

News And Gossip From Our Various Departments

Plant Research

By DONNA WRIGHT

We certainly miss Mr. Fisher who has recently had the misfortune of breaking several ribs. All of us are looking forward to the time when he can come back to work with us.

Mr. Vannah spent his vacation at Friendship, Maine again this year. Friendship is his home town and he said he really enjoyed his visit there this year.

Gee, I bet Lillie will come to work one of these days with a blistered back, as she is spending a few days at Fort Pierce, Fla. Everyone hopes she will bring all of us a souvenir.

I really don't know anything to say about Dr. Ray and Jack; but since their youngsters are just learning to talk, maybe we can get the "low down" on those two fellows.

Congratulations, Dr. Whitney, on the arrival of your little son, David Charles.

Inspection News

Reporters, Smith and Matthews

Another month has rolled around and it's time to gossip again.

Farmer is back at work after spending a very enjoyable vacation in Virginia.

We can't seem to find out how Jack B. broke some ribs, but glad they'll soon be O.K.

Roy H. has a vacation coming up soon, and he says he's "getting nervous in the service." We wonder why?

Robert Jennings has moved into his new home now. When are we going to be invited to see it, and have dinner?

John S. is on his vacation and a thirty days' leave of absence, going to Washington or Hollywood, Calif.—we're not sure which.

Myrtle M. reports having a swell time at the Pink Beds Friday night. She says string music sounds wonderful up there.

Louise M. has moved to Pisgah Forest and is now a neighbor of Bessie Cheek.

Wanda is making plans for her vacation at Carolina Beach. Have a swell time, but remember sunburns are not fun.

We are sorry to hear that Myrtle G.'s boy and mother are sick. Hope they both will be well soon.

We want to welcome Jack B. to our shift.

Edith, hurry up and get well and back to work—we miss you.

Lawrence W. says he enjoyed his vacation, hauling and helping can peaches.

Doyle, when are you going to have another front seat put in your car? Those girls get tired of sitting on the floor.

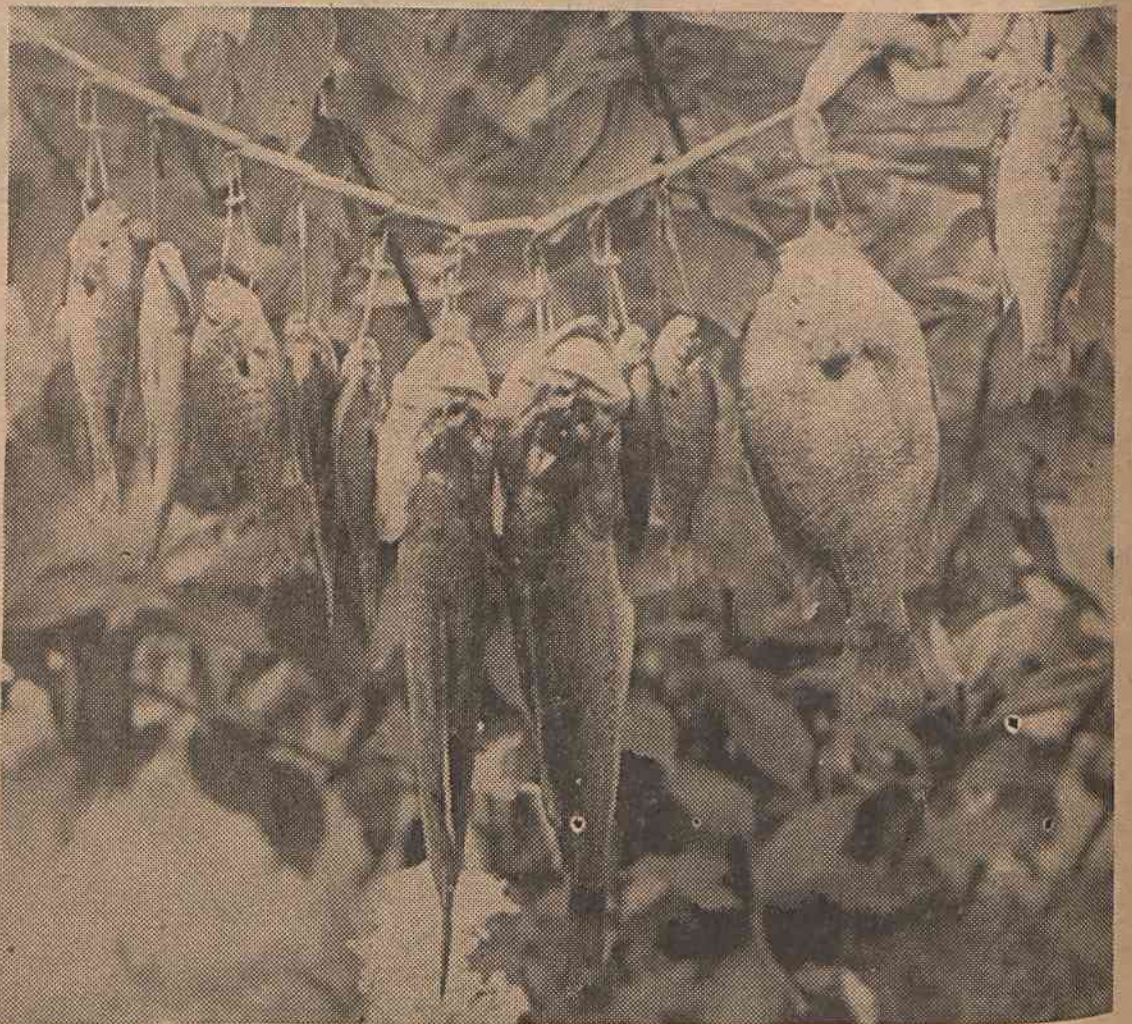

Appless had a sad trip to Greenville the other night. No wonder, though,—a boy friend gone for two years.

Russell M. seems to be well pleased since John S. is gone, as he doesn't have so much competition now.

Mike M. says he hopes how soon he can get his car out of the garage. This walking and going to the movies is getting monotonous.

Guess this is all the gossip for this time.

Here's Actual Proof That Fishing Is Good At Lake Sapphire

This fine string of fish was recently caught at Lake Sapphire. It includes two bass and several brim. One brim was over 10 inches long, one of the largest ever caught in this section. These fish were caught by Mrs. R. F. Bennett and Wayne Conn. Many Ecustans have already taken advantage of the limited fishing privileges and several have reported good catches.

Finishing Dept. News (Third Shift)

JESSIE MAE CLAMPITT

Quite a few on our shift are taking their vacations. Iva Lee, Ruth and Dovie all reported a wonderful time.

We all miss Ella and Mary. And we hope their father will be better soon and they will be back at work.

That's a lovely picture of you in the Gate House, Chris. Christine is the "Miss Finishing" who is entered in the popularity contest for "Miss Ecusta." Here's wishing you luck, Chris.

Tell us, Ola, is it really getting serious? I notice you've been trying on rings. Is it for size, by any chance?

Lois really has been flashing sunny smiles around lately. I wonder, could it be that certain sailor who just recently got a discharge?

We'll miss Ruth, Donna and Bobby. But they say they just have to try day shift for awhile. Hurry back, girls.

Cameron Houk and General Bradley have gone off graveyard. But I hear they are ready to come back.

Leona seems very happy about something. Could it be because that certain guy has a new Plymouth and is coming to Brevard this week end? Tell us, Leona, is it the new car, or the boy?

How's the driving lesson coming along, Nita? You sure seemed interested in your teacher.

Why not show the picture you had made square dancing, Frosty? It may land you a movie contract. Congratulations, Atlas! Why didn't you give us a little warning that you were going to get married? Atlas and his new bride are making their home in Etowah. We all hope they'll be very happy.

Joyce, Margaret and Marie seem to be missing work for some reason. They say it's going to church. I wonder!

Girls, you should try graveyard. Lillian tells us the week ends are mighty grand for picnics.

Herschel and family are taking a vacation in Georgia with his parents and other relatives.

Alta, what's the big idea of having your car washed every day? Let us in on the secret.

Mary Martha, whom did I see you flying with the other day? You looked mighty happy. All I can say is "Happy Landing!"

Chemical Lab. News

By ANNA M. HOLLIDAY

The Chemical Lab members are enjoying a series of vacations. Ricie is vacationing in Wilmington. Edith is home in Charlotte, but we hear she has company from Pennsylvania. Punchy and Gloria are vacationing—or is it a honeymoon? Dr. Sigmon and Wilkie are away, but we have no reports.

Johnson is suffering from a sunburn which she claims was from "honest labor"—weeding her garden on Sunday.

Questions of the month: "Does 'Corosive' go to the movies to see the picture, or to learn the new jitterburg steps? When does Gus sleep—day or night?"

Lost: one black and white cocker spaniel puppy. Answers to the name of "Chippy." Finder please notify Thelma Glazener.

All of us were sorry to hear of Marietta's emergency operation

Pulp Mill News

By HELEN KIMZEY

News is very scarce in the Pulp Mill this month, but the cigars sure have been floating around. Four of our men, Karl Kilpatrick, Harold Orr, D. S. Winchester and Boyd Meixell are proud fathers.

Harold Fouts spends part of his vacation in the hills above Franklin resting and fishing. He reported that fishing was very good.

Lawrence Tipton has taken off for a couple of weeks to see the country and have a little rest, which he says did not come any too soon.

We wish to extend our sympathy to Chester Cagle in the recent death of his father-in-law, Mr. Searcy.

Maurice Paxton reported an enjoyable trip to Washington, D. C., while on vacation.

Congratulations to "Rusty" Reese and his bride. Mrs. Reese was Miss June Langley of Hendersonville. They are making their home on Maple street in Brevard.

Everyone wondered why Otto didn't work last Sunday, and we've since found out it was his birthday. No wonder he didn't come in. Guess he knows how cold that water in the beaters is.

We're very proud of the Pulp Mill softball team. They're the champions of the season.

and wish her a speedy recovery.

We hear that Cindy attended the horse show in Hendersonville. We wonder whether the interest was in the horses, or in her companion?

Doyle has found a new way to sleep on graveyard—at least for fifteen minutes at a time.
