

With the Women

AUGUST WEDDINGS

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Buchanan

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin C. Smith

Mr. and Mrs. Ben D. Shiflet

Miss Susan Evelyn Taylor Is Bride Of Alvin C. Smith In Sequim, Wash.

Miss Carpenter Is Married In Home Ceremony

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Mildred Elizabeth Carpenter, daughter of Mr. J. L. Carpenter and the late Mrs. Carpenter, of Newton, to Mr. Ben Davis Shiflet, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Shiflet of Brevard. The wedding took place on Sunday afternoon, July 27 at 5 o'clock in a pretty home ceremony at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Shiflet.

Rev. W. G. McFarland, of the Brevard Methodist church, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

The vows were spoken before an improvised altar of greenery and white gladioli interspersed with branched candelabra.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mr. D. P. Miller, pianist, and Pete Shiflet, brother of the groom, vocalist. Mrs. Miller played "Serenade," "Ave Maria," and "Claire de Lune." Mr. Shiflet sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" as the benediction. The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Fred Carpenter, of Newton, wore a pale blue crepe dress with a side drape effect, high neckline, with brown accessories. She carried a white prayer book, topped with a purple orchid and white satin streamers.

Miss Margaret Carpenter, of Raleigh, was her sister's only attendant. H. B. Shiflet was his son's best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held for members of the family and close friends of the couple. The dining room was decorated with arrangements of summer flowers, and on the dining table was a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

After a wedding trip through Georgia, Mr. and Mrs. Shiflet are making their home in Brevard.

Mrs. Shiflet attended the Newton city schools and Brevard college. She is now employed in the Main office.

Mr. Shiflet is a graduate of Morganton high school and attended the University of North Carolina. He was in service for four years. He is now associated with the Clemson and Co-Ed theatres in Brevard.

THANKS, MRS. LANDECK!

We received our first fan letter last week from Mrs. Anna Landeck. Mrs. Landeck complimented our Home on the Range column, and we feel honored that someone so far away as Lyndhurst, N. J., is taking notice. Mrs. Landeck's son, Dick, works in Endless Belt.

Couple Had Lawn Twilight Wedding Last Month; Reception Held

Miss Susan Evelyn Taylor, daughter of Mrs. Ella Taylor of Hendersonville, became the bride of Alvin Curtis Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Smith of Sequim, Wash., on Saturday evening, July 5, at 8 o'clock in Sequim.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Reid Priest and Mrs. Aubrey Smith. Rev. W. J. Atkinson officiated at the ceremony. The vows were spoken under a vine-covered archway with large white baskets of calla lilies and pink gladioli on either side. Only relatives and close friends of the couple were present.

The bride wore a gray suit with black accessories and an orchid corsage. She was given in marriage by her brother, Howard Taylor. Her only attendant was Mrs. Oren Bell, sister of the bridegroom.

H. V. Nix, Jr., was best man for his nephew.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the future home of the bride and groom. The candle-lighted house was decorated with sweet peas and gladioli. The reception table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Sara Newman and Mrs. Frank Taylor, sister and sister-in-law of the bride, were in charge of the reception.

Immediately following the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Victoria, British Columbia. They have returned and are making their home in Sequim.

Mrs. Smith graduated at Mills River high school, and was employed in Champagne prior to her marriage.

Mr. Smith attended Prospect high school, Prospect, Ala., and spent four years in service during World War II. At present he is connected with the post office department in Sequim.

Carolyn Edmonds Is Married To William Buchanan

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Edmonds, of Asheville, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Carolyn Edmonds, to Mr. William Heyward Buchanan, son of Mrs. R. C. Stewart of Lenorah, Texas. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. W. Thomason of the First Baptist church of Brevard at the church parsonage on Sunday, August 10.

The bride graduated from Brevard high school, and attended Brevard college. She is now employed in Endless Belt.

Mr. Buchanan attended Greenville high school, and is at present attending Brevard college.

Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan are making their home in Brevard at present.