

Mary Ellen Sentelle Is Bride Of Clyde G. Farmer

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Sentelle, of Pisgah Forest, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Ellen Sentelle, to Mr. Clyde G. Farmer, of Gastonia. The ceremony was performed at the Pisgah Forest Baptist church by Rev. J. A. Anderson, 10 o'clock on Saturday, October 25.

The bride was attired in a light blue suit with black accessories. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Karl Bosse, pianist, and Miss Miriam Merrill, vocalist, presented the wedding music. Miss Merrill sang "Always," "Because," and the "Lord's Prayer" at the conclusion of the ceremony. Mrs. Bosse presented the traditional wedding marches.

Miss Jewel Sentelle was her father's maid of honor and the bride's brother, Mr. Alva Sentelle, was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Farmer are spending their honeymoon in Florida and will make their home in Brevard when they return.

The bride graduated at Brevard high school and Brevard college. She has been employed in Champagne three years.

Eva Sentelle And William Bly Rogers Married October 18

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sentelle, of Pisgah Forest, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Eva Sentelle, to Mr. William Bly Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Salmon Joseph Rogers, of Hendersonville. They were married at 11 noon October 18 at the Pisgah Forest Baptist church. Rev. D. Cohn, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

The bride was very attractive in a rose gabardine suit with white and black accessories. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with an orchid. Her sister, Faye, was maid of honor. Coy Rogers was his brother-in-law. The bride's brothers, Kline and Orville, were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a tan and aqua plaid suit with black accessories and her corsage was of red rose buds. The mother of the groom wore a black gabardine suit with black accessories and her corsage was also of red rose buds.

Tall baskets of gladioli and chrysanthemums decorated the background of the altar. Oregon fern and palms combined with seven-branched candelabra made the setting more beautiful. White chrysanthemums marked the pews. Mrs. Lewis Townsend presented a program of nuptial music.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Mrs. Claude Willis, Mrs. H. Garren, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Rogers, Miss Ella Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ballard, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Garren.

After their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Rogers moved into their apartment at Pisgah Forest.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Rogers are employed in the Control department.

The doors and covers of a range never should be banged or slammed. A heavy weight should never be put on the oven door, as this may warp it and prevent tight sealing when closed. All parts of the range should be treated gently if they are to keep their shape, fit tightly and prevent heat leakage.

MR. AND MRS. CLYDE G. FARMER were married October 25 at the Pisgah Forest Baptist church. Mrs. Farmer is the former Miss Mary Ellen Sentelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Sentelle, of Pisgah Forest. She is employed in Champagne.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Matted spots in rugs caused by heavy furniture can be recovered with a damp cloth, pressed with a hot iron. As the nap springs up, brush with a stiff brush.

Broken shoe lace tips coated with clear nail polish and allowed to harden, will last as long as the laces.

No soap in your eyes if you apply cold cream around them before shampooing.

Rolling-pin slip-cover made from a baby's long white stocking—minus the toe and heel—keeps dough from sticking and is washable.

A new plastic tape for venetian blinds has no surface pores to trap soot, dirt or grease. The price range is the same as those for cotton tape blinds.
