CLASS SONG

Thou art the Mater we love so dear,
Thou art the school of our hearts,
And as we conclude this, our Senior year,
We say goodbye, ere we part—
Fare-thee-well.

We hold cherished memories of our college days,
We've lived here and loved and learned;
And now we reach the parting ways—
Bennett, until we return—
Farewell.

As travelers often look at eve at the end of a journey long—
We now turn to gaze at that light we leave—
This is our closing song—
Fare-thee-well.

"Mistaken works tonight may be so cherished by tomorrow's light, we may be patient, for we know there's such a little way to go."
