

The Chatham Blanketeer

Editor-in-Chief.....Claudia Austin
 Assistant { Hoyt T. Hambright
 Editors..... { A. R. Plaster
 Circulation { R. G. Chatham, Jr.
 Managers..... { Stauber Flynt
 Chief Reporter.....John Sagar
 Club Reporters..... { Leona Darnell
 { Bessie Gilliam
 { Madie Austin
 Weaving.....Catherine Brannon
 Spinning & Carding
 Pauline Morrison
 Shop, Dye & Power Plant
 Elizabeth Underwood
 Spooling & Burling.....Fay Reavis
 Wool Dept.....Pauline Masten
 Napping & Wash Room
 Dorothy Norman
 Finishing Dept.....Hallie Ball
 Shipping Dept.....Margaret Taylor
 Night Force.....Earl Conrad
 Old Mill.....Sherman Newman
 Winston Office.....Roxie Bowen
 Elkin Office...Marjorie Greenwood

L. H. C. Club of Elkin

L. H. C. Club No. 1

The R. B. L. Book Club entertained the L. H. C. Club No. 1 on Thursday night, March 7th, with an interesting program. Attractive program booklets were given out containing an outline of the following program:

Club song; Devotional, in charge of Mary Etta Laffoon, following which a short business session was held. Two clever stunts were presented by members of the Book Club. Dr. J. G. Abernethy was the guest speaker and used as his subject "Reading Better Literature." This proved very helpful and instructive. The meeting closed with the singing of the club song. Each member brought something for the kitchen at this meeting.

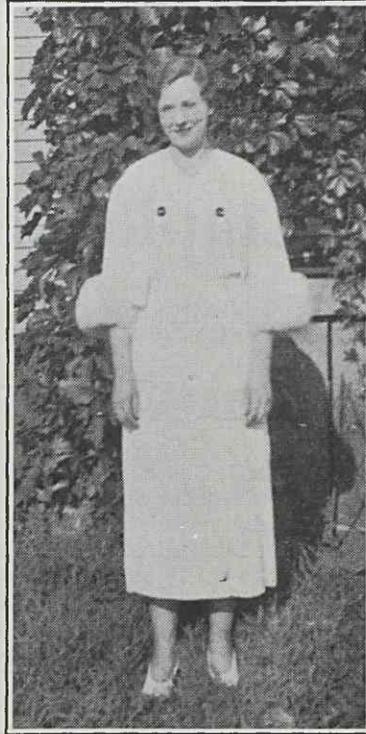

At the meeting of the club held at the club house on March 14th an old fashioned sewing circle was held, each member bringing a tea towel which she hemmed and gave to the club house kitchen.

Reports were heard from the oyster stew given on Wednesday night which were favorable. It was decided to have something of this kind often, since the employees have no way of getting a hot supper.

L. H. C. Club No. 2

The L. H. C. No. 2 met at the clubhouse on Thursday, at which time an interesting program was enjoyed under the direction of the president, Bessie Gilliam. At this time the following new members were added to the roll: Blanche Ross, Fannie Talley, Margaret Lyons, Louise Yarboro,

Lovely Bride

Mrs. Z. V. Cash, who before her wedding March 9, was Miss Venie Lou Reynolds, attractive daughter of Mrs. J. E. Reynolds, of Sparta.

Florence Scott, Bessie Layell, Lizzie Mathis, Clyde Shugart and Cora Oliver. The membership contest closed with Thursday's meeting and Mrs. Beatrice Willard was declared the winner. A new project has been started to raise money to buy a piece of furniture for the clubhouse. The members are having a lot of fun with this, as well as making quite a bit of money to be added to the present treasury. Following the Bible lesson taught by our leader, the meeting came to a close with the club benediction.

The report of the welfare committee for February is as follows: Club members visited, 6; cards sent to sick, 8; 1 basket of fruit and one funeral spray.

A very interesting feature of the first spring month was a lovely party given at the clubhouse on Saturday night, March 2nd, by the president of the club, Mrs. D. C. Gilliam, in honor of the members, their husbands and boy friends. Games and contests called "Progressive Kitchen" were enjoyed. The color motif of green and white was carried out in detail. Noah Darnell, Nettie Couch and Gwyn Bauguss won attractive prizes for their skill in the contests. The party came to a close with the serving of a delicious ice course, served by Mrs. Gilliam, assisted by Mrs. Myrtle Martin. Additional guests included Mr. and Mrs. Noah Darnell and Miss Claudia Austin.

Cash-Reynolds

A wedding of much interest to the friends of the young couple was the marriage of Miss Venie Lou Reynolds to Zeb Vance Cash which was solemnized on Saturday morning, March 9th, in Martinsville, Va., with Rev. Charles M. Wales, of the Broad Street Christian church, officiating.

The bride wore for her nuptials a suit of navy blue with white accessories. Mrs. Cash is the daughter of Mrs. J. E. Reynolds of Sparta, and was employed in the Napping department of the Winston mill for over a year.

Mr. Cash is the son of Mrs. Elizabeth Cash and the late Mr. Cash, of the Union Grove community. He is a graduate of the Union Grove high school with the class of '34 and is employed on the night force of the Winston mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Cash are at home to their friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Newman on Chatham Heights.

Transou-Lawrence

Coming as an interesting surprise to friends of the young couple is the announcement of the marriage on Saturday afternoon of Miss Opal Lawrence to William Wellborn Transou, both of Elkin. The nuptial ceremony was quietly solemnized in Independence, Va., with the Rev Mr. Frank officiating.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lawrence, of North Elkin, and is a popular member of the younger social set. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Horton D. Transou, of West Main street and holds a position with the Elkin mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Transou are now at home to their friends at the home of the former's parents in West Elkin.

Mrs. Madison Entertains

Mr. and Mrs. Hub Madison entertained at their home last Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. Madison's brother, Tommy Cooper of Pennsylvania. St. Patrick's Day motif was carried out in detail. Games and contests were enjoyed with the following receiving prizes for their skill: Miss Lalia White, Lytle Osborne and Frank Tubert.

Delicious refreshments were served to the sixteen guests present.

BETTER BLANKETS

Sometime ago the importance of doing efficient work so bore upon my mind,

That I wrote a poem to the Blanketeer along that line.

I realize that the gist of my poem is coming to pass,

As we are making blankets now of a much better class.

We have quality men now both day and night,

Just to see that the work is all done right.

If they find that bad filling is being spun,

Right then an investigation has begun,

As soon as the card that run it is found,

They proceed at once to shut it down.

If they find filling that is running heavy or light,

They get busy at once and get it right.

If bad filling is found at a loom Right then and there it has met its doom.

We also have filling inspectors that examine it again,

When the filling haulers bring it in.

If it is alright in every way, They give their approval by the mark "O.K."

This is the best move the company has made,

To make blankets of a higher grade.

The trade now demands the very best,

So we must make blankets that will stand the test.

Chatham Homespun is made in the same efficient way,

Therefore among the dressy people is taking the day.

If it is an up-to-date suit they want to buy.

Chatham Homespun will catch their eye.

—T. VERN COCKERHAM

Funeral Is Held For Mrs. Smitherman

Funeral services were conducted for Mrs. Flora Livingood Smitherman, 36, wife of J. A. Smitherman, who passed away Friday from her home in Southfork township, near Hanestown, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. E. W. Needham, pastor of the Mount Tabor Methodist church, conducted the services and interment followed in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were Ralph Carter, Charlie Binkley, Willie Smitherman, Cecil Norman, Delmar Norman and Herbert Livingood.

Mrs. Smitherman left to mourn her loss a husband, six children, a mother and father and several brothers and sisters.

After all, Mr. Roosevelt is asking nothing more but that hereafter securities be wrapped in celophane.