

-:- RECENT WEDDINGS -:-

Above, left, is Mrs. George Perkins, who before her marriage recently was Miss Betty Margaret Aycock. Mrs. Perkins is a member of the Main Office staff and her father, J. F. Aycock, is superintendent of the Storeroom. Upper right is Mr. and Mrs. Clyde G. Williams, both of whom are employed here. Mrs. Williams is in Endless Belt and Mr. Williams is in Maintenance. Right below is Mr. and Mrs. Clyde C. Summey. Mrs. Summey is the former Miss Ruth Gillespie of Finishing and Mr. Summey is in Maintenance.

SHUMAN-KERBER

Miss Mary Tressa Shuman of South Miami, Fla., and Franklin Kerber of Brevard were married February 14 at the First Methodist Church in South Miami. Mr. Kerber is employed in Applied Research and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kerber. Franklin's father was his best man and his brother, Wayne, was an usher.

SCRUGGS-FLYNN

Miss Doris Jean Scruggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hampton Scruggs, was married to John Thomas Flynn, Jr. January 24 at Clayton, Ga. The groom is employed on the Cleaner Crew.

CORRECTION

In last month's Echo on Page 10 Miss Mildred Frisbee of Finishing was listed as Mrs. William Ernest Strider. This should have been Mrs. Thurman Rogers. The Echo regrets this error and is happy to make the correction.

Leap year began with Caesar in 46 B. C. when he revised the calendar to take care of the approximately one-fourth day which must be added to the full 365 days to make up a complete year. Caesar decreed that this should be covered by adding a day to the calendar every fourth year.