

*These Men Fight For High Average
Honors*

Bowling Teams Fight For Spot Among Top Four

Heading down the home stretch, the Cards seem to be "in" with their nine game lead, so the fight has settled down to the scrapping for a place among the top four. The four top teams are awarded trophies at the annual banquet.

Above are eight bowlers who are definitely in the scrap for the highest average. The order in which they are numbered above has nothing to do with the position they now occupy in the race. Reading clockwise, they are (1) Ray Rigdon, (2) Lewis Meece, (3) Clyde Galloway, (4) Joe Lavell, (5) Walter Straus, (6) Bruce Reynolds, (7) Chris Rogers, (8) Buck Albert.