay Mumford

WILSON -- Elon broke open a close game midway in the second half and held off AC rallies the rest of the way to post a 68-60 CIAC and District 26 victory over the Bulldogs Saturday night.

Elon was paced by the double-figure scoring of their starting line-up. Elon overcame a 39-36 deficit by scoring eighteen of the next twenty-four points to build a comfortable 54-45 lead, their largest of the evening behind the play of John Motley and Dave Mantiplay, both who contributed six points in the drive. for the game Motley tallied 14 points, and Mantiplay also added 14. Other double-figure scorers for the Fighting Christians were Drew Van Horn with 17, Lee Allison with 11, and Greg Dawson with 10. The Bulldogs were led in scoring by William Bogues with 19, James Leggett with 14, and Rick Mobley with 10.

The Bulldogs rallied from a 30-27 halftime deficit to move ahead 39-36 early in the second half after Rick Mobley and James Leggett got out of the gates quickly, but Elon settled down and pulled ahead for keeps, and salted the game away at the free throw line.

Elon kept AC guessing throughout most of the contest, by setting Mantiplay up for outside jumpers from the corner for most of the game, and when Allison or Van Horn would drive the lane for easy layups. Only at the start of the second half were the Bulldogs able to contain all three individuals, as Leggett and Mobley combined for ten of the first twelve AC points of the half. Elon moved to 2-2 in the CIAC, 3-2 in the District, and 5-4 overall. AC fell to 1-2 in CIAC action, 2-3 in the District 26 warfares, and 4-5 overall.

Atlantic Christian led by as many as four in the first half, but the Fighting Christians used a balance scoring attack to move up by halftime, despite the fact they did not take a trip to the free throw line in the first half, as the Bulldogs committed just two fouls.

The Bulldogs will take a two week break, returning to action on January 2 and 3 in the Sertoma Invitational at Green wood, South Carolina, then return home to take on CIAC and District 26 foe Catawba on January 6.
