

Belles drop second home match, 48-69

By Jobina Brown
Banner Reporter and Staff

The Lady Belles dropped their second game of the season, losing to Methodist College, 48-69 Nov. 24 in the Ida B. Goode gym.

Bennett started the game slow, but the cheers from the fans seemed to provide the encouragement for the Belles to put more points on the board.

The Lady Belles put forth what was to be a losing effort, but they the game was still viewed as being better than the season opener against Chowan.

"This is better than Saturday's game when they played Chowan College," said Clindel Simmons, a junior psychology major from Bermuda.

"They have a good chance to win the game if they just somehow keep it up," Simmons said.

Frequent spectator and an assistant to the team Terry Cooper said the Belles needed to get focused mentally and physically in order to win.

"They are faster in the back court but must play together more as a unit to come out on top," Cooper said.

Forward Yolanda James, a sophomore from Virginia was the highest scoring Belle, earning a total of 15 points.

The Belles will host Newport News at the next home game Jan. 16.

Stocking stuffers: Autographed memorabilia for sports enthusiasts

(NAPS)—Attention Belles, if the "good sport" -- your dad, your boyfriend or you -- on your holiday list is interested in sports, this holiday season offers some interesting gift ideas.

One gift many sports fans are signing up for is autographed memorabilia and cards signed by some of the most famous names in the history of sports.

These autographed gifts can be found in Score Board's Autographed Collection 1998.

More than 70 percent of the autographed cards are from All Stars or 1st-Round selections, including Tim Duncan, Emmitt Smith, Scottie Pippen, Jose Cruz Jr. and Wayne Gretzky.

With memorabilia signed by superstars such as Cal Ripken Jr., Troy Aikman, Ken Griffey Jr., Randy Johnson, Stephon Marbury, and legends such as Earl Campbell, Rod Carew, Wilt Chamberlain, and Gordie Howe, the Autographed Collection is the true "Who's Who" of sports autographed trading cards and memorabilia.

There's an average of one autographed memorabilia item from a 500 Home Run Club member in every case.

Along with the autographed cards and memorabilia, Autographed Collection contains a 15-card Sports City, U.S.A. insert series which captures the top stars in baseball, football, basketball, and hockey in their corresponding cities.

The 50-card regular series features the top players in these four sports on high-quality, foil-stamped trading cards. The card packs sell for under $10, making them a good stocking stuffer.

Memorabilia includes helmets, baseballs, bats, jerseys and hockey pucks.

These gifts can give you a sporting chance of pleasing someone on your holiday list, or make a nice gift to buy for yourself.
