

Feminine News-Views

Eleanor King Weds Lawrence Dixon, Jr.

In a beautiful ceremony at the St. Philip's Episcopal church in Brevard Saturday afternoon, October 5 at 4:00 o'clock, Miss Eleanor Rebecca King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. King, became the bride of Lawrence F. Dixon, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Dixon, Sr., of Pisgah Forest. The Rev. John Seagle of Hendersonville, cousin of the bride officiated.

The background for the nuptial vows was formed by floor baskets of white chrysanthemums and gladioli, arranged before a background of palms and candelabra holding white tapers. Bouquets of white flowers tied with white satin ribbon marked the pews.

Mrs. Melvin Gillespie, pianist, and Mrs. Harry Bobst, vocalist, presented a program of wedding music.

The bride who entered the church with her father, Frank C. King, wore a white duchess satin gown, with a high neckline, a floor length skirt, and long pointed sleeves trimmed with tiny covered satin buttons. Her fingertip veil of white illusion was worn with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid and showered with lace streamers.

Caroline L. King, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The groom's best man was his father, Lawrence F. Dixon, Sr., and ushers were William McK. Fetzer of Brevard, Ray Winchester of Rosman, Lonnie Jones of Brevard, and William Morris of Pisgah Forest.

Mrs. Dixon is a graduate of Brevard high school and attended Brevard college. The bridegroom was graduated from Brevard high school and attended Brevard and Wake Forest colleges. He is now employed at Ecusta.

Reception Held

Immediately following the ceremony, an informal reception was held at the home of Mrs. Carl McCrary, aunt of the bride.

Following the reception, the couple left for a wedding trip through Georgia and the coast of North Carolina. They will make their home at Pisgah Forest on their return.

Now Is The Time To:

- Play.
- Gather nuts.
- Read Psalm 121.
- Fatten that porker.
- See the football games.
- Do your Christmas shopping.
- Get in trim for bowling.
- Watch your bonfire closely.
- Invite friends for an oyster supper.
- Plant bulbs of tulip, crocus, daffodil.
- Make a jack-o-lantern for the youngsters.

FAIR TRADE

The minister had just finished with the wedding ceremony when the groom, a plumber, moved over to him and said in a low whisper, "I'm sorry, parson, I haven't any money, but I can stop your gas meter from registering."

October Bride

MRS. LAWRENCE FITCH DIXON, JR., was Miss Eleanor Rebecca King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank King, of Brevard, before her marriage, October 5.

It's Etiquette

Courtesy in speech as well as in deed is one of the first requisites of a happy home and an enjoyable business life. The words "thank you" cost little but mean much. Shouting at long range is disturbing to others, and it has actually been declared a matter of health that table conversations be maintained on a pleasant plane.

Benjamin Franklin says in his autobiography, "My father liked to have at the table some sensible neighbor or friends to converse with, and always took care to start some ingenious or useful topic of discourse. By this means he turned our attention to what was good, just and prudent."

Complaints about today's high living costs and meat shortages do not make the best dinner conversation when so many pleasant topics are well within our grasp.

Recent Bride

MRS. SID BARNETT, JR., above, was Miss Elizabeth Carter, daughter of Mrs. Hester L. Carter, of Pisgah Forest, before her marriage at the First Baptist church in Clayton, Ga., Sunday, September 8th. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Barnett, also of Pisgah Forest. Mrs. Barnett has been with Ecusta since 1940.

ANECDOTES

LONG STRETCH IN KITCHEN

The wife of a Dakota farmer, whose home was isolated in the midst of a vast prairie, suddenly lost her reason, and was bundled into a straight-jacket and into the nearest asylum. "Now what do you suppose could 'a went wrong with the old woman," lamented the puzzled husband to the asylum attendant. "Why, man alive, she ain't been out o' the kitchen for 20 years!"

GUESTS OF THOMAS A. EDISON PUMPED WATER FOR GENIUS

Thomas A. Edison had a very beautiful summer home in which he took great pride. One day he was showing his guests about the premises, pointing out the various labor-saving devices. Turning back toward the house, the guests found that it was necessary to pass through a turnstile which took considerable force to turn. "Mr. Edison," asked one of his guests, "how is it that with all these modern things around, you still maintain such a heavy turnstile?" Said Edison, his eyes lighting up with laughter, "Well, you see, everyone who pushes the turnstile around, pumps eight gallons of water into the tank on my roof."

RADCLIFFE DEAN THWARTED

Dean Briggs was once one of the speakers at a formal banquet at Radcliffe college. In preparation for the event, the chairs had been given a coat of varnish. The evening was hot and humid, and, as the speakers rose to deliver their remarks, it was with some difficulty. The dean was more than equal to the occasion. "Ladies and gentlemen," he said, with a rueful backward glance, "I had expected to bring you this evening a plain and unvarnished tale, but circumstances make it impossible to fulfill my intentions.

Haste makes waste—Running is dangerous.

Mr. and Mrs. Glennard Corn wish to make a belated announcement of their daughter, Barbara Ann; she was born August 2. The father is employed in the Finishing department.

Little James Rodney Franks was born to Mr. and Mrs. James D. Franks, September 21. Mr. Franks is also a Finishing Department employee.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Callender announce the birth of a daughter, Sandra Faye. Sandra Faye was born Saturday October 19; her father works in the Machine Room.

A daughter, Loretta Gale, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Owen October 15, at the Transylvania Community hospital. The young lady weighed eight pounds at birth; her father works "D" shift in the Refining Room.

A son, John Thomas Taylor, was born to Mr. and Mrs. DeLeon G. Taylor, October 12. The father is employed in Ecusta's Inspection department.

Spencer Morgan Macfie, 3rd, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Spencer M. Macfie, Jr., October 12th. The young son weighed 8½ lbs. The father works in the Pulp Mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Waldrop have announced the birth of a daughter, Mildred Ann, September 14th in the General hospital, Greenville, S. C. The little daughter weighed 7 pounds and 10 ounces. The "proud papa" works in the Pulp Mill.

Little John Andrew Gosnell was born to Mr. and Mrs. Woodfin Gosnell at the Transylvania Community hospital, September 29th. Mr. Gosnell is an Inspection department employee.

Mr. Arnold Anders, a cafeteria employee, and Mrs. Anders have announced the arrival of Larry Monroe, on September 6 at the Transylvania Community hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Frady announce the birth of a son, Lewis Everett, weighing eight pounds. The baby's birthday is September 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Goodson welcome a son, Rex Floyd, to their home. Weighing 9 pounds, he was born on October 1.

(Continued On Page Eleven)