

HARVEST FESTIVAL SEPT. 3rd

Hon. J. M. Broughton To Speak

All is in readiness for the fourth annual Ecusta Harvest Festival which will be held in the Cafeteria Friday night, September 3, at 8 p. m. From one end of the Cafeteria to the other and even on the side porches, Ecustans and their families will display the best of their gardening efforts for this season.

Former Governor J. Melville Broughton will speak at the program Friday night. Mr. Broughton is well known to Ecustans through his visits here and his speaking at the July 4 picnic in 1944. As is customary, Mr. Harry H. Straus will also talk. He has taken a great personal interest in the Festival since it was founded in 1945.

The Ecusta band will provide special music for the occasion. The movies taken at the annual picnic July 5 will be shown as part of the program. These are in color and were taken by Walter Glass.

There has been a major change in the method of presenting prizes this year. Under the new plan, more people will win cash prizes and at the same time, no one will win more than one merchandise prize. There will be eight Grand Sweepstakes prizes rather than the customary one. Winners in the division will be awarded extra points toward the Grand Sweepstake prizes.

This year's Sweepstakes prizes are as follows in the order named: G-E Automatic Ironer, Apex vacuum cleaner, with all attachments; portable radio; G-E Electric Blanket with dual control; table model radio; automatic toaster; electric, automatic coffee maker; and an electric iron. The first prize was obtained through the cooperation of the local McCrary Home and Auto Supply Store and Festival sponsors are grateful for this help.

In the individual display competition, the first prize will be $15 cash; second prize, $10; and third prize, $5. Points will be 1500, 1000, and 500 respectively. Quantity prizes will be points of 1500, 1000, and 500 credited toward the Festival sweepstakes prizes. In the Fresh Fruits

Main speaker for the Festival will be Former Governor J. Melville Broughton. He is well-known to Ecustans through his previous visits here. The picture at the top of the page introducing the story shows Mrs. Al Montville in the midst of her attractive and well-kept flower garden.
