LOOSE ENDS

By Mary Sue Thorne

The Stork has paid two visits to folks in our department recently. He left a nice eight pound boy on March 29 for Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Landeck, whom the proud parents promptly named Richard William, Jr. Mrs. Landeck and baby are doing nicely and are at the home of the Mother's parents in Spartanburg for a few days. And on April 11 Mr. Stork swooped down again with a son for Mr. and Mrs. Pete Sugg. Mrs. Sugg will be remembered as Nelle Gallamore.

Fritz Brauer is convalescing at his home in Hendersonville after a severe seige of pneumonia.

Claude Edney has recuperated after "passing out" when he hit his funny bone on the storage bin in the Ironing Dept. Fortunately, he didn't hit his head on anything when he fainted and fell flat on his back on the floor.

Rose Bolick has been confined to her home for two weeks following a tonsillectomy. Grace Tinsley is recuperating rapidly from an appendix operation.

Sue Nicholson says the Christmas spirit surely reigns the year 'round in Santa Claus, Georgia. Sue and her husband, Bill, went to Daytona Beach, Florida recently. On the return trip they spent the night in Santa Claus. They were up early the next morning, breakfasted and were on their way. When they arrived in Greenville, S. C. Bill discovered he had left his billfold tucked under the pillow where he had slept the previous night.

He sent Sue on to Brevard and returned to Santa Claus. He found his billfold just where he left it and considered the trip well worthwhile because the billfold contained $400.00.

Fannie Jo Tinsley was married to Doyle Brown of Hendersonville on April 23. They were married at Gladly Branch Baptist Church Friday evening at 7 o'clock.

Ruth Williams, Edna Mae McCrary, Fay Whitmire, Edna Batson, Billie Brown, Sherrill Allison and Willie Mae Mehaffey took part in the Minstrel Show presented by the Five Year Service Club on April 16 and April 23.

WHO MAKES A GARDEN

Whoever makes a garden
Has never worked alone;
The rain has always found it,
The sun has always shone,
The wind has blown across it
And helped to scatter seeds—
Whoever makes a garden
Has all the help he needs.

Whoever makes a garden
Should surely not complain,
With someone like the sunshine,
And someone like the rain,
And someone like the breezes
To aid him in his toil,
And someone like the Father
Who gave the garden-soil.

Whoever makes a garden
Has, oh, so many friends!
The glory of the morning,
The dew when daylight ends.
The wind, and rain, and sunshine
And dew, and fertile sod,
And he who makes a garden
Works hand-in-hand with God.

POWER PLANT NEWS

By Walter Kay

There are lots of fish stories going the rounds already. We wonder if there are as many caught out of the water as there are on the job. Obie Willingham, Bob Duckworth, Foy Guice, Bill Lyday, Sam Kent, and company are really in fine fettle. Some real nice fish are caught here—on the job, that is.

If anyone is in need of a good lawyer, Dutch Bruner admits he is a good one.

David Nixon, of the Meter shop, is another addition to our department. He's single but is talking about houses and how much a girl eats, so, gals, you'd better work fast.

Well, spring fever is working on me so I guess I'd better stop for now. So long until May!

WORRY can be a menace to your work, your health, and your happiness. It never helps you to solve the problem you worry about; it may even distract your attention and lead to personal injuries.

HELP THE NEW EMPLOYEE

Certainly, show him the way . . . the way about the plant . . . the way to get acquainted with the people he ought to know . . . and the way to do his work more easily and safely.

Treat him as you wanted to be treated when YOU were a new employee.
