

Spring, in all its glorious beauty, has been caught by the camera in this attractive photograph. A beautiful country home, situated amid spacious grounds, and surrounded by giant Bridal Wreath and Hawthorne, with huge oaks, ages old, lending courage to all growing things. In the distance the Yadkin river, winding among the hills, sings in its murmuring trek to the sea.—Photo by W. F. Burgiss.