

Beneficiary On Group Insurance Policy Should Be Checked

How long has it been since you looked over your Group insurance certificate? DO YOU KNOW WHERE IT IS?

Are you sure the person named as beneficiary is the one you wish to receive your Group Life insurance should anything happen to you? And, do you know just what protection your Group certificate provides?

There's no time like the present to answer these questions. If you've got your Group insurance certificate in "moth balls," better get it out now; read it over thoroughly — specially check the beneficiary for your life insurance. Maybe you can't locate your certificate. We hope that's not the case, but if it is, notify the Personnel department immediately.

Make certain you want the person named as beneficiary on your Group life insurance certificate to get the money if anything happens to you. Has your beneficiary changed his or her name? Has the person named by you as beneficiary died? Any of these things can mean that your Group insurance certificate needs changing.

Visit the Personnel department and make certain that your certificate is up to date. By taking care of such changes now, you will help to eliminate possible delay or confusion at some time in the future.

And while you are looking over your certificate, reflect for a moment on some of its advantages. It's really an investment in satisfaction, security, and peace of mind that challenges an estimate. You'll get a real sense of satisfaction when you see how important your Group Life insurance fits into your plans for the security of your family—how well it serves as a source of immediate funds should the unexpected happen.

Veterans Have Until Aug. 1st To Reinstate Service Insurance

Since the beginning of the Veterans Administration's nationwide NSLI information program on February 3, applications have been received to reinstate 403,510 lapsed policies valued at $2,520,064,500.

More than 10,000,000 veterans still have not reinstated their lapsed policies. You have until August first to file application under the liberal plan now in effect.

You may reinstate your policy by submitting an application in which you must show that your health is as good as when the policy lapsed. The insurance will then be reinstated upon the payment of two month's premiums.

After August first, you will be required to pass a physical examination if your policy has been lapsed for three or more months.

There is no penalty or additional cost involved in the reinstatement of lapsed NSLI term policies, regardless of the length of time the insurance has been lapsed.

One of the two monthly premiums paid is for the 31-day grace period following the lapse when you received full insurance protection even though you actually paid no premium. The other monthly premium covers the insurance month during which the reinstatement was effected.

Application forms and aid in

"High On A Hilltop" Suits The Morrows

About five miles out on the Greenville highway, if you will take a look up to the left, you will see the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eb Morrow. The house is constructed of rock and presents a beautiful scene from the highway. Eb even has his own reservoir and supplies water for eight other homes in their community. The Morrows have three children, including a set of twin boys. Eb is a meterman in the Power department.

(Editor's Note: This is the first in a series of pictures of homes that have recently been constructed. Others will follow next month.)

The Hutchins Family Has Reason To Be Proud Of New Home

Among the many people here who have moved into new homes lately is Howard Hutchins and his family. They have occupied their new home on Maple Street and are busy with the many odds and ends incident to getting settled. Howard is in the Printing department. The Hutchins have six fine children.

Loose Ends

(Continued From Page Two)

purred Nelle Sugg. But our little Nelle must have been thinking about sunburn. She was in an awful "fix" for a few days but she's peeling off now. Wonder is she can tell us just how many layers did peel off.

Those taking vacations this month are Sophia Jones, Alma Burnette, Belle Carter, Jewel Rackley, Nelle Sugg, Mildred Price, Erma Orr, Fay Whitmire, Opal Whitmire, Lucille Merrill, Ruth Williams, Flora Perkins, filling them out are available in the Personnel Department,

Edna Mae McCrary, Christine Fisher, Lela Bumgardner, Claude Edney, and Jack Davies. We can't account for all the vacations, but Erma Orr is using hers for honeymooning. She was married to Frank Walker, of Ecusta, June 19. And just think, she almost surprised us. We didn't get a breath of the news until a few days before!

A lot of our folks are enjoying Camp Sapphire these lovely week ends but some are still neglecting to go out. Remember, Mother Nature, says that sun, fresh air, water and outdoor exercise are her primary aids to health and beauty, and as yet they haven't been improved upon.

Chemical Lab. News

(Continued From Page Three)

ed the graduation exercises at Montreat.

Judy Hensley, from Oklahoma City, is a new member of the tribe. Judy lives in Hendersonville and works in the lab office.

Bill Hunter has a new dog, an Eskimo Spitz and his name is Boots.

Mary Shytle has a harder time than anybody catching the bus.

Eva Sentelle says vacations are all right, but Roger's just last too long.

Swimmingly at Sapphire,
Your Reporter.