

Summer Vacation

So, you're taking a vacation—as many Ecustans and their families will be doing this summer. This means the feel of the accelerator under your shoe; a breeze blowing in the window; the sound of churning train wheels; or it may mean a needed rest in quiet surroundings. In whatever manner you spend it, make it an unforgettable one. On these pages are a few suggestions that may prove helpful. Photo of the Capitol by Ewing Galloway.