

To Be Married In June

An engagement announcement of interest to her many friends here is that of Miss Virginia Bolt who will be married to Charles Stewart of Columbia, S. C. June 5. The ceremony will take place in the Presbyterian Church in Simpsonville, S. C.

For the last two summers, Miss Bolt has been on the staff of Camp Sapphire as a life guard, playground supervisor, and music instructor. During the winter she teaches public school music.

Her brother, Bob, landscape supervisor here will be one of the ushers for the wedding.

NEW ARRIVALS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Talmadge (Cleaner Crew) announce the birth of a boy, Robert L., Jr., born March 3 at the Transylvania Community hospital.

Marshall McClanahan Feaster, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Feaster, Jr., (Store-room) arrived on March 14 at the Biltmore hospital, weighing 8¼ lbs. Mrs. Feaster was formerly employed in the Main Office.

On March 17, Larry Patrick Owen arrived at the Transylvania Community Hospital, weighing 9½ lbs. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Owen (Pulp Mill).

Dick Landeck (Endless Belt), Five Year Service Club reporter, lets Echo readers know of the arrival of Richard, William, Jr. in a unique manner. We quote the memo received in The Echo office:

"Since it so happens that The Echo is always on the lookout for news items, my wife and I decided to help out.

"We proudly present to the Echo this month our own bit of news which arrived at 3:04 a. m. March 29, with a good lustly howl proclaiming to all the world that he is a boy and a good healthy one, too. His weight at the time was seven pounds 15 ½ oz. He will be known hereafter as Richard William. My wife and I realize that this is going to extremes in that this going to extremes in furnishing news for The Echo but it seems to us that lots of our Ecusta married couples are doing the same thing, and who are we to consider ourselves different from the rest?

"At any rate, Evelyn, the baby and yours truly are doing fine, thanks."

Marla Jane was the pretty name selected by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hooper (Control) for their new daughter who arrived March 30 at the Patton Memorial hospital in Hendersonville. She tipped the scales at 6 lbs. 13 oz. at birth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Shiflet announce the birth of a 7½ lb. son, Ben Davis, Jr., at the Transylvania Community hospital, on March 26. Mrs. Shiflet is the former Miss Mildred Carpenter, of the Main Office.

Mr. and Mrs. Winifred Tweed (Refining) announce the birth

MISS PAT HODSON IS MARRIED IN FLORIDA

Miss Pat Hodson of the Main Office staff was married to Lawrence H. Parks of 376 N. Gulfstream Ave., Sarasota, Fla., in a ceremony at the First Baptist church of Venice, Fla., on March 17, at 6 p. m. The Rev. Crawford, pastor, officiated.

The bride wore an aquamarine suit with accessories of brown. Immediately after the ceremony the couple flew to Havana, Cuba for a wedding trip.

Another wedding of interest was the marriage of Miss Velma Lackey of Finishing to Franklin Rackley of the same department in Greenville, S. C., April 4. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Lackey of Bryson City and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rackley of Brevard.

of little Patricia Gale, 7½ lbs. at the Transylvania Community hospital on March 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Evans (Refining) are the proud parents of Nancy, 9 lbs. 5 oz. born March 26 at the Mission hospital in Asheville. Mrs. Evans is the former Miss Helen Kimzey of the Pulp Mill office.