

Many Ecustans Learning Value Of Having Lockers

Many Ecustans are learning that freezer lockers provide a necessary link in their home food production program.

In addition to canning vegetables, fruits, and meat, many folks here are finding that freezer lockers provide welcomed additional facilities for the preservation of food. Most types of foodstuffs will keep for months in a locker. The local Farmer Federation locker also provides a processing service.

Right, Mrs. Frank Ferrell takes out some food which will soon grace her table. She is one of the many Ecusta housewives who has learned the value of having a freezer locker.

Our company also takes advantage of the spacious storage facilities at the local unit. Left, are several quarters of beef that will soon be crossing the cafeteria counter in the form of steaks, beef stew, etc.
