

Ecusta Nine In Second Place....

Holding firmly to second place in the league, our Ecusta baseball team takes on some strong opposition in the next few weeks. On Saturday, June 26, Martel will provide the competition in a loop game to be played at Camp Sapphire at 3:30 p. m. Sayles will be our opponent for the big July 5 game at Sapphire at the same hour.

Since the last issue of THE ECHO, the team has had its ups and downs, but still is having an excellent season. Sayles broke the victory string with a 6-5 decision during the month and then Berkley whipped us 5-2 on June 5. A decisive 13-10 triumph over Enka was the crowning blow for us, along with the 26-8 walloping we gave Hazelwood on Saturday, June 12.

Below, part of the large crowd witnessing an Enka-Ecusta contest recently is shown. Inset in the crowd picture are Charlie Clayton, Ray Byrd, and David Sams, three of Ecusta's leading hitters this year.

In games through June 12, Noah Goode was the leading hitter with a .424 average, closely followed by David Sams with .415.

Schedule for July:

July 5—Sayles at Ecusta
July 10—Ecusta at Enka
July 17—Clearwater at Ecusta
July 24—Ecusta at Berkley
July 31—Hazelwood at Ecusta

Standings Through June 12

Team	Won	Lost
Enka .....	8	1
ECUSTA .....	6	2
Berkley .....	5	4
Martel .....	5	4
Sayles .....	3	5
Hazelwood .....	3	5
Beacon .....	3	6
Clearwater .....	1	7

