

The Chatham Blanketeer

Editor-in-Chief.....Claudia Austin
 Assistant { Hoyt T. Hambright
 Editors..... { A. R. Plaster
 Circulation { R. G. Chatham, Jr.
 Managers..... { Stauber Flynt
 Chief Reporter.....John Sagar
 Club Reporters... { Leona Darnell
 { Bessie Gilliam
 { Madie Austin
 Weaving.....Catherine Brannon
 Spinning & Carding
 Pauline Morrison
 Shop, Dye & Power Plant
 Elizabeth Underwood
 Spooling & Burling.....Fay Reavis
 Wool Dept.....Pauline Masten
 Napping & Wash Room
 Dorothy Norman
 Finishing Dept.....Hallie Ball
 Shipping Dept.....Margaret Taylor
 Night Force.....Earl Conrad
 Old Mill.....Sherman Newman
 Winston Office.....Roxie Bowen
 Elkin Office.....Marjorie Greenwood

The Value Of Co-Operation

Co-operation, in my estimation, is one of the most important things in the business world. Without it most every business would fail. This is true in everything we undertake, if you have co-operation you stand a better chance to come out on top.

It has been said that a house divided against itself cannot stand. This can certainly be applied to a large business. If each employee of a concern will co-operate with his employer we would have better working conditions. When you work together in this manner your employer will do a lot more for you than he would otherwise.

Co-operation is a valuable asset to everyone. We find co-operation in schools, churches, in factories, and in all walks of life.

A great number of things have been accomplished through co-operation that otherwise would have been a failure. The NRA is an example of co-operation on a large scale.

None can ever say that they have lost anything by co-operating with someone. Because I know it to be a fact that every business man wants co-operation in his particular business. So let's all co-operate and help keep our particular business on top.

—An Employee of the Winston Mill.

All that some of us want is just enough to give us a reputation for being so well off that we don't need to pay our bills promptly.

SOCIETY.

Hege-Martin

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Martin, of Winston-Salem, announce the marriage of their daughter, Vera, to George Hege, on Sunday night, December 23, 1934. Rev. J. T. Murray officiating.

Mr. Hege is employed in the shipping department of the Winston Mill.

Forbus-Everhart

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Forbus, of Welcome, N. C., announce the marriage of their daughter, Emma, on Saturday afternoon, December 22, 1934. Rev. Church officiating.

Mrs. Everhart has been employed in the shipping department of the Winston-Salem mill for some time, and her many friends wish her much happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Everhart are at home to their friends at the home of Mr. Everhart's brother, on the new Lexington Road.

Birthday Party

Mrs. Walter Burgiss gave a delightful dinner at her home on Elk Spur street January 6th, honoring her sister, Mrs. James Burcham and her husband Walter Burgiss on their birthdays, and Russell Burcham, a student at Fork Union Military Academy, Fork Union, Va.

The dining room was beautifully decorated carrying out the color scheme of green and white. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. James Burcham, Russell Burcham, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hinchshaw and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burgiss.

Phillips-Byrd

Coming as a complete surprise to the many friends of the bride is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Hettie Phillips, of Benham to Mr. Robert Byrd, of Ronda. The wedding took place at Independence, Virginia, on Oct. 30, 1934, with the Rev. L. F. Frank, pastor of the First Baptist church officiating.

Mrs. Byrd is the daughter of Mrs. Charlie Phillips, and the late Mr. Phillips, of the Benham community. She is employed in the Burling department of the Elkin mill.

Mr. Byrd is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Byrd, of Ronda, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Byrd are at home to their friends at the home of the groom's parents at Ronda.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Johnson Celebrate their Golden Wedding

An unusual affair was celebrated at the home of Mrs. C. W. Cummings on Christmas Day when she honored her father and grandparents with an elaborate dinner. The occasion was in honor of the wedding anniversary of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Johnson, better known to their many friends as Uncle Sam and Aunt Molly. But the part making the affair of unusual interest was that it was also the birthday of their only son, York Johnson, father of Mrs. Cummings and the event was included in the celebration.

The dinner was enjoyed by the family and a few close friends.

The many friends of Uncle Sam and Aunt Molly join in wishing them health and happiness this New Year, and also wishing the son many more happy birthdays.

Lowery-Walker

A wedding of much interest to the friends of the bride was the wedding of Miss Marguerite Lowery, of Elkin, to Mr. Robert Walker, of Mooresville, which was solemnized on December 19th at the Baptist pastorium in Elkin, with Rev. Eph Whisenhunt officiating.

The bride is the popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lowery, of West Elkin, and is a graduate of the Elkin high school, with the class of '32. She was an officer of the Lucy Hanes Chatham Club and was one of the first members of this organization in Elkin. She has a host of friends who will be interested in her happiness. She is employed in the Burling department of the Elkin plant.

Mr. Walker is from Mooresville, N. C., and is employed in the Mooresville Cotton Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker are making their home for the present at the home of the bride's parents on Elk Spur street, Elkin.

IN MEMORIAM

Effie Evelyn Owen Pruitt was born July 6th, 1886 and departed this life December 16, 1934, age 48 years, 5 months and 10 days.

She was married in 1904 to Glenn Pruitt. To this union were born four children, Lonnie B., Earnest C., Bobby G., who is a senior at N. C. State College, and Roger W., all of Elkin.

She was born near Thurmond, Surry County, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joe Owen.

In girlhood she united with White Rock Methodist church and remained a member until death.

Funeral services were conducted from the home in Jonesville by Rev. E. W. Fox, of the M. E. church, assisted by Rev. J. T. Murray of Winston-Salem. Interment was in the Owen's cemetery, near Thurmond.

Surviving are four children; two sisters, Mrs. Bruce Lewis, of Winston-Salem and Mrs. Clytie Wiggins, also of Winston-Salem; three brothers, C. F. Owen, of Elkin; B. A. Owen, of Walnut Cove, and Alex A. Owen, of Washington, D. C.

Sidney Hudspeth, Jr., Hurt By Automobile

Sidney Hudspeth, Jr., young son of S. T. Hudspeth, sustained a fractured collar bone in addition to numerous bruises and flesh lacerations when he was struck and knocked to the hard surface on the highway in North Elkin by an automobile operated by Blaine Warren, local automobile salesman.

The lad is resting fairly comfortably in the local hospital, his injuries not being regarded serious.

The mishap was described as unavoidable on the part of Mr. Warren, the lad stepping into the road directly in the path of the car at an unexpected moment.

WHAT GOD GIVES A CLUB GIRL

A body to keep clean, healthy and strong, as a dwelling for the mind and a temple for the soul.

A pair of hands to use in bringing happiness to others and to herself.

A pair of feet to do errands of love and kindness, but not to loiter in places of mischief.

A pair of lips to speak true, kind, brave words.

A pair of ears to hear the music of the birds and the trees and the human voice, but not give heed to what injures others and dishonors God.

A pair of eyes to see all the interesting and beautiful sights in the world about her.

A mind to train in thinking pure thoughts and planning a useful life.

A heart to love all that is beautiful in people, especially those at home and school and church.

ANOTHER YEAR

Another year is dawning!

Dear Master, let it be,
 In working or in waiting,
 Another year with Thee.

Another year of leaning
 Upon Thy loving breast,
 Of ever deepening trustfulness,
 Of quiet, happy rest.

Another year of mercies,
 Of faithfulness and grace;
 Another year of gladness
 In the shining of Thy face.

Another year of progress,
 Another year of praise;
 Another year of proving
 Thy presence all the days.

Another year of service,
 Of witness for Thy love;
 Another year of training
 For holier work above.

Another year a-dawning!
 Dear Master, let it be,
 On earth, or else in heaven,
 Another year for Thee.

—Frances Ridley Havergal.