We are glad that our relatives and friends had the opportunity of going through the plant on the Family Days.

Hovey and Alberta Talley attended the Indian Fair at Cherokee recently. Also Violet Lyday who went with some of her friends, on Saturday night.

Those who are taking advantage of the Singer sewing class in Asheville each Thursday night are Laura Pharr, Tulen Israel, Margaret Smith, Dot Gray, Ann Misenheimer and Marie Smith. We hope these girls will model their dresses for us when they are finished.

Since the Smokies are at their height in fall colors, Carolyn Garren, Tulen Israel, Edith Wright and Dixie Whitaker visited them on Sunday.

Lillian King is having the inside of her house remodeled.

Maymie Reynolds showed us the picture of her new grandbaby. It's easy to see why she calls it her "pride and joy."

So long folks; next month Eula will be your reporter.

Glad to be back with you this month.

Arnold Anders was passing out cigars the 7th of September. Guess you know what that means. He's a papa of a big boy, born September 7th. He also has two other children, one born September 7, 1944 and one born September 6, 1946. Seems as though September is his lucky month.

LOOSE ENDS

By Mary Sue Thorne

Some of us were crowing recently about having been with the Company nine years. We are only biddies. Here are some old timers connected with Endless Belt. Mr. Pete Eberle has passed his 26th year while Mr. Otto Goepfert has passed his 25th anniversary. Jack Davies has built 18 years, Dick Landeck 16 and Fritz Brauer 14.

... We are so glad Amanda Powell is able to talk again after a tonsillectomy the first week in October. It was so quiet while she was sick. Mildred Batson has returned to work much improved after a severe attack of sciatica. Mary Price, Flora Perkins, Martha Harris and Lucy Smith have also been on the sick list and we are delighted to have them back . . .

We still have a few vacations hanging over in our department. Lois Osteen is planning to go to Richmond this month and Jo McConnell spent two weeks at Daytona Beach recently and Evelyn Morrow enjoyed a good rest at home . . .

Gene Eggert and his wife and mother left for a vacation trip to Texas and Mexico October 9. They will visit Gene's sister and his wife's brother and other relatives and friends in Houston, San Antonio and points across the border . . .

The mention of Texas reminds me that I had an invitation to Ft. Worth myself October 13 for the celebration of the 100th birthday of my great aunt, Mary Sue Thorne Collins. She went to Ft. Worth to live when she was 18. At that time there were only three brick buildings in the town which have long since been replaced by magnificent new ones.

Aunt Mary Sue's grandfather was burned to death at the age of 104. He went into the woods where they were clearing up and swallowed sparks. Yes, I'm proud of my old Aunt but my Mother had two older great aunts who were sisters, one of whom lived to be 110 and the other 115 years of age.

"The sacred rights of mankind are not to be rummaged for among old parchments or musty records. They are written as with a sunbeam in the whole volume of human destiny by the hand of divinity itself, and can never be erased or obscured by mortal power."—Alexander Hamilton
