

Ecusta Bowling Team Now In Second Place

Ecusta Team Bowls In Tri-City League

DEFEATED R & A IN WNC LEAGUE TUESDAY NIGHT

Jack Albert Had Highest Set Of Season For The Times Team

Ecusta's Bowling Team in the WNC League really means business. Last Tuesday evening, the team did some beautiful bowling and swamped the strong Reed and team of Asheville three games to none. These wins placed the Ecusta team in second place, one game behind the leading Enka team. Enka has a record of 10 wins and 2 losses while Ecusta has 3 &

Also last Tuesday evening, Jack Albert, captain of The Transylvania Times Team of the same league bowled a score of 666 with averages of 230, 230, and 216. Nice work, Buck!

Averages are as follows: Galloway, 177; Reynolds, 175; Rogers, 174; Colwell, 169; Straus, 168.

What Is A Boy?

After a male baby has grown out of long clothes and triangles and acquired pants, freckles, and so much dirt that relatives do not kiss it between meals it becomes a BOY.

A boy can swim like a fish, run like a deer, climb like a squirrel, bellow like a mule, eat like a pig, act like a jack-rabbit according to climatic conditions.

He is a piece of skin stretched over an appetite. A noise, covered with smudges.

He is called a tornado because he comes at the most unexpected moment, hits the most unexpected place, and leaves everything a wreck behind him.

He is a growing animal of suggestive promises, to be fed and reared and kept warm.

He is a joy forever, a periodic nuisance, the problem of our times, the hope of a nation. Every boy has evidence that God is not disgraced by man.

Were it not for boys, the newspapers would go unread, and a picture shows would go unprinted.

Boys are useful in running errands. A boy can easily do the family errands with the aid of five or six adults. The zest with which a boy does an errand is equalled only by the speed of a turtle on a July day.

The boy is a natural spectator. He watches parades, fires, fights, games, automobiles, boats, and planes with equal fervor, but never on the clock.

Boys faithfully imitate their parents in spite of all efforts to teach good manners.

A boy, if not washed too often and kept in a cool quiet place, will survive each accident, will survive broken bones, hornets, swimming pools, fights and nine helpings of clerk: "Poor old Watkins has lost his hearing. I'm afraid it may be his job."

clerk: "Nonsense. The management is transferring him to the complaint department."

Football Tickets Arrive

The athletic department announces that the Alabama-Tennessee football tickets have arrived and are now ready to be issued to the employees who signed up several months ago for the Knoxville trip. Since the tickets are here and the transportation contract has been completed, the department officials are anxious to complete final plans for the trip. All persons whose names were placed on the list are asked to contact Jack Alexander in the library at the earliest possible moment. Total expenses per person are as follows: tickets, $3.00, transportation, $3.50 for round trip. The deadline to pick up tickets will be October 7. At that time, those persons next in line for reservations will be given an opportunity to make the trip, it is stated.

Safety is free—are you getting your share.

"Please give a shilling to the Lord?" begged a Salvation girl of an aged Scot.

"And 'ow auld are ye, Lassie?" he asked.

"Eighteen, sir."

"Well, Lassie, I'm past 80. I'll be seein' 'm afore ye so I'll give it to him meself."

He had had a few, and drove his car smack into a telephone pole, bringing down pole, wire and all. He was found unconscious in the wreckage but, as he was being extricated, he reached out feebly, fingered the wires and murmured: "Thank heaven I've lived a clean life . . . they've given me a harp."
