

MRS. J. M. NEAVES PASSES SUDDENLY

Apoplexy Is Fatal To Mother of Messrs. W. A. and Fred Neaves

Mrs. Bertie Yates Neaves, 62, wife of J. M. Neaves, died suddenly at her home at Crumpler Sunday about noon from an attack of apoplexy. Mrs. Neaves was the mother of W. A. and Fred Neaves of Elkin and was well known here, having frequently visited in the homes of her sons.

The deceased was one of the most highly esteemed women in her community and was beloved by a host of friends. She was a member of the Crumpler Baptist church.

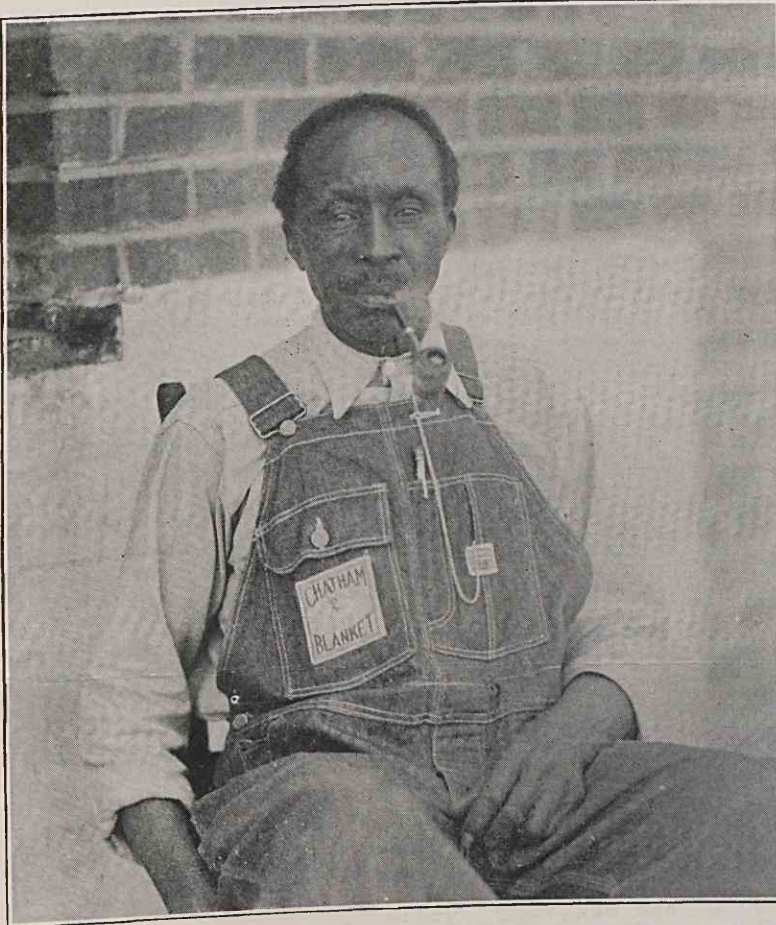

Funeral services were held from the Crumpler Baptist church Monday afternoon in charge of Rev. R. C. Spencer of Crumpler, pastor of the church, Rev. E. W. Fox, pastor of the Methodist church of Elkin, and Prof. R. L. Plumber of Crumpler. The last rites were attended by a throng of friends from Elkin and other cities. Grandsons of the deceased were pallbearers and the profuse floral tribute was borne by the granddaughters of the deceased.

Mrs. Neaves is survived by her husband, J. M. Neaves, and the following sons and daughters: W. A. Neaves and Fred Neaves, Elkin; Guy Dean and Walter Neaves, Mrs. Joe Pierce and Mrs. Harrison Sheppard, all of Crumpler; Lee Neaves, of Santa Rosa, New Mexico; Mrs. Chas. H. Smithey, Jefferson, and Mrs. A. M. Jones, West Jefferson.

Those from Elkin attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Neaves and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Neaves, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cox, Mrs. E. F. McNeer, Mrs. S. B. Miller, H. C. Graham, J. B. Jones, Mason Lillard, L. Burcham, Jack Freeman, Henry Dobson, W. E. L. Benson, A. L. Griffeth, C. C. Poindexter, H. D. Woodruff, James Burcham, Rev. E. W. Fox, Dixie Graham, French Graham, Sheffie Graham, Darwin Smithey and Mont Jones. Thurmond Chatham and R. W. Harris, of Winston-Salem, also attended the services.

"Whistle more and whine less—hustle more and holler less—work more and worry less—boost more and beef less—give more and grab less."

Has Been With Company For 37 Years

Uncle Jesse Barker, who is one of the oldest employees of the Elkin Mill. He came to work with the company 37 years ago.

HAS SERVED MANY YEARS WITH CO.

Uncle Jesse Barker Is 79 Years of Age, But Is Still a Valued Employee of Elkin Mill

Uncle Jesse Barker, 79, was born on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Howell Barker, just one mile below Jonesville, in Yadkin County, on November 19, 1854. He remained with the Barker family for three years after the war. Uncle Jesse has been married twice and is the father of six children by the first marriage. He has worked for the Chatham family through three generations and recalls with a great deal of pleasure the harvest times of the year when he worked for Mr. Alex Chatham, Sr. "They were the good ole days", so he says. He came to work for the Company thirty-seven years ago, working in the boiler room all those years up until recently when he was given a broom and scrub brush and asked to help keep the mill clean. No part of the mill is kept quite so tidy as that section that Uncle Jesse bosses. Mr. Hugh Chatham was an idol in the old darkey's mind and he often stops one of the older men to have a chat about the days when the mill wasn't quite so large and Mr. Hugh could be seen often walking and talking among his employees. When asked if he knew Mr. Thurmond Chatham, he replied, "Yes, and he gets more like his father every day."

Honesty needs no change to keep up with changing conditions.

If you have to "handle a man with gloves," it is usually best to use boxing gloves.

Homely is the mug which wears the frown.

UNIQUE TAKES FAST CONTEST

Winston-Salem Furniture Makers Down Chatham at Elkin by Score of 10 to 7

Elkin, June 14.—The unique Furniture Makers of Winston-Salem won a sluggish affair over Chatham here today by the score of 10 to 7.

Errors played a big part in the early scoring but Unique just hammered Maxwell and Gough timely for runs.

The Chatham team nicked Clement at times but he was very steady until the ninth, when he gave up three runs.

Southard clouted a timely home run for Chatham while Collins hit for the circuit for Unique. The defeat was the second of the season for Chatham on the home field. Box score and summary:

UNIQUE		ab	r	h	po	a
Collins, ss	.....	6	3	2	2	2
Holcombe, 1b	.....	4	2	3	13	0
S. Pierce, lf	.....	4	1	0	1	0
L. Tysinger, 3	.....	4	0	2	1	10
B. Carter, rf	.....	1	0	0	0	0
Lewis, rf	.....	4	0	1	1	0
Hawn, 2b	.....	3	0	0	4	3
Hancock, cf	.....	4	1	1	1	0
Crutchfield, c	.....	5	2	2	3	1
Clement, p	.....	4	1	0	1	4
Totals	.....	39	10	11	27	20

CHATHAM		ab	r	h	po	a
L. Gough, lf-2b	.....	5	2	2	1	0
Robins, ss	.....	5	2	1	1	4
Mackie, 3b	.....	4	0	2	1	2
G. Gough, 2b-p	.....	5	0	1	2	3
Munday, c	.....	4	1	2	10	1
Davis, cf	.....	4	0	1	3	0
Hambright, 1b	.....	4	1	1	9	0
Southard, rf-lf	.....	4	1	2	0	0
Maxwell, p-rf	.....	3	0	0	0	2
Totals	.....	38	7	12	27	10

Score by innings:
Unique ..... 121 100 140—10 10 0
Chatham .... 200 020 003— 7 11 3

Summary—Errors: L. Tysinger; G. Gough. Stolen bases: Tysinger, Lewis. Sacrifice hit: Hawn. Two-base hits: Crutchfield, L. Gough, Mackie, Munday, Southard, Davis. Home runs: Crutchfield, Collins, Southard. Hits: Off Maxwell, 11 in 8 1-3. Left on bases: Unique 8; Chatham 5. Struck out: By Clement, 3; by Maxwell, 8. Hit by pitched ball: By Maxwell, Holcombe, Clement; by Gough, Hancock; by Clement, Mackie. Bases on balls: Off Maxwell, 3. Double plays: Collins to Hawn to Holcombe; Robins to Mackie; Robins to G. Gough to Hambright.