

AROUND THE MILL

NAPPING DEPT.

B Shift

We have all been expressing our vacation wishes tonight and it seems that the mountains have it.

Naomi Wooten, two weeks at Lover's Leap. The leap is coming from California soon.

Mildred Smitherman at Wild Cat Mountain.

Jack Boose, one and one-half weeks at Rural Hall.

Sallie Ball, a few days on Brushy Mountain. (The peaches are all gone, Sallie.)

Ralph Gough, from now on at Brooks Cross Roads.

Fred Hensley, two weeks at Grandfather Mountain. Our best wishes for a much needed rest, Grandpa Fred.

Elsie Tuttle, one week at (Sour) Town Mountain.

Ruby Swaim, one week-end on Happy Hill.

Em Brown, two weeks at Cow Pen, N. C. (Em likes plenty of milk.)

Sam Luper, one day at Rabbit Holler.

Page Brandon has gone on his vacation. He told us he was going to Canada. But, think he is down at Virginia Beach, checking up on the Book Stores. (ABC.)

Hubert Adams, in the valley of the moon. Hubert, would you ever come back?

Polly Gentry, a week-end at Healing Springs. Is it to heal a broken heart, Polly?

I'll take one any place, just so it is cool and they have plenty to eat.—Mae Shoaf.

We wish for those on our sick list a speedy recovery—Glenn Martin, Tommy Bates and Charlie Butner.

We see our old friend, Luther Hanks, is back on his old job at the gate. I'll guarantee you had better know the pass word to get by him.

BURLING

Monday morning is a fine time to write for the Blanketeer. Everyone seems eager to tell just where they went and what happened. (Tip to other reporters.)

Everyone is happy but Marjorie and she has the "blues."

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Newman spent Sunday at Hollywood Lake.

Mrs. Mac Anthony and son, Staley, visited Mr. and Mrs. Carson Freeman Sunday.

Marguerite Walker and son, Bobby, visited her brother, A. V. Lowery, who is a patient at the hospital in Salisbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ray had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Jim Myers and family and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Myers.

Edith Johnson had as her guest last week, her cousin, Bettie Lou Johnson, of North Wilkesboro.

Mr. Preston Haynes and children, of Grassy Creek, visited Mrs. Maggie Myers recently.

Misses Evelyn Lyone and Juanita Bradford, of Winston-Salem, spent last week the guests of Misses Marjorie and Claudia Key.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brown had as their Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. John Myers and Mr. and Mrs. Jones, of Winston-Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard York and Mr. and Mrs. Earl York motored to Statesville Sunday.

Mrs. Guy Myers and children attended the birthday dinner of Mrs. Frank Foster, of North Wilkesboro, Sunday.

Mrs. Ruby Vestal and children spent Sunday in Lansing, N. C., visiting.

Mr. Dewey Myers and Miss Lucy Myers, of Mullins, S. C., spent the week-end with Miss Huzie Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Reeves and daughter, Nancy, of Statesville, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Vestal and daughter, Brenda Ann, were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Vestal.

Mr. and Mrs. Gwyn Martin spent Sunday with the former's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dobbins and children, of Swan Creek, were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Wilkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Freeman spent Saturday in Winston-Salem shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sprinkle, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Chappel, Mrs. Tom Parker and children, Mrs. J. B. Chapman and Miss Ollie Chapman attended the Chapman reunion in Taylorsville recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Felts spent Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. Rufus Felts.

Huzie spent Saturday afternoon in Winston-Salem. Who was the boy friend, Huzie?

We are glad to have Elizabeth Brown back after a few weeks illness.

We have on our sick list, Mrs. Walter Burgiss, Mrs. A. Dockery, Mrs. Laura Hemric and Miss Mозelle Freeman. We wish for them a speedy recovery.

Anyone wishing to buy a good bird dog see Ruby Vestal. They have a small family of twelve pups.

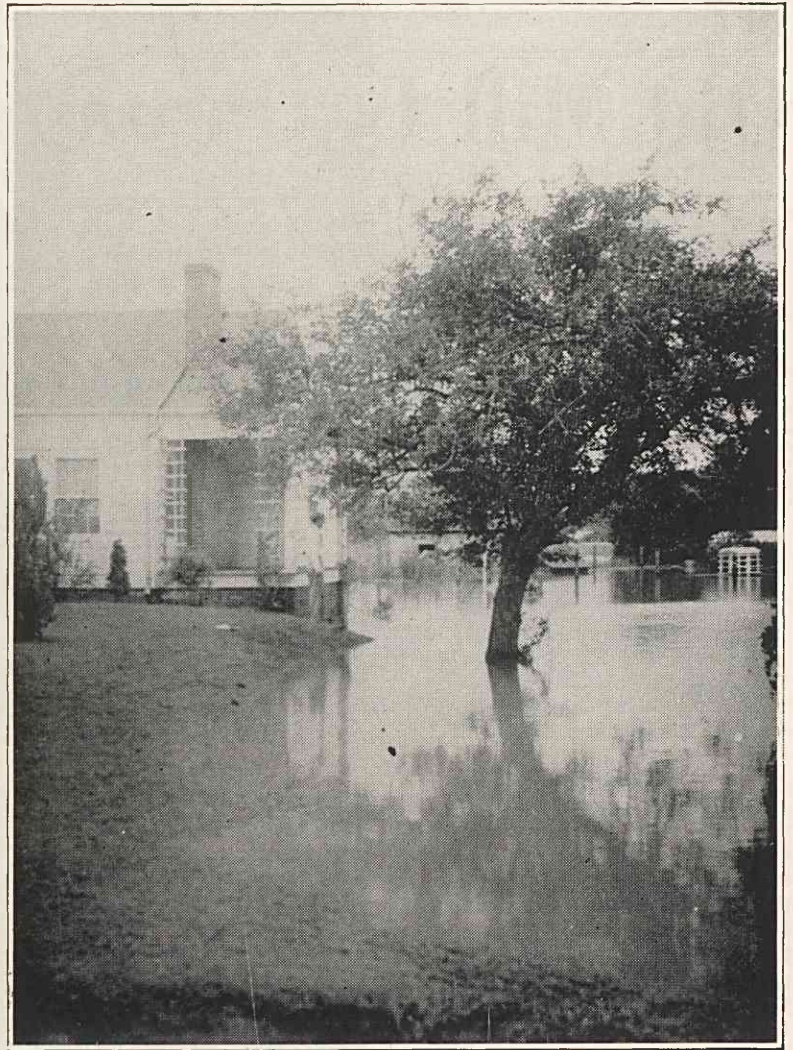

SPINNING DEPT.

B Shift

We welcome Charlie Owens and Howard Blackburn to this department.

Miss Dorothy Hutchens, who is attending business college in High Point, spent the week-end

Flood Reaches Front Yard

The home of Clyde Minnish, on highway 67, narrowly escaped the flood, the yellow waters coming up in his yard to reach the front porch. Clyde can be seen near the porch as he watched the water rise.

here the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hutchins, of West Elkin.

Miss Louise Boles, of Winston-Salem, was the Thursday guest of Mrs. Frieda Billings.

Lester Luffman and family and Mr. T. C. Walsh spent Sunday in North Wilkesboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Bumgarner and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Osborne spent Sunday sight-seeing on the scenic highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bryant attended a dinner at Arbor Grove Baptist church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ingram and family spent Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vestal.

If you want to buy a dog, see Rob Rollins.

Walt Bryant and family attended church at Arbor Grove Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shoemaker and Mrs. Elmer Spann went on a picnic to Pilot Mountain Sunday.

Wendell Willkie and Juanita Billings Osborne were born in the same town, Elwood, Ind.

Paul Wood says if Willkie is as mischievous as Juanita that he is afraid he won't make a very good president. Juanita says she and Harvey will be in Elwood for "Willkie Day," Saturday, August 17th.

Johnnie Keaver says he has news, but is keeping it all to himself. How selfish, John.

Beulah Whitaker says she spent the past Sunday "at rest."

Heat Exhaustion

Signs: Pallor; cold, moist skin; rapid, shallow breathing; weak pulse. The body temperature may be subnormal or slightly elevated. The patient is usually unconscious. Treatment: Call a doctor. Lay the patient in a cool, quiet place, in a reclining position. Loosen his clothing. Keep him warm with a hot water bottle, blankets, or other means. If conscious, give a stimulant; tea, coffee, or aromatic spirits of ammonia (one teaspoonful in one-half glass of water.)