

ACROSS THE TRACKS

By Betty Finck

Today, I noticed a "golden leaf"! It hardly seems possible that the summer is almost over and the cool, fresh breezes of autumn are approaching rapidly.

We all welcome Hilda Kaltenbach who has joined our Technical department office staff.

This month many have been enjoying the ocean breezes. Bob Peckham and his wife spent a glorious vacation at Myrtle Beach. Martha Sellers went to St. Augustine and other interesting places in Florida and while there found many new specimens for her collection. Also traveling to St. Augustine for their vacation were Pete Muffat and his wife. Pete obtained one of those wonderful Florida suntans!

Olan Hall and his family have moved into their newly erected home on Monroe Street.

ORIGIN OF THE WEDDING CAKE

The wedding cake had its origin in Roman times when the bride and groom together ate a cake made of salt, water, and flour, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica. The cake has become more and more elaborate through the ages, culminating in the high-tiered pastry of today.

Signs of the Times—Quizzed in a newspaper contest on the subject, "What I Want In My Postwar House," one entrant replied in a single, well-chosen word—"Me."

Miss Guyma Lorraine Stover, daughter of Mrs. Russell Batson of the Cafeteria staff, was married to Jack Fenwicke Sunday afternoon August 8 at the Brevard Methodist Church. An informal reception was held at the home of the bride's mother and the picture here was taken at the reception.

FINISHING BITS

By Betty Ann Orr

Geraldine Redmond is our bride for the month of August. She was married on August 14 to Mitchell King. Congratulations and the best of luck to both of you.

Ethel Mae Clark is our latest bride-to-be. She is now wearing a lovely diamond and her lucky man is J. B. Holden. Congratulations to you, too.

Jean Hall's mother, who lives in New York, is here for a two weeks' visit with Jean.

Those enjoying vacations this month are: Myrtle Smith, Geraldine Redmond, Dot Conley, Mildred McClure, Frank and Verna Lee Smith.

Elizabeth Gossett, Hassie and Marvin Garren, and Estelle and D. S. Orr.

Sorry to lose Faye Gossett.

We extend our deepest sympathy to Fred Cairnes upon the death of his father.

JACQUELINE ELVA McCALL MARRIES CARL WHITAKER

Miss Jacqueline Elva McCall of the Finishing Department was married July 10 to Carl Whitaker of Mills River. The wedding took place in Clayton, Ga., with Rev. J. C. Green officiating.

Following a wedding trip through the Smokies, Mr. and Mrs. Whitaker are now living on the Hendersonville road. The groom is associated with Kalmia Dairies in Hendersonville.
