

Let's Go To Sapphire!

Free Transportation To And From Camp Sapphire

Below is a map showing the route of the bus which will transport Ecusta children to and from their activities at Camp Sapphire this summer. As shown in the map, the Goodwill Motor Company is the starting point. From there, the bus progresses to the following streets: Miner, Rice, E. Main, Parkview Drive, Franklin Ave., back to Main, and on to Probart and Whitmire, then to Camp Sapphire. The bus will start on its route at 9 a. m. and will follow the same route for all three of the children's activities at Camp Sapphire. There will be no cost for this transportation.

Here's Your Last Minute Information On Camp Sapphire Children's Programs

COACHING SCHOOL

This is a well-rounded program of sports and recreation for boys of Ecusta people between the ages of 7 and 14. First session will be held Monday morning, June 9, and the school will continue on Mondays, Wednesday, and Fridays from 9:30 a. m. until 12:30 p. m. until July 21. With the successful completion of the program, the boys will receive a Camp Sapphire felt emblem similar to the letters which are presented in high school and college.

Athletic Director Jack Alexander, with the aid of Charlie Russell, Bill Fetzter, and others, will direct the school. In addition to the sports instruction, there will be informal talks on farming, safety, and similar subjects.

Response to the Coaching School has been favorable and a large number of youngsters is expected to be on hand for the first session Monday, June 9.

GIRLS' RECREATION PROGRAM

One day later, on Tuesday, June 10, from 9:30 a. m. until noon the girls will assemble for the girls' choral and recreation program under the direction of John Eversman and the recreation staff. Sessions will be held on Tuesday and the activities will continue until July 31.

A full program of activities has been prepared including choral and singing and studies of music and musicians. Opportunities for the study of nature, art, and other similar activities are being arranged as well as a full program of recreation.

BAND CAMP

Members of the Ecusta band will be in session three mornings weekly—Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9:30 a. m. until 5:30 p. m. The camp will open on June 2 and will end August 3.
