

Miss Kilstrom To Be August Bride Of John Williams

Announcement has been made of the coming marriage of Miss Grace Elvera Kilstrom, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Elmer A. Kilstrom of Penrose, to Mr. John Cephas Williams, Jr., son of Rev. and Mrs. John C. Williams, Sr., of Fremont, N. C.

The wedding will be solemnized at the Faith Tabernacle in Hendersonville on August 25. The officiating minister will be Rev. Sherman Patterson. Immediately following the ceremony a wedding reception will be held at the Matthew Pines in Hendersonville.

Miss Kilstrom graduated at Brevard high school, and is at present employed in the Finishing department.

Mr. Williams graduated from Fayetteville high school and is now a student of theology at Brevard college.

After their marriage, the couple will make their home in Brevard.

PLAN TO CAN

Soon, if not already, you housewives and homemakers will start canning those nice green vegetables that you labored so hard to keep growing. While making plans for your canning, it would be a good idea for you to keep in mind Ecusta's Annual Garden Festival which will be held in the Cafeteria on Sept. 5. Who knows? You may win one of the many useful prizes to be given away!

Margaret Ponder And Wilton Creech Wedding Announced

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ponder of East Flat Rock announce the marriage of their daughter, Margaret Nell Ponder, to Mr. James Wilton Creech, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Creech, of East Flat Rock. The wedding took place at the Methodist parsonage of East Flat Rock on July 13 at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Rev. A. F. Phibbs, pastor of the Methodist church, was the officiating minister.

The improvised altar was decorated with baskets of white gladioli and branched candelabras holding lighted tapers.

The couple entered together, the bride wearing a two piece aqua dress with white accessories and a corsage of red rosebuds.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. The bridal table was covered with a lace cloth and was centered with a two-tiered wedding cake.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip through the Smokies, the Blue Ridge Parkway, and the Shenandoah Valley. They will make their home at 1645 Druids Hills in Hendersonville.

Mrs. Creech is employed in Fine Paper. Her father, Mr. E. L. Ponder, works in the Storeroom.
