

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

ON AND OFF CAMPUS NEWS BRIEFS

First African American woman senator commencement speaker

Carol Mosely-Braun, U.S. Sen of Illinois has agreed to deliver Bennett's 1994 commencement address 11 a.m., May 15.

New faces for the Banner next year

Staff positions at the Banner have been selected for the 1994-95 school year. The new appointments thus far are as follows: Managing editor Crystal Simenton; Associate editor Stephanie McCorkle; News editor Christine Lewis; Copy editor Kaetina Davis; and Sports editor Cinzia Atkinson; and Advertising manager Nicole Issac. The Banner is still accepting applications for reporters, photographers and advertising sales reps. For more information stop the Banner office in Shell Hall C.

Students recognized for various achievements

The annual recognition day convocation was held April 14. More than 100 students were recognized for various achievements in their major field of study. Dr. Lenora Brogdon-Wyatt, the mass communication department chair, presided along with Michelle Huff, a junior political science major from Baltimore.

Women's studies conference held

The Southeastern Women's Studies Association Conference was held April 8-10. The theme was "Constructing the 21st Century: Women and the World." Dr. Linda Brown, distinguished professor of humanities and occupant of the Willa B. Player Endowed Chair, spoke on "Understanding Symbols and Images of Racism in Our Culture."

Bennett to hold first session of summer school

Students who are interested in going to summer school will be happy to know that Bennett will have its first session starting this summer. Pre-registration was April 19-22. If you missed this session, there just may be another session next summer if the response to this session is a good one.

Banners to be boxed

The next time you want a Bennett Banner look for one of the 5 news stands made for the college newspaper by Weaver Education Center. These boxes will be placed all over the campus the next few weeks for easier access and convenience.

Bertice Berry show, co-starring Bennett's own Tracey Fox and assistant professor Carrino

Tune your television sets to see what happens when Tracey Fox and Professor Stephanie Carrino visit the Bertice Berry show. Highlights include views on freeloading family members and lingerie. Both shows were scheduled to air May 5 and May 6.

Bennett celebrates Nubian Nuance

Bennett celebrated Nubian Nuance April 25 through May 1. Highlights included everything from a cookout on the first day to the annual President's ball, where the new Miss Bennett was named.

Gospel singer, Yolanda Adams, made an appearance to help the college community celebrate festivities by giving a gospel concert in the gymnasium. Other festivities included a festival reading, a heritage festival, and faculty follies.

Bennett sponsors Career fair

The Bennett College Career Center sponsored a career fair during Bellefest week. More than 40 companies and graduate schools attended to give information about career and graduate opportunities. Some of the companies were Norrell temp, WFMY-TV 2, North Carolina Central Law School and WJMH-102 jams.

Fun at faculty follies

Faculty Faculty Follies, a part of Bellefest activities, was held April 28. Faculty, staff and administration did everything from comedy skits to singing. Highlights of the show included performances featuring vice presidents Dr. Charlotte Alston, Dr. Ulysess Bell, Dr. Tiajuana Mosby, Phanalphie Rhue, director of public relations and Victoria Burke, acting chair of the social work department.

*La
Facial
and
Hair
Salon*

Tammy Bowden

424 Market St.
Greensboro, NC

(910) 273-3901
(910) 855-3252

EXPRESS CHECK CASHING CENTER . . .
CONGRATULATES ALL GRADUAGES!

• 39¢ MONEY ORDERS

(Cheapest in Greensboro)

• AMERICAN EXPRESS MONEY GRAM
WIRE SERVICE

(Much cheaper than Western Union)

• LOWEST RATES ON CHECK CASHING

EXPRESS CHECK CASHING CENTER
1209 E. Bessemer Ave. (Corner of Bessemer & Lindsay)
574-2274