

BOOK CORNER

BY

LUCILLE HEFFNER

Do you think you'd rather read the book prior to seeing the movie or vice versa? We aren't attempting to reach a decision on this question, but we would like you to know that we have many books from which movies have been made, or are now being produced. All the books listed here are available in our Library.

Did you see The Bells Of St. Mary's with Bing Crosby in the title role? The story, written by George Victor Martin is none-less exciting than the movie. Would you like to read it?

For many months Library patrons have asked for B. F.'s Daughter, written by the famous novelist, John P. Marquand. Now MGM has brought this outstanding romance to the screen. It stars Barbara Stanwyck, Van Heflin and Charles Coburn.

Laura Z. Hobson wrote the much-discussed Gentleman's Agreement! 20th Century-Fox presents Gregory Peck, Dorothy McGuire and John Garfield in the acting roles. Read the book, then await anxiously the movie adaptation.

It will make you believe in miracles! Heart warming, and tender is this unforgettable story of The Miracle Of The Bells, as told by Russell Janney. The movie presentation features Fred MacMurray, Valli, and Frank Sinatra. This is a different kind of love story—genuinely moving—filled with unshed tears, remembered laughter and the bright and shining miracle that stirred the heart of America.

You get a lot for your money in reading Green Dolphin Street by Elizabeth Goudge. Earthquakes, native uprisings, a typhoon and two vivacious beauties, make the entire story a thriller. In the screen production, Lana Turner plus Donna Reed and Van Heflin share the acting honors. A wonderful book, a thrilling story. Read this book! Never forget the movie!

"Meet me in St. Louis, Louis, meet me at the fair!" Doesn't that recall pleasant memories? By re-reading the book you can again re-live "the good 'ole days". The author, Sally Benson, has given us a warm and nostalgic story of a typical American family prior to the St. Louis Exposition of 1904. The film starred Judy Garland with Margaret O'Brien and Mary Astor. You and your family will find much pleasure in Meet Me In St. Louis.

And don't forget (as if you would) to read Tap Roots by James Street. This film is currently in the making in Hollywood. Scenes filmed in this county, Henderson and Buncombe give the film local interest. The story is an excellent one; you'll recommend it to your friends.

"Support the Red Cross"

The girls are asking for Eisenhower stockings—the kind that won't run.

MOVIE SCHEDULE

April 1

NORTH TO KLONDIKE

Lon Chaney

ROCKY RHODES (Western)

Buck Jones

April 8

SAN FRANCISCO DOCKS

Burgess Meredith

HEART OF ARIZONA (Western)

William Boyd

April 15

EYES OF THE UNDER-WORLD

Richard Dix

THE FEUD MAKER (Western)

Bob Steele

April 22

THE CLIMAX (Color)

Boris Karloff

BAD MEN OF THE BORDER (Western)

Kirby Grant

April 29

SWISS MISS

Laurel and Hardy

WESTERN CYCLONE (Western)

Buster Crabbe

BOB MATTHEWS AND SENOR MIGUEL

Hardly a month passes without a visitor from some foreign country touring our plant. Above, Senor Jose Miguel of Barcelona, Spain, is shown with Bob Matthews in a picture taken in our library. Senor Miguel manufactures paper in Spain and is a cousin of Senor Miquel Miguel, Ecusta's good friend and customer in Havana, Cuba. He is learning English rapidly and made many friends during his brief stay here.

