WINSTON MILL

NAPPING AND WASH ROOM

We are sorry to report the illness of Mrs. Ella Jarvis' mother. She has been seriously ill for some time.

Jete Smitherman and family have moved to their beautiful new home on Vineyard Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sutton have moved from Chatham Heights to 715 Buxton Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hege entertained as their dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Norman, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Norman, and Betty Norman, on Sunday, August 19th.

Miss Levada Hanks spent the day with Mrs. Dennis Norman last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Norman, Ed Pfaff and small son and daughter, motored to South Carolina Saturday, August 18th, to visit Mrs. Emma Parrish, who has been sick, but who will soon be back with us.

Miss Venia Reynolds underwent an operation for appendicitis Monday morning, August 27th, at the Baptist hospital. We wish her a speedy recovery.

We have heard of boys making girls walk home, but never a preacher—Just the same Miss Pauline Gentry says she is giving "thumbing" lessons free of charge. She says she can beat anyone else, for it only took her a day to thumb her way from the mountains on Monday, August 20th, after Preacher Murray left her to get home the best way she could.

Mrs. Gazelle Longworth left Wednesday morning for Norfolk, Va., to spend her vacation. She will spend some time at the beach and will visit points of interest in and around the Virginia city.

Mr. and Mrs. William Norman, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hege, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Norman attended a barbecue held at a tobacco barn near the home of A. C. Ratledge, at Courtney, on last Saturday night.

dancing was enjoyed in the pavilion.

FINISHING DEPARTMENT

Miss Della Chambers spent the week end of the 25th. at North Wilkesboro visiting her sister.

Mrs. Lucy McKevlin has returned from her vacation spent at her home in Mountain City, Ga.

Miss Hattie Shugart spent the past week end at the home of her parents in Yadkin County.

Miss Pauline Chitty spent the week end of Aug. 10th. in Charlotte and Gastonia.

Misses Gypsy Smitherman, and Margaret Hilton and friends visited Blowing Rock recently. They reported a good time, if Gypsy and Odell did come back with a good sun burn.

Miss Blanche Ashe and Versia Whitlock have returned from a ten-day vacation spent at the home of the former in Western North Carolina.

Bruce Jr., why the blind dates? What's the trouble with you and your nurse at the City Hospital?

Odell Mickey is looking better these days since he has been dating just one girl. We believe he gets his beauty sleep every night with the exception of Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday nights.

Mrs. W. E. Bowen attended a chicken stew at the home of Mrs. Going, on last Saturday night.

Clara Lawson announces (due to the depression) she and Ellis are getting married.

Mrs. Ralph Gentry attended the Sunday school picnic of the Chatham Baptist church, held at Friedland Saturday.

Miss Linda Fishel visited the Carolina Beach last week-end. How's your sun burned nose, Linda?

Mrs. Lillian Myers spent the week-end at the home of her parents, near Yadkinville, recently.

Mrs. W. O. Everhart and family spent Sunday with her sister in Lexington.

We are glad to have Earline back with us after quite a few weeks of absence.

Miss Aura Sutphin attended a birthday dinner August 26th. We understood they had to run her off so other folks could have something to eat.

Notice—Finishing department: Please watch Gypsy Smitherman's facial expressions on Thursdays. Just why does she talk so little and smile so much.

SHIPPING DEPARTMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sutton and sister attended a home coming at Fall Creek recently and were the dinner guests of Mrs. Coy Bray, who sends her best regards to her many friends in the Chatham Mill.

Harvey, why is it that when

Goes Out of State

MRS. LILLIE SAUNDERS

Mrs. Lillie Saunders, of the Winston mill has been with the company for only six years, but she has endeared herself to all the employees. She was born in Winston-Salem and has resided there all her life, and is the mother of six children.

About three weeks ago, the Lucy Hanes Chatham Club invited her to accompany them on a camping trip to Mouth-of-Wilson, Virginia. This being the first time Mrs. Saunders, better known as Granny, by her many friends at the mill, was ever out of North Carolina. She has lived within fifty miles of the Virginia line, but had never had the opportunity to visit that state before. She says her highest ambition is to never get too old to work for Chatham Manufacturing Company and to go to California where her oldest son lives.

your wife is along you never speak to any of us girls?

Miss Osa Bell Middleton has returned to her home near Sylvia after spending several months with her sister, Mrs. Annie Sutton.

Emma, we are wondering just what Ralph paid you twenty cents for. What about that Annie?

NIGHT FORCE

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Stokes died Sunday night, August 19th, at 12:20 o'clock. Mr. Stokes operates napping machine No. 1, and was just recovering from an appendicitis operation.

We are very glad to have Hardin Adams transferred from the shipping department to our night force. We hope he will like it just as well.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Adams were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Saylor, of 515 Bank Street,

SOCIETY.

Club Entertained at an Ice Cream Supper

The Lucy Hanes Chatham club held their postponed meeting at the home of Mrs. Esther Norman, on Monday evening, August 13th. Upon the arrival of members and friends they were invited to the large lawn in the backyard where several large ice cream freezers had been prepared for making ice cream. While the young men turned the freezers the ladies enjoyed an interesting horse shoe contest. Miss Linda Fishel and Mrs. W. N. Norman were champions and received attractive prizes. Following a delicious ice cream supper consisting of home-made ice cream and cake, games and contests were played on the lawn. Mrs. Norman was assisted with the entertaining by Miss Nonnie Ball and Gypsy Smitherman. Twenty-five guests enjoyed the hospitality of these young ladies.

Chatham Baseball Team Entertained

The Chatham baseball players together with the Lucy Hanes Chatham club, were entertained at a most enjoyable fish fry Monday evening, at Washington Park, with Misses Madie Austin, Margaret Hilton and Linda Fishel as joint hostess.

Following a delicious supper, old-fashioned games and contests were enjoyed in the park under the capable direction of A. R. Plaster. Later in the evening
