

SGA Cabinet 1999-2000

Elizabeth Fryar '00, SGA President for the 1999-2000 school year said she believes that when students work together anything is possible.

The results are in!
Elections for the new Student Government Association Cabinet for 1999-2000 academic year, were held during the last week of March.
The new officers will officially assume their positions Aug. 11.

Neda Brown '01, SGA Corresponding Secretary and Junior class secretary, said she strongly believes that a successful administration can only be achieved through faith in God.

ClIndel Simmons '00, the new SGA Vice President for 1999-2000.

(Left front) Carmen L. Cass '01, Junior Parliamentarian; (top left) CorlInn Smith '01, Jr. Class Treasurer; (right top) Kathryn Early '01, Jr. Class Vice President; (front right) Neda Brown '01, Jr Class Secretary ; and (bottom right) Tashaunna Felx '01, Miss Junior, in front of Player Hall.

Mateea Hill '00, the new Miss Bennett College.

Zenya Cleveland '01, the new SGA Parliamentarian.

The newly elected sophomore class officers: (from left) Kamillah Saddon '02, vice president; Carl Hackey '02, treasurer; Claudia Pearson '02 Miss Sophomore; and April McNeil '02, president.